FRED STIMSON DEAD FROM SUDDEN ATTACK

SEATTLE, Nov. 25.—Fred S. Stimson, owner of Hollywood farm, president of the Pacific International Live-stock association and prominent in business circles throughout the Northwest, dropped dead at his home here Thursday as he was dressing to attend a Thanksgiving dinner. He was 54 years old.

Stimson was one of the best known stockmen in the Northwest, having been greatly interested in the success of the Pacific International exposition, of which he was president.

He had recently been re-elected as head of the show. He has been associated with the exposition since its inception eleven years ago, and has been responsible to a large degree for its phenomenal growth.

Although his interests were largely in the Seattle district, Stimson gave a great deal of time to the Pacific International show in Portland and was responsible in large measure for widespread publicity and general interest concerning it in Washington.

RIVOLI SUNDAY AND MONDAY
"DREAM STREET" TO BE SHOWN HERE SUNDAY

"Dream Street" is the latest screen effort to come from D. W. Griffith. It is a tale of romance and love and laughter, symbolized with Good and Evil influences leading an enchantment rarely seen in such cinema productions. The ideas are Griffith while the characters are taken from two stories of Thomas Burke known as "Gina of Chinatown" and "The Sign of the Lamp." The locale is set in Limhouse, London. Although it might be said to encompass the world when it comes to the final analysis of the humans who trip gayly through the several scenes of dramatic effects directed by Mr. Griffith.

A trinity of characters in the person of a young girl, Gypsy Fair, "Spike" McFadden and his brother, "Billie" are the youthful creatures around which is woven a romance of dramatic love filled with poetic visions and governed by the Good and Evil influences of this world symbolized in two remarkable characters. They are Good, embodied by a street preacher, and Evil portrayed by a street fiddler. They seem to set the mental direction of our little people fitting through this street of dreams and gaining a real akin to paradise even on this earth.

Mr. Griffith has assembled a cast of rare talent to enact the roles of "Dream Street." Carl Dempster is the Gypsy Fair. The "Spike" McFadden of the story is taken by Ralph Graves while his brother "Billie" is portrayed by Charlon Emmet Mack. Tyrone Power is the symbolized street preacher for Good and Evil one in the street fiddler is done by Morgan Wallace. W. J. Ferguson plays Gypsy's father and the great Sway Wan, of Chinese nobility is impersonated by Edward Bell. "Dream Street" will be the attraction at the Rivoli Theatre beginning Sunday.

ALTA SUNDAY AND MONDAY

"BIG HAPPINESS" IS FILLED WITH ACTION

"Big Happiness" contains a theme so real and vital that it will find a responsive chord in everyone who sees it," said Colin Campbell the noted director on the eve of the completion of this Robertson-Cole super-special showing Dustin Farnum, the "man-of-mom" of the screen in his first great picture for this company. The picture will be seen at the Alta Theatre tomorrow for a run of two days.

"Since the beginning of time existence has meant physical and mental struggle," Mr. Campbell added. "In 'Big Happiness' there is the tremendous struggle of three persons, twin brothers—unlike except in face and form—and a girl, whose lives, destiny has interwoven in a strange manner.

"The girl married to one brother—to save her father from financial disgrace—finds herself unwittingly the victim of her husband's lust for gold, which causes him to ask his brother to take his place on the night of their marriage. The brother, an adventurous spirit, with real finesse of character that is not at first perceptible, does not realize the seriousness of the situation and consents to the unusual scheme.

"Gradually these two, the brother and the wife, fall desperately in love with each other. Taunted by the knowledge of his falseness, the brother is about to make a clean breast of it, when word reaches him that the girl's husband is dead. But his happiness is short lived for the husband returns, ill with fever. Then comes a dramatic climax.

"I doubt if Dustin Farnum had a role which called for greater dramatic work and in 'Big Happiness' he reaches a height which will set him down as one of the finest screen artists of the day. 'Big Happiness' is a tremendous drama, big, alive and human."

P. T. A. OF RIETH GIVE SUCCESSFUL SOCIAL

(East Oregonian Special)
RIETH, Nov. 25.—Quite a number of Rieth people attended the P. T. A. give last Friday night, among whom were Mrs. W. W. Sander and son Clarence, Moses Jean and Fay Clark, Florence and Esther Powell and Taddy

Roberts and Perry Woods. They report it to have been a very delightful affair.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Woods and family enjoyed Thanksgiving dinner at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Allen Kennedy.

Mrs. Wm. Hostwick has been suffering quite severely this week from a felon on one of her fingers. It is better after having been lanced Thursday morning.

Regular meeting of the P. T. A. was to have been Nov. 25, but owing to the bad weather it has been postponed until Dec. 9, one week hence.

Owing to the bad weather there has been no school at Rieth this week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. English returned Tuesday from Portland where they had gone to have conferred upon them a certain degree in the United Artists. They left Rieth Friday night expecting to return Sunday but were detained by the snow slides.

A gang of six men were sent to The Dalles today by the O-W. R. & N. Co. from here to take the place of men who are out working to clear the snow from the track between The Dalles and Portland.

Sam Winchester returned Wednesday morning from Portland where he had gone on a business trip.

Mr. Kellum and Embush opened up the road Monday from The Kellum ranch to the highway. They had five teams hitched to a large wagon.

Clarence Shuler was the only high school student to go to school Monday from Rieth.

Mrs. McHenry and daughter Marguerite left Wednesday morning for La Grande to spend Thanksgiving with friends and relatives. They plan to return to Rieth Sunday.

The cake and coffee social given by the P. T. A. at the school house last Friday night was quite a success despite the inclemency of the weather. A good crowd was there and every thing on hand was sold, netting the sum of $29.65.
