CHURCHLESS TOWN HAS BIG SUNDAY SCHOOL

WALCOTT, Ia., Dec. 1.—(U. P.)—The most completely atheistic community in the United States—not in Greenwich Village nor New England intellectual circles, but in this sturdy German-American hamlet of 700—has been invaded by the Sunday school.
 There hasn't been a sermon from a pulpit in twenty-five years. A church started here twenty-six years ago, failed and the building is now used to store farm implements.
 Walcott was settled back in 1854 by a group of Holstein men from the German-Danish frontier, who came here to escape religious intolerance.
 But women, the wives of agnostics, wanted their children to have the advantages of a Sunday school. The wife of the superintendent of schools, a newcomer, started one with twenty kiddies a month ago. The next Sabbath 55 children attended.
 Card games and dances, old-fashioned square dances, are the favorite form of amusement in Walcott. Sunday is the usual day for dances, and frequently the entertainments last until 2 and 3 o'clock in the morning.
 "What harm is there in dancing?" asks the mayor. "People come here from church towns to dance with us on Sunday."
 HAN FIGHT WITH HUGE BIRD
 SARANAC LAKE, N. Y., Dec. 1.—(U. P.)—As the result of one of the most unusual battles on record in the Adirondacks, William Powell of Redford may lose the sight of an eye. Entering his barn at night without a light, he was struck by a huge bird. He seized it by the leg and attempted to drag it down. The bird fought furiously beating him with its powerful wings and pecking at his head and face. A blow in the eye blinded him and he fell to the floor. He was taken to a Plattsburg hospital. Investigation showed the bird to be a great blue heron, the largest and strongest bird in the Adirondacks, which had evidently taken up winter quarters in the barn.

DOUBLE YOUR SAVINGS

He who says it cannot be done, of course will not succeed, for he will not even try. Will power and honest effort have, time and again, brought ultimate success out of almost certain failure.
 Most people could double their savings by making some minor sacrifices and doubling their efforts. Anyway it is well worth trying for.

Omaha, Neb.—"Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was a splendid tonic and relieved me of all nauseating conditions during expectancy. My baby and I were both strong and hardy in every way. ## MOTHERS! MOVE CHILD'S BOWELS WITH CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP

Hurry mother! Even a sick child loves the "fruity" taste of "California Fig Syrup" and it never fails to open the bowels. A temporary today may prevent a sick child tomorrow. If constipated, bilious, feverish, fretful, has cold, colic, or if stomach is sour, tongue coated, breath bad, remember a good cleansing of the little bowels is often all that is necessary.
 Ask your druggist for genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother! You must say "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup.
