HAPPENINGS TO LATE WORLD WAR VETERANS

BY THOMAS L. STOKES. (United Press Staff Correspondent.) WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—The tremendous toll in physical disability taken by the world war in the ranks of soldiers of this country is being brought to light through the efforts of the United States Veterans Bureau.

Over 30,000 of these claims were the result of the clean-up campaign conducted by the Veterans' Bureau throughout the country last year. Thousands of disabled soldiers, the bureau states, have only recently become aware of the fact that the government had made provision for their relief.

Investigation by the bureau revealed that there were great numbers of veterans suffering from major disabilities who lacked information as to the proper method of filing their claims. In many cases they were entirely ignorant of the relief provided by the government.

Another cause for many of the late claims now coming into the office is that of minor disabilities, which the ex-doughboys thought too slight for compensation, have become major disabilities through inadequate medical attention after discharge on account of the character of occupation in which many of them have become engaged.

The United States Veterans' Bureau faces a big job this year. Beside taking care of 194,578 men now in vocational training, it must find a way to provide for 29,960 who are ready, but not yet in training. The records show that 153,650 men are now receiving disability compensation. Last year a total of 245,153 claims were handled by the bureau. Altogether 760,153 claims have been filed with the bureau since the armistice.

The army is going to dress up. Crusade has been started by the war department against the ill-fitting uniform, which for so long a time has caused the enlisted man as well as the public to complain.

Orders have now been issued providing for the alteration of army uniforms at the time of issue. Where a quartermaster tailor shops the alteration will be made there. At camps where there is no tailor the fitting will be done under contract. But the suit must fit, the war department has decreed.

Complaint has been widespread, too, the war department acknowledges, regarding the campaign hat now used. However, nothing can be done about that the present time as there are on hand some 750,000 such hats acquired during the war which will have to be used up before a change can be made, the department states.

Many of the disabled veterans in vocational training in our leading universities are showing a high grade of scholarship. Four great toboggan slides have been erected in various parts of the city. Carnival clubs will rule. Police on the lookout for excessive pranks, face the bouncing blankets if they try to dampen the carnival spirit.

Carnival chiefs were hopeful of reviving the spirit of old. The last carnival was held in 1917. A miniature of the carnival was revived recently when Marshal Ferdinand Foch of France was a guest of the American Legion here. He pronounced it gorgeous. During the week of high carnival clubs in full regalia are privileged. The key to the city goes to the carnival ruler and his carnival queens. The queens are selected through beauty contests.

NEW STAR GLEAMS FOR OPERA AS GERALDINE SPURNS THE CONTRACT

Miss Farrar's Roles of Tosca and Madame Butterfly to be Sung by Viennese.

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—(I. N. S.)—A new grand opera star, dazzling in her brilliancy, today holds first place in the firmament at the Metropolitan Grand opera house.

It would perhaps be unfair to say she is the old star wanes.

But Geraldine Farrar, who for fifteen years has dominated the soprano roles at the most famous opera house on the American continent, is going on concert tour.

Her five year contract has expired, and she has refused to accept a six weeks contract for next season.

Mme. Marie Jeritta, who arrived seven weeks ago from Vienna, is singing "Tosca" and "Madame Butterfly"—the roles heretofore exclusively sung by Geraldine Farrar.

Staves in Farrar Role. Mme. Jeritta refused to come to America unless she could sing "Tosca" in her first appearance. Negotiations lagged. Miss Farrar's propensities were known. At last officials of the Grand Opera company here decided to bring the Vienna blonde, who in real life is Baroness Popper, to New York.

Her first appearance was a notable success. She could act as well as sing, naturally, beautifully, superbly.

Miss Farrar has decided to go on concert tour. She is to take in $250,000 in one year—far more than she could hope to earn in grand opera.

Miss Farrar has sung in fifty performances each season for fifteen years. Mme. Jeritta has been signed up for four seasons at fifty performances a season.

Farrar Declines Contract. Miss Farrar turned down flatly the contract offered for a half-season here.

"In offering the short-term contract to Miss Farrar, Mr. Gatti-Casazza, the general manager of the Metropolitan, said, 'I was simply following a procedure which is a matter of policy with me—to give as much variety as possible in a season in artists as well as in repertory. I hope that Miss Farrar will return to the Metropolitan for the season of 1923-1924.'

Mme. Jeritta has grown up in a family of singers. She is the wife of Baron Popper, who is a son of Blanche Marchesi, a world-renowned singer and a grandson of Mathilde Marchesi, the famous Paris teacher, who numbered Melba and many other famous singers among her pupils.

AFTER TWO SOMERSAULTS AUTOIST PUTS ON BRAKES

ELYRIA, Ohio, Jan. 30.—(I. N. S.)—Howard Benham lives to tell of his auto, turning two somersaults.

He said that after a chain got tangled in one of the wheels of the machine, the auto turned turtle, righted itself, traveled for a distance, turned the second turtle and again righted itself.

Benham said he then thought it time to put on the brakes. Benham was uninjured.

DRAMATIC WRECK AVERTED AFTER CO-ED SHOWS THE YOUTH HOW TO KISS

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—(I. N. S.)—Rehearsals of the play "Back to Earth," to be presented by the members of the Hermit and Crow Dramatic Club of Northwestern University, are once more progressing satisfactorily.

A woman of the cast, who had wrecked the show the other day, but the kiss was forthcoming and the work again was resumed with renewed vigor.

"Aw, I can't do it," Ken Paider, decked out as a fair maiden and designated to kiss one Ben Carswell, gesticulated.

"Carswell is too rough and anyway, his breath reminds me of chewing tobacco."

The stage coach was frantic. The whole show, apparently, had struck a snag and one that couldn't be passed. The feminine end of the scene remained immovable and there the show stopped.

When in came Miss Pauline Griner, a co-ed. She heard the sorry tale of the coach and volunteered "expert" aid.

"S-Smack-k."

Carswell grinned.

"That's how," said Miss Griner. Paider grinned and the show went on.

An Army Marches On Its Stomach, Said Napoleon

The Great Corsican Knew That Success in Life Depends Upon Your Strength, Energy and Endurance.

BY HARRISON VAUGHN

When Napoleon led his victorious armies through Europe, his worst enemies were not the nations defending themselves against his smashing onslaught; but he was confronted by the graver question of how to provide nourishing and strengthening food for his soldiers.

The Great Corsican realized long over a century ago, as has every commanding general since, that men's bodies must be perfectly nourished if they are to retain their natural strength, energy and vigor.

In fact, that the very health of the human being is regulated almost entirely by the stomach. Under-feeding, insufficient nourishment, means loss of flesh, anaemia, lack of red blood and subsequent weakness of the entire system.

What such people need to enable nature to bring back their strength and vigor, restore their lost weight, and put them in fighting trim, with rich, red blood coursing through their veins is Tanlac, the powerful reconstructive tonic and body builder.

A man or woman suffering from sour stomach, bad breath, biliousness, indigestion, or gas on stomach, is unfitted either for physical or mental labor. Sufferers from these ailments find life a burden; they look on the world through blue glasses, the joy and rewards of the vigorous, happy, normally healthy person is not theirs.

Their troubles embitter them against the world, destroy their ambitions and make their lives dull and unhappy.

How foolish to continue in this condition when on every hand throughout the length and breadth of the land, people by the thousands are daily testifying to the remarkable powers of Tanlac in conquering stomach troubles. This powerful reconstructive medicine builds up the weak and the despondent; gives them new hope and happiness and a new lease on life.

Tanlac's name has been praised by hundreds of thousands. Testimonials from every corner of the United States and Canada have shown conclusively that even in cases where patients had almost given up all hope and where men and women had believed themselves doomed to a life of misery and suffering, Tanlac has overcome their troubles and brought back health, energy and happiness into their lives.

If you are not "fit as a fiddle" in the morning and don't feel better than when you went to bed; if your breath is offensive and you have that bad taste in your mouth, your body is not being nourished properly. What you need is Tanlac to restore you to normal. Nature can bring back the flesh you've lost, put the bloom of health in your cheeks, the spring of energy in your step and the sparkle of happiness and contentment in your eye.

NOTE—Tanlac Vegetable Pills are an essential and vitally important part of the Tanlac treatment. You cannot hope to get the most satisfactory results from Tanlac without first establishing a free and regular movement of the bowels. Tanlac Vegetable Pills are absolutely free from salomel and give satisfaction.

Tanlac is sold in Pendleton by Thompsons Drug Store and by leading druggists.

'PRIESTS OF PALLAS' FESTIVAL TO BE REVIVED

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 30.—The famous Priests of Pallas festival, which was an annual event each fall and attracted nation-wide attention up until a few years ago, is to be revived, according to an announcement made by officials of the Chamber of Commerce. In conjunction with the Priests of Pallas festival will be staged a huge, spectacular industrial festival with numerous high-class entertainment and exhibit features.

The combined festival project has already received the promised support of various civic organizations and Edward O. Paeth, president of the Kansas City Chamber, indicated that it would be a tremendous success.

"The board of directors has voted solidly for something of an exhibition nature in the fall, and the festival idea, to my mind, will start an influx of trade to this city which will be nothing short of phenomenal," asserted John M. Guld, general secretary of the Chamber.

TEACHER LOSES POSITION WHEN PUPILS PLAY POKER

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—(I. N. S.)—Because he allowed several of his boy students to take part in a poker game at his home, Paul Miller, professor of physics and chemistry in the Newton, N. J., high school, has lost his job.

Professor Miller denied he had participated in the game and said that when he found the boys playing poker he immediately stopped the game. The board of education voted to reprimand him, but on the threat of the resignation of ten of Miller's fellow teachers, including six women, the order was changed to dismissal.

400 KILLED IN STREET ACCIDENTS IN 1921

PARIS, Jan. 30.—(A. P.)—Four hundred persons were killed in Paris streets by automobiles or horse-drawn vehicles, tramways and other means of locomotion in 1921.

The problem of street traffic has been the subject of many investigations and numerous reports and recommendations have been made to prefect of Police Louitler.

Some three and a half miles about six feet wide were painted across the streets at the intersection of the busiest corners of the city, policemen were stationed at these points to motion automobiles to stop and pedestrians crossing the streets on the "red bands" were supposed to be in absolute safety.

Pedestrians, however, seemed to think it was below their dignity to walk the "red bands" and now they have been abandoned for "zones of safety". The latter will consist of adopting the system in vogue in New York at the busiest corners along Broadway or Fifth Avenue.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

A young man who practiced medicine in Pennsylvania became famous and was called in consultation in many towns and cities because of his success in the treatment of disease. This was Dr. Pierce, who finally made up his mind to place some of his medicines before the public, and moving to Buffalo, N. Y., put up what he called his Favorite Prescription, and placed it with druggists in every state.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has long been recognized as a tonic for diseases peculiar to womanhood. After suffering pain, feeling nervous, dizzy, weak and dragged-down by weaknesses of her sex—a woman is quickly restored to health by its use. Thousands of women testify that Favorite Prescription has entirely eradicated their distressing ailments.

More recently that wonderful discovery of Dr. Pierce's, called An-uric (for kidneys or backache), has been successfully used by many thousands who write Dr. Pierce of the benefits received—that their backache, rheumatism, and other symptoms of uric acid deposits in joints or muscles are completely conquered by its use. Send for Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for trial pkg. of any of his remedies, or write for free medical advice.

In Paris it brings nothing but good natured banter generally directed against the policeman from pedestrians who may be run over at the next corner.

Former Minister of Justice Nail, of the Clemenceau cabinet, Viscountess de Rohan-Chabot and Countess de Wignacourt were the most prominent persons who were run down and killed by automobiles in the past year.

WINTER CARNIVAL OPENS.

ST. PAUL, Jan. 30.—(U. P.)—St. Paul's famous winter carnival was revived today. Thousands joined the courts of frivolous King Boreas, Hex IV. Fair maidens in kaleidoscopic costumes of heavy woollens attended by men and youths in carnival attire were seeking fun. Tobogganing, sleighing, skating and ski running are the traditional pastimes of the carnival. Four great toboggan slides have been erected in various parts of the city. Carnival clubs will rule. Police on the lookout for excessive pranks, face the bouncing blankets if they try to dampen the carnival spirit.

Carnival chiefs were hopeful of reviving the spirit of old. The last carnival was held in 1917.
