

Social and Club News

MRS. HENNEBERGER HERE
Mrs. Warren Henneberger and daughter, Alice, of Walla Walla, are in Pendleton today as guests of Mrs. Henneberger's sister, Mrs. Roy E. Morse. Mrs. Henneberger is enroute for Greencastle, Pennsylvania, where they will join Mr. Henneberger, who was called to Pennsylvania recently by the death of his father. They will remain there for the next six months, Mr. Henneberger having received a leave of absence from the Bureau of Animal Husbandry by which he is employed at Walla Walla.

IS PORTLAND VISITOR
Mrs. Dale Slusher is in Portland visiting her parents. She will remain there during the holidays and will be joined by Mr. Slusher.

MRS. TOWNSEND IS GUEST
Mrs. R. M. Townsend is a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. Willard Bond. Mrs. Townsend's home is in Portland.

MISS THOMPSON RETURNS
Miss Katherine Thompson returned yesterday after a visit in Seattle. Miss Thompson will arrive here tomorrow to spend the Christmas holidays. She is a student at University of Washington.

EVENTS IN SOCIAL CALENDAR
Christmas week promises to be one of considerable gaiety, many social events being planned for the holiday season. The Jolly Bachelors will entertain with their annual dance December 26, the day following Christmas; the Bachelors will be hosts on December 27 and the Phoenix Club December 28. All three organizations are made up of high school students and active members as well as alumni will be guests.

For December 31, New Year's Eve, is planned the annual Women's Club ball, which will be a benefit affair and will be open to the public. In addition, a number of smaller affairs are planned by Pendleton people.

WEDDING IS SOLEMNIZED
Of interest to the Pendleton friends of Anne Cornell, of Portland, is the news of his marriage to Miss G. Ulrich, of Weiser, Idaho, on Sunday. Miss Ulrich formerly was a member of the faculty of the Caldwell high school. Mr. Cornell formerly played quarterback on the University of Oregon football team and is now coach at the College of Idaho.

MR. AND MRS. BRUSH HERE
Mr. and Mrs. B. Brush, formerly of Pendleton, now of Portland, are guests at the home of their daughter Mrs. Arthur Suhl. Mr. and Mrs. Brush arrived here yesterday and will remain during the holiday season.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan P. Smythe will depart tomorrow for Portland to spend the holidays as guests of Mrs. Smythe's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Kern.

D. OF V. TO MEET
The Daughters of Veterans will meet tomorrow evening in the city hall.

IDEAS FOR HOUSEWIVES

- HOME DEMONSTRATION
- Cake.
  - Milkless, Eggless, Butterless
  - 2 cupfuls cake flour.
  - 1 cupful raisins.
  - 1 cupful chopped nuts.
  - 1 cupful water.
  - 1-2 cupful hard or other un-salted shortening.
  - 1-2 teaspoonful salt.
  - 1 teaspoonful cinnamon.
  - 1 teaspoonful cloves.
  - 1 teaspoonful nutmeg.
  - 1-2 teaspoonful baking powder
  - 3-4 teaspoonful soda.
  - Mix the raisins, sugar, lard, salt, spices, and water together and cook in a saucepan for 3 minutes. Put aside to cool. Sift, then measure 2 cupfuls of flour, add the baking powder and sift again three times. Dissolve the soda in 1 tablespoonful of cold water. Pour the cooled mixture in a mixing bowl, add the flour, then the dissolved soda, and beat the batter hard for several minutes. Bake in a loaf or sheet in a slow oven.

NEWS OF THE COUNTY OFFICES AND OFFICERS

Essays Are Submitted.
The essays of children in the county schools on the subject, "How to Make Highways Safe," are being received now at the office of the county superintendent of schools.

Breeding Is Sued.
Suit to recover $8,810, claimed to be just due on a note, has been instituted in circuit court by Frank Neagle against Chris. Breeding and others. Raley, Raley and Steiner and H. J. Warner represent the plaintiff.

Lewis Is Sued.
Charles E. Lewis is defendant in a suit which has been brought by the State Industrial Accident Commission in which judgment to the amount of $21.31 and costs are sought. R. I. Keator and C. C. Page represent the commission.

Gibson Case Up Tuesday
The case of Arthur Gibson, arrested recently by E. P. B. Ridgway and Bob Sinclair after a raid had been made on his property has been set for Tuesday of next week. A still and a quantity of mash was found on Gibson's premises, the officers report.

Bank Seeks Judgment.
Fina Kirkpatrick and Rachael Kirkpatrick are defendants in a suit brought by the American National Bank in which judgment to the amount of $10,200 is sought on a note claimed to have been given in October, 1929. Raley, Raley and Steiner and H. J. Warner represent the plaintiff.

Grand Jury To Meet
The grand jury will be called to convene in Umatilla county January 3, District Attorney R. I. Keator said this morning. The January term of court will convene one week later. Comparatively little of importance will be up for consideration by the grand jury, according to the district attorney. Petty criminal cases are in the majority.

Take Teachers' Test.
Thirty-six candidates for state teachers' license are taking the tests prescribed by the state at the office of the county school superintendent, W. W. Green. Twelve of those taking the tests are teaching in the county now on county certificates which have been issued on the applicants' records in other states where they have taught. Mrs. L. M. Mothoney and Mrs. W. W. Green assisted in conducting the tests.

W. C. T. U. HOME TOWN IS DRINKING HEAVILY

EVANSTON, Ill., Dec. 21.—(U. N. S.)—This town, the national headquarters for the Women's Christian Temperance Union, is not living up to the eighteenth amendment, according to civic leaders.

"Evanstonians are drinking heavier than they ever did," said Miss Kathleen Moore, head of the city's charities. "They used to go to Chicago for a few drinks—now they make their own and drink it fast."

HARD LUCK FOR GEORGE

LONDON, Dec. 21.—(U. P.)—Prince George, fourth son of King George, attained his 19th birthday yesterday. The young prince, who is a Midshipman in the Royal Navy, is destined for a naval career. Unlike his elder brothers, the Prince of Wales and Duke of York, who had too many calls upon their time to stick to soldiering or sailing exclusively, young George spent the full term at the naval college, and full sea-going term as cadet and midshipman. He will have to work his way up like other young naval officers and has little chance of the rapid jumps granted to his brothers.
