Just Folks
 by Edgar A. Guest

A WARM HOUSE AND A RUDDY FIRE
 A warm house and a ruddy fire,
 To what more can man aspire?
 Eyes that shine with love and joy,
 Is there more for man to know?
 Whether home be rich or poor,
 If contentment mark the door,
 He, who finds it good to live,
 Has the best that life can give.
 This the end of mortal strife!
 Peace at night to sweeten life.

THE STULTIFYING WILLIS RESOLUTION

In all the history of the senate there is no other such paradoxical resolution as the one adopted seating Senator Newberry, after which dismissing the contest and declaring that Newberry is entitled to hold his seat in the senate, contains the following:

"The expenditure of such excessive sums in behalf of the candidate either with or without his knowledge and consent, being contrary to sound public policy, harmful to the honor and dignity of the senate and dangerous to the perpetuity of a free government, such excessive expenditures are hereby severely condemned and disapproved."
 In other words, the act which was "contrary to sound public policy," which was "harmful to the honor and dignity of the senate," which is "dangerous to the perpetuity of a free government" is denounced and condoned in the same resolution and the beneficiary of the infamous act is further rewarded with a seat in the highest legislative body in the world. Not only that, but the senate has stultified itself further by disregarding and overriding a policy expressed in the vote of both houses of congress setting a $10,000 limit upon such expenditures.

The farcical performance is thus characterized by Senator Kenyon of Iowa, progressive republican, and leader of the senate revolt against Old Guard reactionarism:
 "All over the country in the last campaign we read upon the billboards, in great letters; 'Let us quit wiggling and wabbling'; and that was what we charged the democratic party with. If there ever in all the history of the world has been such a spectacle of wiggling and wabbling as there is in this case right now I should like to have anybody produce the record; and this is the senate of the United States!"

"We are asked here to support a proposition writing our own infamy; that his election was against sound public policy, harmful to the honor and dignity of the senate, and dangerous to the perpetuity of free government, and yet to seat the man; and the gentlemen who have done the wiggling and wabbling have now found a cyclone cellar where they think they can go and escape the wrath and the tornado of an indignant public opinion.
 "We are told by the senator from Ohio (Mr. Willis) that his resolution will express some policy in campaign expenditures. We have a policy expressed in the $10,000 limit that both houses of congress voted, and that was flagrantly violated in this Michigan campaign. What more policy do we want? When five or six years from now some one presents himself here with a certificate and an acknowledged expenditure of $500,000, will we write another policy then, and say: 'We seat the man. It is destructive of free government, and yet we swallow our conscience and say for the future that no such sum shall be spent. It is all right in this case?'"
 "Oh, what a farce!"

The task of opening the Columbia highway can be made very simple. Let Portland apply to the blockaded road the same quantity of hot air they wasted on the Wallula cutoff and in explaining how the farmers of the state clamored to be taxed for the 1925 exposition and the drifts upon the highway will vanish as quickly as did the tallow dog who chased the asbestos cat through the district so vividly described by Col. Dante.

Figures presented by Commissioner Copeland of New York show that for the year 1919, 68 per cent of the babies born in New York were born to foreign born mothers; these figures seem startling but we must remember that prior to 1492 there were very few white people in this country.

In the midst of other excitement dont forget that the Commercial association is soon to have an election and that nominations are about to close.

Klamath county will have a special election February 21 to vote on an $800,000 road bonding proposal; is it a case of courage or a case of nerve?

Some want to abolish war by abolishing greed; that cannot be done but we can turn Greed against war by making war unprofitable.

Look What They're Doing Now!

"Illustrated legs" is the latest fad in London. This West End beauty is decorating a leg so boldly that the pictures will show through a sheer silk stocking. And he says he has a steady demand for such designs.

What Pendleton Grade Schools Are Doing

Hawthorne School, First Grade.
 The pupils promoted from the first to the second grade are as follows: Marion Plummer, Francis Weisbord, Leonard Himes, Effie Snyder, James Nelson, Virgil Grause, Harold Robinson, Marjorie Hirscheff, Lester Himes, Jessie Walker, Lyle Mons.

Third Grade.
 Evelyn Penland, Edwin Gubbs, Jack Coffman, Arnold Warmstrom and Arthur Young have been neither absent or tardy this semester. Thelma Smith and Robert Perry were dropped from the third grade this week.

Everett Gilliland, formerly of La Grande, was entered Tuesday. Much interest was taken in art in representing the different methods of traveling at home and abroad.

Alex Oliver was a visitor in the third grade Friday morning.

Fifth Grade.
 Clarence Frankum has reentered school after an absence of three months.

Sixth Grade.
 The sixth grade won the spelling contest for the week between the fifth and sixth grades. It was a tie between the two divisions in arithmetic this week.

Malinda Gibson, Mabel Hensley and Walter Smith were the only members of the sixth grade to be placed in the awkward squad of the marching class this week.

Seventh Grade.
 In appreciation of Mrs. Forshaw, music supervisor, the seventh grade planned and carried out a most pleasant surprise Friday morning during the music period. The program was opened by a short talk given by Francis McGee. The following musical selections were then given, directed by Bonnie Zeleny:

Barcarolle—Class.
 Tree Top Mornings—Girls.
 The Cold Blasts May Blow—Class.
 Naples—Boys.
 The Forest Concert—Girls' and Boys' Double Quartet.
 Evening Bells—Class.

Neil Devore and Ethel Patty were chosen captains in arithmetic for this month.

In last week's arithmetic test Neil Devore was the only one in the class who received one hundred percent. Others receiving ninety-five per cent were Lavelle Ardeburn, Ray Corwin,

SPENT HALF HER TIME IN BED

Farmer's Wife Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her a Well Woman

Carter's Creek, Tenn.—"Three years ago I was almost an invalid. I spent half of my time in bed, being afflicted with a trouble which women of a certain age are apt to have. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Tablets and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. I am a well woman now and have been for two years. I can work as well as any one who is younger and as I am a farmer's wife I have plenty to do for I cultivate my own garden, raise many chickens and do my own housework. You may publish this letter as I am ready to do anything to help other women as I have been so well and happy since my troubles are past."—Mrs. E. T. GALLOWAY, Carter's Creek, Tenn.

Most women find plenty to do. If they are upset with some female ailment and troubled with such symptoms as Mrs. Galloway had, the smallest duty seems a mountain. If you find it hard to keep up, if you are nervous and irritable, without ambition and out of sorts generally, give the Vegetable Compound a fair trial. We believe it will help you greatly, for it has helped others.

Gerald Englehart, George Male, Ethel Patty, Laura Rasmussen, Opal Reeves, Ruth Sherman, Bonnie Zeleny.

Up to date the following pupils have finished all book reports in the following order: Willis Lecklider, Elmer Warren, Gilbert Pirard, Esther Nelson, Reva Meyers, Bonnie Zeleny and Opal Zeleny.

Next week every one in the seventh grade hopes to have at least thirteen fourths tests finished. Names will be printed of those who do not complete that number.

Those receiving one hundred percent in spelling last month were Joe Anderson, Ethel Patty, Gilbert Pirard, Frank Eardly, Willis Lecklider, Jennie Moran and Laura Rasmussen.

The following pupils missed more than three words this week: Henry Johnson 5, Elmer Warren 11, Howard Young 15, Bernice Johnson 5, Juanetta Perkins 4, Lavelle Ardeburn 6, Francis McGee 7, Fred Walker 4, Esther Nelson 10. The side with Francis McGee as captain won this week.

Eighth Grade.
 The following pupils received 100 percent in spelling every day this week: Blanch Morton, Carl Vortman, Thelma Carmen, Myrtle Minnis, Thelma Kinman, Florence Walters and Helen Anderson. Those missing

For the purpose of acquiring accuracy and speed the eighth grade arithmetic class is divided into two groups with Irene Swanson and Carl Vortman as captains. Any pupil winning three times in succession scores one for his side. The score this week stands six to seven in favor of Irene's side. Those making tallies on Irene's side were: Kathryn Simpson, Helen Anderson, Thelma Kinman, Robert Beck, Philip Vanlo and Gail Buffington. On Carl's side were Myrtle Minnis, Katherine Dickson, Edward Kramer, Beryl Harrah, Carl Vortman and Wayne McAttee.

The eighth grade has been very much interested in "Perspective Drawing" during the past week. In the spelling contest, seventh vs. eighth, the eighth grade won this week.

A very lively debate was carried on in the civics class. "Resolved that a large army is of more importance to the U. S. in time of war than a large navy." The class decided in favor of the affirmative side.

Mildred Pisk, Yvonne Elder, Katherine Dickson, Wayne McAttee, Glenn Buffington and Gail Buffington proved to be very able speakers.

28 YEARS AGO

(From the Daily East Oregonian, January 28, 1894.)

On Wednesday evening Miss Millie Gerrish entertained several young friends at whist, and a club was formed to hold meetings once in two weeks. The members are Misses Millie Gerrish, Fannie Mead, Della Livermore, Grace Smith, Messrs. Ed Switzer, T. C. Nye, Jr., Jake Welch, Harry Raynor.

Tuesday evening at the residence of Robert Sargent the ladies of Trinity church gave a pleasant social with games and various amusements. One feature affording much enjoyment was the act of "finishing the donkey," in which being blindfolded one attempts to properly attach the detached tail to a pasteboard donkey. The band club was present and played. G. W. Proebstel, Jr., has come down from Adams on business.

Fishing snacks on the east coast of Scotland are in many instances being hauled up, turned turtle and converted into dwellings. This is due to the slump in the fishing industry.
