

With Winter in the Air

CRÉPE, velours, faille and duvetyne are new weaves among the fabrics Paris dictates for Winter! And colors! Brick red, leaf green and brown—it is as if fashion has brought back, in fabrics, the colors Winter banished from the landscape.

These lovely colors, these exquisite fabrics, you yourself can make into the delightful clothes shown on this page, or any number of others just as smart.

Our prices on fabrics are exceedingly moderate. And there is another saving brought to you by the Deltor—a wonderful new invention—that is enclosed with Butterick Patterns, and with Butterick Patterns only.

The DELTOR Saves You 50c to $10

1. The Deltor gives you an individual layout chart (yes, an individual chart—not just a general chart but one for your exact size and for each suitable width of material.) With it, you lay out your pattern—the expert's way. Because of it, you buy 1/4 to 1 1/2 yard less, a saving of 50c to $10 on material for every frock!
2. It guides you in putting your garment together so that you attain the elusive fit, drape and finish of an expert.
3. It gives you Paris' own touch in finish—those all-important things upon which the success of your gown depends.

BEFORE you make a single Winter garment, come in and select from the newest Parisian fashions. The Deltor suggests the correct materials and simplifies the making of the most intricate gown.

TIGERS WONT TRADE VEACH OFF TO YANKS FOR ANY RAW ROOKIES

Cobb Snorts at Thought That Brilliant Outfielder Might be Swapped; Tyrus Cheered

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 29.—(U. S. S.)—They have been smoking hop in New York to think we would trade Bob Veach for any substitute infielder they have," declared "Ty" Cobb, manager of the Detroit Tigers, when asked about a report that his heavy-hitting outfielder would be traded to the Yankees for some infield material.

"Bob Veach is a ball player. If we have to sacrifice him we will get a ball player in return, you may be sure of that. Imagine giving a .350 hitter and an excellent outfielder for a 'rookie' or a substitute! We have never offered Veach in any kind of a trade, and I don't believe we will get a chance to trade him this Winter for anything we want."

And "Ty" will play no "long shots" next year—at least not in the Tiger infield.

"We will not try minor-league kids on our infield," said the Detroit manager. "The man who makes these positions must be experienced and must already have made good in fast company. I have every hope of landing two or three capable infielders during the Winter, but what they will cost us I don't know."

Detroit pitchers will not be so soft for the American league sluggers next year, "Ty" believes.

"Our pitchers will be better next year. Those who are on the coast are taking great care of themselves, and they all look great. They will be improved next season, and this fellow Johnson, from the Pacific Coast League, is going to be a wonder."

Can You Solve This Movie Puzzle?

Here's a new puzzle that's as simple as A-B-C. Everybody can solve it, from grandma to baby Jim. The creator of a Movie Puzzle in a theater decided to play a joke on his audience, so he rearranged the names of 10 famous stars and threw them on the screen. The above picture shows how they look. To solve the puzzle all you have to do is to rearrange the letters of the 10 funny sentences so that they will spell the correct actors' or actresses' names. For instance No. 1 is Hedda Chaworth. Everybody knows who she is. If you can name all ten you can win the Ford Sedan or $500.
