Sincerely yours, FRANCIS V. GALLOWAY,

District Attorney. When asked about the charges which have been the burden of the rumors spoken of here for several weeks, Chief Taylor declared they were without foundation and were fabrication from beginning to end.
"In the letter where reference is made to Ridgway, a mistake has been made," the chief declared. "Ridgway was not one of the men who made that trip. There were three of us, Sinclair, John F. Cassidy and myself. We left here at 3 o'clock one after-noon with six suitcases filled with exhibits taken by us in a raid on the headquarters of Chinese during the Round-Up. We stopped at The Dalles that night to cat, and while there, the chief of police of The Dalles talked to us a minute at the lunch counter. He never arrested us, nor, so far as I know, did he ever have any intention of arresting us. He just stopped and talked to us just the same as any of-started the report. "It doesn't make so much diffet-ence about what has been said in Pendleton," he said, "because people know me here. But the report was telephoned to Milton and to Walla Walla and was spread there. Lots of people in those districts believed the report, and I certainly would like to get acquainted with the man responsible for starting it."
