MAKE PLANS TO FORM SMALLER CITY BUDGET

A new budget, or the former budget proposed for the city with every non-essential possibly in course of preparation, is tentatively in course of preparation. It was announced by Mayor G. A. Hartman this morning, and it is probable that it will be submitted to the city council for its consideration at the meeting of that body tomorrow night. The consideration of a reduced budget is necessary as a result of the action of the voters of the city in the special election yesterday.

The proposal to cut on salaries of city employes has been made, and it is probable that this economy measure will receive the consideration of the city council Wednesday evening.

There is a possible chance that a train will get through from Portland today and if it does the Rivoli will be open tonight with a big feature picture "The Killer." The picture booked for the Rivoli tomorrow is Zane Grey's "The Mysterious Rider," but the showing of this feature depends on train service.

STAGGERING CHICKENS AROUSE SUSPICION

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 22.—(I. N. S.)—That Miles Dague's chickens staggered when they should have strutted, flopped when they should have flown, and giggled when they ordinarily cackle are claims made by neighbors who also detected the smell of alcohol.

When federal officers, upon solicitation of neighbors visited Dague's place they found a still and some mash. "That isn't for making whiskey," said Dague, "I've found that my hen will lay two or more eggs a day when I feed them that kind of mash." The federal officials, however, decided that Dague should account in federal court for the situation.

OKLAHOMA IS NEAREST PURELY AMERICAN STATE

MALESTER, Okla., Nov. 22.—(I. N. S.)—"Oklahoma ranks as one of the nearest purely American states," according to report of Miss Daisy Moody, state chairman of Americanization, before the Oklahoma Federation of Women's Clubs at their recent annual session here.

Miss Susie Meek, an Indian girl, addressed the women. She said she hoped the members would not consider the Indians as foreigners. She further declared that one-third of the Indians of the United States live in Oklahoma.

PHILIPPINE UNIVERSITY GRADUATES WILL WEAR WHITE CAPS AND GOWNS

MANILA, P. I., Nov. 22.—White caps and gowns are to be worn by the graduates of the University of the Philippines at the next commencement exercises which will be held in April, 1922. The board of regents decided to adopt this garb at a meeting recently, in spite of opposition by many students and members of the faculty. Dr. Alejandro Albert, member of the board of regents explained that white caps and gowns are more suited to a tropical country like the Philippines than the convention black.

Miss Carmen Wilson, American, physical director of women, was one of those who opposed the change from black to white. "You would look like a ghost in white," declared Miss Wilson. "I don't like it."

Quirino Austria, Filipino, instructor in political science, was another who objected to white.

SELF CONFIDENCE

LONDON, Nov. 22.—(I. N. S.)—A Derby employer advertised a vacancy on his staff at £12 a week. He received 369 applications, among which was one enclosed in an ordinary envelope which had a border marked in red ink.

Printed across the top were the words: "As this envelope is unique and stands out from the rest, so does my application."

He got the job.

HENSHAW PREACHES ON 'THE PRODIGAL SON'

BY W. A. GRESSMAN
"In the parable of the prodigal son we see the closeness of the heart of God to the heart of humanity," said Evangelist Henshaw at the First Christian church in last night's sermon on "The Prodigal Son." "The prodigal son gave evidence of being ambitious. His request of his father was a natural request. His father saw the possibilities of his boy and acceded to his request. The elder brother in the parable represents man's inhumanity to man as responsible for much of the world's troubles, and out of it all, God's great love is revealed."

"The prodigal's awakening finds a parallel in every sinner's awakening and reception by God. The sinner will never be saved without a knowledge of his condition—a coming to himself. The prodigal's repentance was followed a confession, acknowledging his father and admitting his own guilt. Then his submission was expressed in 'make me as one of thy hired servants.' Such is the course every sinner must take in returning to God, who will welcome the sinner with a more glorious reception than that given by the prodigal's father."

Solo and duet features interspersed the choir and congregational singing under the lively leadership of Mr. Curtis. The "question box" again furnished occasion for some most interesting and instructive Bible teaching by Evangelist Henshaw.

This evening Mr. Henshaw will speak on "Excuses," and a most interesting message is anticipated. The song service will begin at 7:30.

Old and New

Remember how annoyed you were when it operator told you "Time's up," and asked you to drop another nickel? The ancient hour class adapted to the telephone gives you warning. The sand runs from one globe to the other in just three minutes. If you are long-winded you can turn the glass upside down, and start all over again.

HOW TO CHOOSE GOOD BOOKS FOR CHILDREN

This is the last in a series of articles by Miss Freda Glover, assistant county librarian. They were published in the East Oregonian during Children's Book Week.

Children's Poetry
When choosing a book of poetry for a child distinguish between that written for a child and that written about children for adults. Children like Mother Goose because of the rhythm. Young children should have poetry which is objective, simple and musical. Lyric and narrative poetry should follow the nursery rhyme. Roughly classified, lyric poetry has the greatest appeal to children from two to eight years of age, and ballad and epic poetry for children from nine to thirteen years.

Poetry suitable for children should fulfill the following requirements—it should be musical, should appeal to the imagination, should be simple in thought and construction, and should make the child see beautiful pictures. Beware of pompousness, tediousness and sentimentality. Avoid excess of emotion, and illegitimate emotions such as fear and dread.

FROM THE PEOPLE

LEGION MEN GRATEFUL
Pendleton, Or., Nov. 22.
Editor East Oregonian—
There is a call to colors as well in peace as in war, and to this call you have responded.

The American Government has set aside in commemoration of those who made the heroic sacrifices in offering themselves as living targets in the defense of our land, and of those who laid down their lives that we might be delivered of war, and recalling that these achievements were due in a large measure to the untiring efforts and display of patriotism of the manhood and womanhood of America, this day "Armistice Day," the observance of which you have so nobly done your part was dedicated.

In memory of you and your services on that day this committee representing the American Legion wishes to extend its profound thanks and gratitude, for the help you each gave in making the day truly "Armistice Day."

The Committee
By C. C. PROEBSTEL,
Chairman.

DID PAIN DISTURB YOUR SLEEP?

THE pain and torture of rheumatism can be quickly relieved by an application of Sloan's Liniment. It brings warmth, ease and comfort and lets you sleep soundly. Always have a bottle handy and apply when you feel the first twinge. It penetrates without rubbing. It's splendid to take the pain out of tired, aching muscles, sprains and strains, stiff joints, and lame backs. For forty years pain's enemy. A. your neighbor.

WAR AGAINST TOBACCO HAD SMALL EFFECT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—(I. N. S.)—The various campaigns waged against tobacco in the past year had little effect on the production and consumption of the "weed" in this country.

The enormous amount of 62,000,000,000 cigarettes were produced in this country in 1920, of which 46,000,000,000 were consumed here and the remainder exported. This does not take into account the number of cigarettes consumed by who roll their own.

In addition to the vast amount of cigarettes produced in 1920, 29,515,096 cigars and 3,979,268 pounds of smoking, plug and twist tobacco were turned out.

Kentucky, with 550,000 acres and 467,500,000 pounds in 1920, led all tobacco-producing states, followed by North Carolina, with 582,000 acres and 344,120,000 pounds, and Virginia, with 243,000 acres and 177,300,000 pounds. Prior to the Civil War Virginia led all other States in producing tobacco, but Kentucky usurped this distinction in 1863 and has led the field since.

796 Pounds per Acre
The estimated average yield per acre for the United States in 1920 was 796 pounds, compared to 751 for 1919. Yields for the several states vary greatly, ranging from 1,510 pounds for Pennsylvania to 600 pounds for Georgia. As a rule, higher yields are obtained in localities producing the high-priced types used in the manufacture of cigars.

Although the United States is the greatest tobacco-producing and manufacturing country in the world considerable quantities of both unmanufactured tobacco and tobacco products are imported. The leaf imported is mostly devoted to the manufacture of high-grade cigars, and certain brands of cigarettes. Cuba is the greatest contributor of leaf tobacco to the United States.

The number of tobacco factories in this country is approximately 12,591, of which 11,483 manufacture cigars, 237, cigarettes, and 1,871, tobacco and snuff. New York has the largest number of tobacco manufacturing concerns, followed by Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio and Wisconsin in the order named.

As a revenue bringer to Uncle Sam tobacco ranks among the foremost, bringing in $294,267,669 in 1920 in the various forms of tobacco taxes. This was an increase of more than $89,000,000 over that of 1919, which, in turn, was larger than that reported for any prior year.

ALMOST A SHADOW, AFRAID TO EAT

"My son-in-law was so bad from stomach trouble that he was reduced to almost a shadow and was afraid to eat anything, as all food caused bloating of gas which pressed against his heart, worrying him very much. Our druggist persuaded him to try May's Wonderful Remedy and in two months he looked fine, can eat anything and works hard every day." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.—At druggists everywhere.

The Block Signals Are Working—

In some respects, human experience is like railroadings.

Every moment of the business and social day the block signals are giving right of way to keenness and alertness—while the slow and the heavy must wait on the sidetrack for their chance to move forward.

The ability to "go through" and to "get there" depends much on the poise of body, brain and nerves that comes with correct diet and proper nourishment.

That's why so many choose Grape-Nuts for breakfast and lunch. Served with cream or milk it is completely nourishing, partly pre-digested, and it supplies the vital mineral salts so necessary to full nutrition.

Grape-Nuts has a rich, delightful flavor, is ready to serve on the instant—and is distinctly the food for mental and physical alertness and speed. At all grocers.

To Carry Harding's Voice

When President Harding delivers his address in honor of America's unknown hero at Arlington amphitheater on Armistice Day, thousands who will stand outside the building will hear his voice. Wires running out to the amplifiers shown in this picture just beyond the balustrade will carry his words. In the foreground is the grave prepared for the unknown hero.
