LONDON JURIST PLANS ENGLISH DIVORCE LAW

BY EARLE C. REEVES,

(International News Service Staff Correspondent.)

LONDON, Nov. 38 .- A strike by divorce judges, until the tudicrous and complicated divorce laws of England are corrected, is advocated by James Dodd, an eminent jurist, in a paper read before the Law Society.

"If only the divorce judges would go on strike they might get something ! done toward clearing away the mypoerisy and perjury that has made the p. m. in honor of Mrs. L. T. Bunch and tion for restitution of conjugal rights. Mrs. Lambirth Clark and family, Mr. It must be shown that the party bring- and Mrs. Lyge Eaton, L. L. Bunch and party in the case a return to the rela-tions of marriage, that the second party has refused and that there has been desertion for two years. Then suit may be brought on grounds of infidelity and cruelty.

"It often takes two years to get this preliminary petition to a hearing," ed to Pendleton Sunday, says Dodd, "and all that then happens is the reading of an obviously hypo-critical letter from the wife and an ers of the Sunday school was held at obvious reply from the husband, and the parsonage on Monday evening. then it is all over in five minutes, at a cost of $250 to $500.

"Then comes the petition for divorce, with another long delay. The cost is appalling, and no good purpose is served by it.

The netition for restitution could be taken in chambers within a week was 135. after service, and as to the lettervits about no collusion, the sooner these are abandoned the better, because nobody is deceived by them.'
