

News Notes of Pendleton

CALENDAR OF EVENTS
 January 24-27—Meeting of Oregon State Bee Keepers Association in annual convention.

County Court to Weston.
 Members of the county court were in Weston today where they were making inspections in regard to road matters.

Petitioner in Bankruptcy.
 Emil Beck, Pendleton merchant tailor, has filed a petition in voluntary bankruptcy through his attorneys, Raley, Raley and Sawyer and H. J. Warner. In the petition, the assets of the petitioner are given at $1,242.55 and his liabilities at $2,321.06.

Sues On Account.
 Huletta March is defendant in a suit which has been brought by the Milton Box Co. Judgment to the amount of $129.68 is asked for wages and merchandise which is claimed to have been furnished by the plaintiff to the defendant. S. D. Peterson, represents the plaintiff.

Pioneer Passes Away.
 The infirmities due to old age and diabetes were responsible for the death last night of Mrs. Emily Jane Comery, 94, who passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Fanny Carney, 500 Tustin street. She had resided in Pendleton for 40 years and was a pioneer of Oregon. Born in Virginia in 1827, she came to Oregon in 1856 with her parents. The wagon train passed through Pendleton, and the family went to the Willamette Valley where they established a home. She married Abraham S. Comery in 1856, and he died in 1873. She came to Umatilla county to reside in 1881 and had made her home here almost continuously since that time until her death. She is survived by three daughters and one son. They are Mrs. M. J. Carney and Mrs. Katherine Fugit of Pendleton, and Mrs. Eva Engel of Oakland, Calif. and Edwin O. Comery of Hermiston. There are 10 grandchildren living and several grand-grandchildren. Boss Carney, Roy Fugit, Emily Carney and Mrs. Louisa Labow are grandchildren living here. Funeral arrangements have not been made.

Two Drunks Are Fined.
 Sam Luton and Mathew Shoshups were both fined $10 this morning in police court when they pleaded guilty to a charge of being drunk. They were arrested by the police last night.

Woman Seeks Husband.
 A query from the police at Salem has been received here by Chief W. R. Taylor in which the whereabouts of James F. Hill are sought by his wife, May Hill. He is usually employed around hotels or restaurants, according to the information received here.

Sues On Notes.
 Two suits have been instituted in circuit court by Ellen J. Wylie against O. P. Burris and others and Leonard L. Bonney and others. The sum of $450 is sought in each suit, which is claimed to be past due on notes. Forclosures on real estate is sought as part of the suits. Raley, Raley and Stelwer and H. J. Warner represent the plaintiff.

La Grande Gives Praise.
 La Grande citizens voiced their praise for their own legislators and the "faithful 14" senators who blocked the demands of the Multnomah county delegation that the state finance the 1925 exposition in a banquet there recently. More than 900 men were in attendance at the banquet. A resolution embodying the commendation of La Grande for the Eastern Oregon groups in the house and senate was passed unanimously at the meeting.

Wet Law Enforced.
 At a joint meeting of grain growers from several counties in Washington and five men from Umatilla county which was held yesterday at Walla Walla a resolution was adopted and directed to Gov. Louis F. Hart demanding that the state secure the enforcement of the grain discount law in that state. A meeting is expected to be called here within the near future when the grain growers of this county will take a similar action. Nothing further is expected to be done until the ruling of the secretary of agriculture is received on the hearing which was held at Portland in November.

Has Tombstone Removed.
 The winter daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Winters, was operated on this morning at St. Anthony's hospital for the removal of her tonsils and adenoids. Her many friends will be glad to know that she is resting comfortably this afternoon.

Held Inquests Service.
 Funeral services for Robert Ingalls, former soldier who met his death in France as a member of the Lost Battalion, were held yesterday afternoon at the Presbyterian church with Rev. G. L. Clark in charge. The American Legion assisted in the services. A firing squad, commanded by Tom Searey, fired a volley for him at the cemetery. Tom Murphy carried the colors, and the pall bearers consisted of Dr. C. E. Lassen, Dr. C. O. Wainwright, Alger Fee, Charles Vinter, Charles DeSpain and Roy Alexander.

Sent Message to Wilson.
 "Please accept congratulations upon your birthday from friends in Umatilla county, banner county of Eastern Oregon which region twice gave you overwhelming majorities. You are held in growing esteem by many who hope your days will be filled with sunshine and that you will live long and prosper." The foregoing message was wired to Woodrow Wilson yesterday by E. B. Aldrich, E. W. Maloney and A. H. Cox representing the county organization in connection with the Wilson foundation.

Take Lively Canoe Ride.
 A more sedentary existence than riding a canoe on the Umatilla river from Stanfield to Hermiston when the river is high might be found. Fred Moses and Louis Scharpf take that view of the matter, at least. They were hunting ducks during the early part of the week in the west end of the county and just for fun, they decided to take the 16-mile ride on the river between the two towns. There are some rather swift currents when the river is high, and the ride was not devoid of thrills.

Down To Brass Tacks.
 The conveners of the conference of cities of the Pacific Northwest to consider the question of taking care of tourist camp accommodations have sent out questionnaires to delegates who will attend the conference. In these questionnaires an effort is being made to secure first-hand information as to the ideas of mayors and other municipal officials on the proper course to take to develop tourist accommodations without giving "something for nothing." Mayor G. A. Hartman has received one of the lists and he will fill the list before he goes to the meeting at Spokane January 7. Councilman William Dunn is Pendleton's other delegate.

FUTURE SUBMARINES WARFARE AT ISSUE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—(A. P.)—A direct issue as to whether future submarine warfare shall be conducted under civilized rules was raised today by the American delegates before the arms conference naval committee. They urged the adoption of the Root resolution and won the support of Great Britain, but the French, Japanese and Italian delegates urged a reference of the matter to a commission of experts. The Root resolutions, which would regulate the use of submarines against the merchant craft was the subject of a spirited debate at the morning session. Unlimited construction of air-craft, but sharp delimitation of their use in war was recommended by the subcommittee of aviation.

A New Game

"Dad, you'd better watch your own auto tires! The kids have a new game. They curl up on the inside of a tire and go looping down a grade. Anna Johansen, of San Francisco, can loop 299 times and still be able to stand.

WE ARE EXPECTING a World-wide Revival.

The Economical Kitchen Range

GUARANTEED to Keep Fire Twice as long as any other range on the market with one-half the wood.

The Lang "ALASKA" Kitchen Range is the most economical cook stove on the market. Occupying small space, it fits in exactly with the smaller kitchen. Constructed of Armco polished Iron, with nickled plated trimmings, large oven and fire-box, the "ALASKA" meets every kitchen requirement. Although the "ALASKA" is a wood burning stove with an extra large fire box, coal can be burned by raising the grate. Hot water coils can easily and cheaply be installed. A visit to our store will prove to you that the Lang will be your next stove. Write or call today.

ROUND SPORT CIRCLE

With Jack Veiock
International News Sporting Editor

Yankee Get Killinger, Penn State Star.
 Glen Killinger, famous halfback of the noted Penn State football team, this year, signed a contract recently to play with the Yankees next season. It was learned at the headquarters of the New York club, Killinger was the star of Penn State's great eleven. He announced recently that he was to become a professional and it was reported he was to take part in a professional game in Philadelphia. Killinger was also a good baseball player with his college team. He is an infielder and will probably be placed at third base with the Yankees.

Benjamin Points for Dundee.
 Joe Benjamin, a member of the Kenos-McKerick stable, and also a former sparring partner of Dempsey's, though he's only a lightweight, is ambitious to dethrone Johnny Dundee as "Junior lightweight" champion. In our mail today is a letter from Joseph, who is en route to California for the holidays.

"I may possibly box Joe Welling in Portland before I come back. My hand now has healed and I will return to the East no later than February."

Benjamin is a highly intelligent boxer, and when he trains faithfully is an excellent workman. His last local fight was with Pete Hartley, and he gave the "Durable Dan" the worst pasting that hardy Norwester has ever received in New York.

A Benjamin-Dundee match would be a great attraction at the Garden.

A Turly Barrier.
 To the heavyweight who has dreams of becoming a champion in the big division there comes, from time to time, the alluring vision of Mr. Jack Dempsey, the Tiger Man, looking leeringly out of his lair.

Most anybody has a right to challenge Jack. This is a free country, and if some big fellow has a notion that he can put Mr. Dempsey to sleep in a given number of rounds he cannot be sent to prison for entertaining that notion.

It is a fact, however, that most fighters weighing around two hundred pounds would prefer just now to be little fellows, boxing in a smaller division. There doesn't seem to be much encouragement for them in a battle with Dempsey. In the first place, he is a rough person with a braggart and unpleasant manner while in the ring. He seems to care little for the finer things of life when he is wearing boxing gloves, and in the ring it is hard to get him to discuss the art of Michael Angelo or the poems of Lord Byron. He wants to fight with his fists.

Jack has a simple and direct manner about him that is disconcerting to a contender. He has a way of clipping a gent on the point of the chin with a right hook, and for that reason a gent has to be very careful to play with him.

A gent's floor feels soft enough beneath one's feet, but it is hard when one's head hits it with a ban. And that is what one's head is likely to do if one loses his head long enough to challenge Mr. Dempsey.

Jack is indeed a burly barrier between the heights of Fame and the heaveyweight aspirants who would scale those heights.

Somehow all the fights go out After Dempsey lands a clout!

FOUND IN SHALLOW GRAVE.
 JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Dec. 22.—(A. P.)—The body of a young white man, thought to be that of W. A. Allison, of Columbus, Ohio, was found in a shallow grave a short distance south of here by a negro last night.
