JAZZ MUSIC'S EROTIC INFLUENCE IS RUINING GIRLS, SAYS REFORMER

Pathological, Nerve Irritating, Sex-exciting Music Befuddles Moral of Young Women

CHICAGO, Dec. 30.—(U. P.)—Moral disaster is coming to hundreds of young American girls through the pathological, nerve-irritating, sex-exciting music of jazz orchestras, according to the Illinois Vigilance Association, which has instituted a crusade to arouse parents, churches and schools to the danger to young womanhood.

Big cities, in poor homes and rich homes, are victims of the weird, insidious, neurotic music that accompanies modern dancing.

"The degrading music is common not only to disorderly places, but often to high school affairs, to expensive hotels and to so-called society circles," declares the Rev. Phillip Yarrow, superintendent of the Vigilance Association, who has prepared a pamphlet report dealing with the problem.

The report says that the vigilance society has no doubts to abolish dancing, but seeks to awaken the public conscience to the present danger and future consequences of jazz music.

Referring to the 1,000 radio girls, the Rev. Yarrow's report says:

"The demoralizing part played by jazz music and dancing in the experience of these girls was repeatedly portrayed in their pitiful stories. To observe the final fruits of the jazz music party one must visit a big dance floor in Chicago's Second World. Here investigators for the Vigilance Association found the logical culmination of so-called 'modern' music.

"And the distracting notes of the saxophone and the wild beat of the tom-tom was witnessed conduct not hitherto seen outside the old red-light district. In full view of the audience, which included many boys and girls apparently in their teens, couples on the floor were seen to almost every form of indecency.

"Dancers violently threw their arms around each other, frequently assuming unusual postures. Lights were lowered, and to the strains of spirited music, actions that are indescribable took place. This is the full blowing—the fruition of the modern jazz music, which has so crazed and befuddled the moral make-up of young people."

The Rev. Yarrow says it is the duty of parents, churches and schools to know the manner in which the young people are dancing and, having learned this, they should insist on a movement for wholesome, normal music and clean dancing.

Members of the American Legion post at Greenville, South Carolina, will serve as policemen during the annual banquet of the police department of that city. The request for the Legionnaires to police the city for three hours during the entertainment was made by Chief of Police J. P. Smith. The Legionnaires will wear their chief to serve during absence of the regular police force.

MANY NEW RECORDS MADE BY SWIMMERS DURING YEAR 1931

Acquatic Sports Enjoyed One of Most Popular Periods in All of its History

BY HARRY W. NICHOLS, Correspondent
(International News Service Staff)

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—From every point of view the year 1931 stands out as the greatest in the history of American swimming. Water sports enjoyed unprecedented popularity with contestants and public more and better competitors were in the field than ever before, and swimmers of both sexes broke world, national, collegiate and scholastic records.

Nearly forty new standards were accepted officially by the A. A. U. This falls to take count of performances actually falling as records, but at distances not listed, and of a number of feats accomplished abroad by Miss Ethelda Bleibrey, then of the New York Women's Swimming Association; Norman Ross, of the Illinois A. C., and Lady Langer, of Honolulu.

Great progress was witnessed in ocean and college water polo. The team of the Illinois A. C. and Princeton University, pennant winners, were the strongest produced here.

In all-around A. A. U. equities the men's team championship was captured by the Illinois A. C., and the women's by the New York W. S. A. Each ran up the highest scores in both the indoor and outdoor national titles tests.

The following are the outstanding swimming records made in 1931:

Men, Free Style
100 yards, 75-foot pool, 0:53 1/2, John Weismuller, at Brighton Beach Baths.

THOMPSON CAN NOW ENJOY LIFE AGAIN

Seattle Man Eats, Sleeps, Works and Feels Better Than in Many Years.

Seattle, Wash., Dec. 30.—(U. P.)—It would be a skeptical person indeed who could any longer doubt the efficacy of Yantac, after reading the many statements from people in Seattle and other parts of Washington who have been wonderfully benefited by taking this medicine.

Typical of these statements is that of R. O. Thompson, 3717 Bellevue Ave., West Seattle, Wash. He says:

"The worst medicine was made unbearable by stomach trouble and I didn't know where to turn for relief. I was almost desperate and I realized something must be done to relieve my condition, as I was losing weight and strength every day.

"If it hadn't been for Yantac there is no telling what my fate would have been, but since taking this medicine I am like a new man in every way. I eat, sleep, work, and feel better than I have in years."

Yantac is sold in Pendleton by Thompson's Drug Store and by leading druggists.
