

People Here and There

W. G. Bogart is in Walla Walla. Jess Linselaugh is transacting business in Walla Walla.

Henry Barratt and Ralph McEwen, both of Athena, were visitors in Pendleton yesterday evening.

Willard W. Curry was in the city yesterday en route to his home in Walla Walla after visiting for several days in La Grande with his mother.

Rev. J. M. Cornellison of the Mission, returned last evening from Bend, where he attended a meeting of the executive commission of the Presbytery of Pendleton.

Lyman Rice of Pendleton, one of the commissioners who are handling the soldiers' bonus in Oregon, is registered at the Benson. At home he is in the banking business.—Oregonian.

It requires six days for Allen Porter to drive his beef to the nearest railroad. Of course, the distance could be covered in less time, but that would mean a shrinkage, and weight of the beef is far preferable to saving a day or two. Mr. Porter, one of the prominent and also successful stockmen of Grant county, owns about 3000 acres and a large number of cattle. His place is about six miles north of Long creek and his market for beef is at Pilot Rock, in Umatilla county, due north of his ranch. There is plenty of hay for feeding this winter in the Long creek country and there will be considerable left over when grass comes. Hay is very cheap.—Oregonian.

Max Gierke returned to Pendleton this morning after a visit with friends in Portland.

C. W. Paulus, cashier of the bank at Pilot Rock, was a business visitor in Pendleton today.

Brooke Dickson returned this morning from Portland where he spent Christmas with his parents.

W. L. Thompson, president of the American National Bank, arrived this morning in Pendleton to spend a few days on a business mission.

Ned Cornwall was at one time in the auto business in Pendleton. He is here during the holidays spending a few days with friends. He will later go to Walla Walla for a brief visit.

A. H. Peterson of Walla Walla was a Pendleton visitor today.

J. M. Ashworth of Weston was here today on a business mission.

NEWS NOTES OF PENDLETON

Returns to Forest Grove
O. M. Akey, who is professor of physics at the Pacific Uni. at Forest Grove, has returned to his work after spending the holiday season with his cousin, James Akey, and family.

Express Tax to Go
Information has been received by the local manager of the American Express company that the tax on express shipments expires December 31. Therefore after the first of the year express shippers will not have to pay any federal tax on their shipments.

Birds Face Hardships
The ice and the snow are making it a difficult matter for the feathered tribe in Umatilla county to secure enough food to sustain life. Sportsmen report that cock pheasants have been found in fields, frozen to the ground. Hunger is having the effect of driving the birds to domestic supplies of food.

After Grandpa and Daddy
James Harold Maloney Jr. has been handed one big-sized package to start out in life with. He was born yesterday morning at St. Anthony's hospital, and he has been named after his grandfather, Judge J. W. Maloney, and his dad, Harold Maloney. Mother and son are getting along very nicely, according to reports today.

To Lay New Main
A new water main on Main street between Webb and Alta has been ordered and will be laid as rapidly as the work can be done. An investigation by Engineer Frank Hayes showed that the old pipe is rotten past economical repair, and the decision to lay a new main followed after a break in the pipe was discovered two or three days since.

Land Is Sold
Land belonging to H. G. Casteel and R. L. Casteel, who operate near Pilot Rock, was sold under the hammer at the court house today by Deputy Sheriff Schwitzer Turner under a court order of foreclosure. The land was offered in three tracts, and the first tract brought $8,000. The indebtedness charged against it is $12,000, which makes the purchase price equal to about $40 an acre.

To Watch for 1922
In at least two churches of the city there will be special services this year on New Year's Eve. At the Christian church there will be a program in the evening which will be followed by a social session. A watch party will bring the party to a close shortly after 1922 has been ushered in at midnight. Special musical services will be held Saturday evening at St. Mary's Catholic church. The program will include the following numbers: "Tantum Ergo," "Solemn Singing of Te Deum," "O Salutaris Hostia," and the "Benediction." Several other churches will have special observance of New Year's at the services Sunday morning and evening.

Hackathorn Is Star
That George Hackathorn, former Pendleton boy, is now a real movie star is stated by Bert Campbell who recently witnessed the release of the picture, "The Little Minister" in which Hackathorn has the title role. He says the former local man is a great favorite in Los Angeles. The following is a clipping from a Los Angeles paper. Clara Kimball Young has chosen George Hackathorn for one of the principal masculine roles in "Worship Madonna," her latest photoplay to go into production. He will start work as soon as he finishes a part of prominence with "Human Hearts," which King Baggot is making with an all-star cast at Universal City. This week Hackathorn is appearing on the screen of two downtown theatres, Grauman's and Miller's. He is seen at the former in the title role of "The Little Minister" and at the latter in Louis Weber's "What Do Men Want?"

DES MOINES HAS FIRE
DES MOINES, Ia., Dec. 29.—(U.P.)—Fire caused by defective wiring partially destroyed the Davidson Brothers produce house. The loss is estimated at $100,000.

ATTENDING TO CHICKENS AND GARDEN
"My neighbors are surprised to see me looking so well, for they thought I would not live to see summer. I had sleep pain around my heart as to cause me to faint. I knew it came from beating and pressure of pain in my stomach. A friend in St. Louis told me to use Gray's Wonderful Remedy and I now feel better than in all my life. I am doing my own work, attending to my chickens and my garden and have cleared home." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.—At druggists everywhere.

HOME DEMONSTRATION IDEAS FOR HOUSEWIVES

Buying

- + No housekeeper should hope +
- + to buy intelligently and economi- +
- + cally by doing all of her mar- +
- + keting over the telephone; but +
- + it is true that the use of the +
- + telephone in buying does save +
- + time for the busy housekeeper. +
- + It is a big convenience in that it +
- + eliminates a trip to the store +
- + many times when the house- +
- + keeper could not go, and it may +
- + be efficiently done with a re- +
- + liable dealer; so we cannot say +
- + that the telephone should not be +
- + used. There are certain times +
- + when it should be, but we can- +
- + not be successful buyers unless +
- + we frequently visit the market +
- + in person.
