O'ROURKE TELLS WHY JUDGES HAVE TROUBLE IN MAKING DECISIONS

No One Can Suit All of Crowds, He Declares, and Bias in Mind of Fans is Barrier.

BY HENRY L. FARRELL

(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—Judges at boxing contests realize that it is impossible to please everyone. Many times under the boos and the jeers from the gallery and ringside they must believe it impossible to please any one.

New York fans have been yelling loudly about the incompetency of the judges officiating at some of the big fights and several champions say they will not box for a decision.

Tom O'Rourke veteran fight manager, who is now a member of the state commission was asked for his reason why it was impossible to get judges that could give some satisfactory decisions.

"We think they have been giving consistently good decisions," he said.

"The fault lies in the judgment of the spectators. Occasionally, even experts will disagree, but in the majority of cases trained boxing men will see the same points and arrive at the same conclusion.

"The trouble results chiefly when two popular boys are in the ring. On one side of the house is packed the partisan backers of the one boxer and on the other side is the following of his opponent. Each watches his favorite. They overrate every point the favorite makes and underrate every move of his opponent. They look at it from only one point of view, their favorite has to win.

"Of course, the bettors have to be figured in among the disgruntled ones. If professional gamblers lose a bet, they'll always howl.

O'Rourke suggests as a remedy and as a general improvement in the game that all the spectators keep score at a boxing contest, like baseball fans do at a game.

More Titles for Moore

Joe Moore, international speed skating champion, has just annexed another title. He won the Middle Atlantic championship by scoring twice as many points as his nearest competitor at Newburgh, N. Y. He won the 440-yard dash and the half mile, taking second in the mile and 220-dash.

Points should be marked, he said for aggressiveness and clean hitting, for clever sparring and good defense and should be subtracted for clinching, fouling, stalling and holding, when ordered to break.

What constitutes points in boxing is outlined in the following taken from the rules of the New York commission.

"The decision of the judges shall be based primarily on effectiveness, taking into account the following points:

1. A clean, forceful hit, landed on any vulnerable part of the body above the belt should be credited in proportion to its damaging effect.

2. Aggressiveness is next in importance and points should be awarded to the contestant who sustains the action of a round by the greatest number of skillful attacks.

3. Defensive work is relatively important and points should be given for cleverly avoiding or blocking a blow.

4. Points should be awarded where ring generalship is conspicuous.

5. It is advisable to deduct points when a contestant persistently delays the action of a contest by clinching and lack of aggressiveness.

6. Points should be deducted for a foul even though it is unintentional and not of a serious enough nature to warrant disqualification.

7. A contestant should be given credit for sportsmanlike actions in the ring.

8. In order to arrive at a true conclusion every point should be carefully observed and noted as the contest progresses, the decision going to the contestant who scores the greatest number of effective points regardless of the number of rounds won and lost. When neither contestant has a decided margin in effectiveness, the winner should be determined on points scored and of aggressiveness."

M'CARROLL WINS FROM THYE WHEN PORTLAND MAN FAILS TO THROW

No Fall Secured in 1 Hour of Wrestling; McCarroll Shows Strength to Good Advantage

Pendleton fans of the wrestling and boxing sports laughed, shouted and watched with keen interest while five wrestling events were staged last night at the Eagle-Woodman hall when Ray McCarroll stayed with Ted Thye for one hour without the Portland man securing a fall. Under the terms of the match, Thye had agreed to throw the local man twice within an hour, and his failure to do this gave McCarroll the match by forfeit.

The bout was a rough and tumble affair with both men being pushed through the ropes several times. Thye was the aggressor the greater part of the evening, at the terms of the bout made it natural for him to be, but McCarroll was not lacking in willingness to mix. His next used hold was the headlock. Thye gave proof of his cleverness by securing good holds time after time only to have McCarroll break them by sheer strength. The Portland man was fast with his hands in punches, but McCarroll's strength enabled him to stay without danger.

The preliminaries were the best seen in Pendleton for a long time from an entertainment point of view, judging by the way the amateurs brought down the house with their offerings on the mat and with the gloves. A willingness to mix it all the way was the characteristic of the lads which suited the crowd, and Dick Hanley kept them at it in regular slaughtering style for all the time there was.

Clarence Weaver was awarded the decision in a three round go with George Christensen. The next event was a wrestling bout between light weights which Walter Brant won from Lee Endicott in five minutes after a lot of mad scrambling.

Darrell Marin and Joe Smith staged a lively three round boxing bout which Marin won in the third by the heavy route. Slim Scott proved to be about as game a young man as the local ring has ever seen. Outboxed by Kid Brooks, his lighter opponent, and pounded repeatedly for falls, he held on and came back for more until his legs were barely able to hold him. Carl Nelson acted as referee for the bout between Thye and McCarroll, and before the bout began, he agreed to meet McCarroll at Walla Walla soon. Charley Olson of Chicago was also introduced and he challenged any 160 pound man in the country. Billy Pardue of La Grande is a boxer who will soon appear at Walla Walla in the offerings that are being staged at the Garden City.

HERMISTON COMMUNITY CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS

(East Oregonian Special.)

HERMISTON, Jan. 14.—The last meeting of the Community Club was held at the Hermiston Hotel where the ladies gathered for a luncheon. There were 44 present. After a program the business of electing officers for the ensuing year was taken up. The following ladies were elected: President, Mrs. Kellogg; vice-president, Mrs. Robb; secretary, Mrs. McNaught; treasurer, Mrs. Sapper. Both high school boys and girls teams are going to play Pendleton here tonight.

On January 14 the Westland post office will be discontinued and the mail handled through the Hermiston post office. An order to this effect from the assistant post master general of the United States has just been received by C. H. Skinner. Frank Waughman was elected director of the Hermiston Irrigation

A FRIEND IN NEED A FRIEND INDEED

Writes Mrs. Hardee Regarding Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Los Angeles, Calif.—"I must tell you that I am a true friend to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I have taken it off and on for twenty years and it has helped me change from a delicate girl to a stout, healthy woman. When I was married I was sick all the time until I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was in bed much of my time with pains and had to have the doctor every month. One day I found a little book in my yard in Guthrie, Oklahoma, and I read it through and got the medicine—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—and took eight bottles and used the Sensitive Wash. I at once began to get stronger. I have got many women to take it just by telling them what it has done for me. I have a young sister whom it has helped in the same way it helped me. I want you to know that I am a 'friend indeed' for you were a 'friend in need.'"

Mrs. GEORGE HARDEE, 1043 Byron St., Los Angeles, California. Let Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound be a "friend indeed" to you.

District at the annual election Tuesday. He will serve three years.

Mrs. H. M. Sommerer was a Pendleton visitor Wednesday.

While a number of boys were coasting at school, Joe McNaught had the misfortune of falling and hurting himself. He was unconscious for several minutes.

O. E. Marshall, formerly of the staff of the Pendleton Tribune and now with the Universal Film Exchange, was in town this week with business at the Play House.
