G. A. C. REUNION

Much interest is centered around the gathering together of all Oregon Agricultural college students, past and present, which will be held this evening at the Jolly Inn. Numerous forms of entertainment have been prepared by the various committees and those who dance and those who do not dance will find plenty to occupy the time. One of the features of the evening will be the reminiscence corner, and it is expected that the words "Do you remember" or "Have you forgotten" will drift to the ears of the dancers many times during the course of the evening.

HAVE RETURNED HOME

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Dursi, who were called here by the serious illness of Mrs. Dursi's mother, Mrs. Jesse Salzig, have returned to their home in La Grange.

BABY SON DIES

News of the death of the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. McEwen was received with deep regret by their many Pendleton friends. The baby was born December 19 at Santa Monica and lived only one day. Mrs. McEwen will be remembered as Miss Gladys Boynton.

AWAY FOR HOLIDAYS

Mr. and Mrs. W. Percy Folsom and daughter, Dorothy Folsom and son, Masun Folsom of the Security Apartments are spending the holidays at their farm near Pilot Rock.

HAVE RETURNED HOME

Mrs. Jennie Hearn and children, who have been visiting with Mrs. Kearns' sister, Mrs. D. W. Caldwell, have returned to their home in Pendleton.

ATTEND MASQUERADE

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bonson, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert A. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Earnest, Mrs. Helen Thompson, Miss Katherine Thompson and Mrs. Thelma Thompson will motor to Walla Walla today and will be guests at a masquerade party to be given in that city this evening with Mr. and Mrs. George Ginn and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Paxton as hosts and hostesses.

BIRTHDAY PARTY GIVEN

Elizabeth Crommella entertained her little friends this afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Crommella, the occasion being her eighth birthday. The rooms were decorated in pink flowers and the table was centered with a birthday cake with eight pink candles, a gift sent by Miss Elizabeth's grandfather, who resides in Chicago. Each little guest was presented with a favor and games were enjoyed during the afternoon hours. Betty Bond, Katherine Collins, Janet La Fontaine, Betty Jane Barr, Mary Elizabeth Hoyt, Lois Schaeff, Helen Hlydenstein, Helen Rigg, Vivian Warner, Marguerite Murdy, Jean Frazier, Marian Moorhouse, Shirley Thompson, Elizabeth Steiner, Mary Schaefer Wilma Peterson, Pauline Traylor and Mary Bond were the invited guests.

MRS. KEMP HONORED

Honoring Mrs. Jennie M. Kemp, former state W. C. T. U. president, a large attendance of the local union met at the club rooms of the library last evening, where a reception was accorded her. A very interesting program was rendered by Pendleton's younger talented readers and musicians. By request Mrs. Kemp told of her recent visit to Washington, D. C. and the reception she received from Secretary of Commerce, Herbert Hoover, under whose direction she worked during the national food administration and won the high record while so employed. As woman are now taking a keener interest in affairs at the national capital the audience felt much enlightened by Mrs. Kemp's description of the seating of the delegates at the world arms limitation conference. At the conclusion of Mrs. Kemp's talk the Chautauqua salute was given with the white ribbon rally cheer. After the program a social hour was enjoyed with Mrs. Nancy Despain and Mrs. Gladys Brown presiding at the tea table. Mrs. Kemp left last evening for Portland where she will be honor guest at a reception prior to her departure for California, where her work now calls her.

RETURN TO MONTANA

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scharn who have been visiting during the holidays with their sons, William Scharn and Emmett Scharn, have returned to their home at Kallispell, Montana.

GUILD MEETS

The Worth-White Guild of the Baptist Church met last evening in the church parlors for their regular study of "Missions." Mrs. F. M. Riley was leader of the meeting.

GIVES INFORMAL TEA

Mrs. L. J. Shannon will be hostess to a number of the college girls who are here for the holidays at an informal tea on Saturday afternoon.

RETURN TO MEACHAM

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Barker, who visited with friends in Pendleton over the Christmas holidays, have returned to their home at Meacham.

MRS. SALZIG CONVALESCENT

The many friends of Mrs. Jesse Salzig will be pleased to know that she is convalescing from her recent serious illness.

AN ENEMY TO GOOD HEALTH

Good health has no greater enemy than constipation. Foley Cathartic Tablets are mild but sure in action. They banish biliousness, bloating, bad breath, coated tongue, sick headache, sour stomach and other ills caused by indigestion. Take one tonight and you will feel better in the morning.

OUR bread is a good food. It is well made of the finest materials obtainable and is baked by master bakers in a modern sanitary bakery. It is a bread that never disappoints.

SEATTLE VISITOR HONORED

Mr. and Mrs. Ora Hanavan entertained at a dinner party at their home last evening in honor of Miss Martha Amundson of Seattle, who has been a holiday guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Newison 512 Franklin street during the Christmas season. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Neve Newton, Mrs. James Cornfield Jensen Erickson, F. L. Baker, the honoree and the host and hostess. Following the dinner cards were enjoyed, Mrs. Amundson and Mr. Erickson winning the trophies. Miss Amundson will return to her home in Seattle today.

GIVE BENEFIT DANCE

The interests of Pendleton society folk are centered around the second annual dancing party to be given at the Eagle-Woodman Hall Saturday evening by the Women's Club. Committees are active and the affair promises to be one of the leading events of the holiday season. Money derived from this social evening will be used in making a payment on the Steilway grand piano that was recently installed in the club rooms of the county library by this organization.

WOMEN'S CLUB MEETS

Yesterday afternoon in the club rooms of the county library the members and guests of the Pendleton Women's Club listened to a most interesting program. Mrs. J. E. McCook led in a community sing, "Scene's beauties of Oregon" was the title of a talk by Mrs. George A. Hartman; Mrs. Frank Frazier gave a short sketch of the life of George H. Williams; Mrs. Helen Robinson reviewed the life of the well known Oregon editor, Harvey W. Scott, and Mrs. A. L. Schaefer told some interesting facts regarding Mr. Scott's life while he was editor of the Portland Oregonian. Mrs. Thelma Akey pleased the guests with a vocal solo, and Miss Mamie Hartnett delighted her hearers with a vocal solo. The tea table was centered with a tiny Christmas tree. Mrs. Frank Frazier and Mrs. R. H. Raymond presided. Mrs. J. E. Akey, Mrs. F. E. Welch, Mrs. Walter Adams, Mrs. Dora Allen, Mrs. L. M. Akers and Mrs. L. E. Twitchell were hostesses for the enjoyable meeting.

SURPRISE PARTY IS GIVEN

A surprise party was given on Wednesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Jesse McGee as the honor guests, when a number of their friends called at their home to spend the evening. Cards and dancing were enjoyed. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. Brady, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Marly, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Pozgar, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Nelson, Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Massey, Mr. and Mrs. James Payne, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Rogers, Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Newton, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Dayton, Mr. and Mrs. Ed DuPuis, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Fleck, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stroble, and the honor guests.

RETURNS FROM PORTLAND

Mrs. Horton N. Graham returned from Portland last evening, where she attended the funeral of her father, the late Captain James Hayes. Mr. Hayes was a well known pioneer, having sailed into the Portland harbor on the first ship to carry general merchandise, over 60 years ago. He later engaged in the cannery business, which covered a period extending over 40 years. Captain Hayes was born in Preston, England, and was 81 years of age.

YOUNG LADIES HOSTESSES

The young ladies' class of the First Methodist church Sunday school, under the leadership of Mrs. George Rugg, entertained the members of other classes and college students, who are home for the holidays, with a party at the church parlors last evening. A mock track meet was staged which brought forth much merriment. Other games were enjoyed and the party closed with a community sing.

MR. LANE ENTERTAINS

Last evening Anthony Lane was host to a number of his friends at his home, 108 Beaugard street. Cards and various games occupied the guests during the evening. Miss Laura Schwarz, Miss Nadine Amoureux, Salome Mann, Miss Margaret M. Joerger, Miss Elizabeth Joerger, Jack Rastlino and M. Weber were the guests present.
