CATTLE THIEVES ARE COWED.

NORFOLK, Neb., Feb. 1.—(I. N. S.)—Cattle rustling in this part of the cow country has gone entirely out of style as a result of threats of livestock owners to return to the old-time Western methods of dealing with thieves. Cattle thieves in the vicinity of Norfolk were estimated at $50,000 in 1919. They dropped to zero in 1920, with the organization of the Owner's Protective Association.

HOME DEMONSTRATION IDEAS FOR HOUSEWIVES

- Setting A Table
- A dinner table should be adjusted so that each person to be served will have at least 25 inches of space for service.
- If the table is being set for breakfast or for an informal luncheon, the mats or runners are carefully arranged on a bare table, or if preferred, a low centerpiece on a center mat is arranged.
- Good taste demands something very simple, a bowl of flowers or fruit and should be all means be low in height.
- Large clusters of flowers which cut off one side of the table from the other are in poor taste.—V. D.

MONKEY JACKETS AND SKIRTS WITH BIG BOTTOMS ARE DECREED BY FASHION

NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—(I. N. S.)—Little Jocko, who helps the organ grinder earn his daily chow, is also assisting the fashion dictators this season.

The newest fashions will show Jocko's influence. Of course, women must have something new to wear. What shall it be? "What shall it be?" asked the fashion dictators in a more or less frantic manner. Then one of them thought of Jocko, the organ grinder's little aide.

And lo! the monkey jacket. It is the very latest thing—the monkey jacket.

It looks exactly like the tiny jacket the organ grinder's monkey wears. The coat suit is coming back, those who say what's what in fashion have decreed, and the woman who wants to look smartly gowned must have one with a monkey jacket.

Paris is already wearing the coat suits, monkey jackets and all Bisque and gray. It is announced, will be the most fashionable colors. And now prepare for the worst! The latest communique from the fashion front announces that the new skirts are four yards around the bottom.

Waist Line Back

After a period of drapings which have concealed lines, good and bad, there is a marked tendency toward a return to the well-defined waist line. Few models shown for spring lack a belt or a sash which reveals a gentle curving at the hips.

(East Oregonian Special.) WESTON, Jan. 31.—The funeral of the late Mrs. Sude O. Purcell was held in Weston Sunday, January 29, 1922. Mrs. Ludie O. Purcell, widow of the late Captain Thomas Purcell of the 16th Iowa Infantry, passed away Jan. 25, 1922 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. E. Sharon, in Portland.

Fedora Circle No. 146, Neighbors of Woodcraft, held an enthusiastic meeting in the I. O. O. F. hall last Friday evening. Four candidates, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Patterson, Lewis Gilliland and Mrs. Thornton, were initiated into the order. Alice Kirkpatrick, installing officer, inducted with appropriate ceremonies the following members into the order: Mrs. E. E. Sharon, G. N.; Lauretta Gilliland, Adeline; Maud Stanfield, Clerk; Ella O'Harris, Banker; Alice Kirkpatrick, Madeline; Anna Fuson, Attendant; Sarah Rowland, C. of G.; J. P. A hot tamale feed was enjoyed at a recent get together meeting of the Weston Mountain Community Club, which has created a spirit of neighborliness and harmony in the upland region, where it flourishes. A spelling contest was an interesting feature of the affair. About forty contestants, some of them from Weston high, wrestled with the difficult words submitted. Harry May, a boy fourteen, was the winner, with Mrs. J. W. Bowens in second place. The event took place at the school house in district No. 49. A motion prevailed that after each rain every member of the club should drag the read in front of his property.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory Staggs entertained a congenial company of friends at their home on Dry Creek Saturday evening. Progressive "brook" caused time to pass in a diverting and pleasurable manner. At midnight a delicious hot supper was served by the hostess. Those who shared in the gaieties of the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Staggs, Mr. and Mrs. Clem Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Staggs, Mr. and Mrs. James Beamer, Mr. and Mrs. Emory Staggs.

Miss Zilla Simpson, former Weston girl, and now a successful professional singer, is back in New York city after a seven weeks engagement in a leading Montreal theatre. She charmed her audiences and received $150 a week for her services. The Montreal trip was not without a displeasing feature, however, as the singer's entire wardrobe was stolen by a thief who managed to effect an entrance into the dressing room. Mrs. Wallace Nelson and children, who have been visiting relatives at Adams and Weston are leaving for The Dalles where Mr. Nelson is now located. He has charge of the extension department of The Dalles chamber of

WOMAN BLEAMED BY HER FAMILY
Restless, irritable, nervous, excitable and exacting is the charge against her by those nearest and dearest. How little they realize the struggle the overworked wife and mother is making to keep about and perform the hundred and one duties that devolve upon her! Every hour her headaches, backaches and pains drag her down until she can stand it no longer. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has restored more women in this condition to health and happiness than any other medicine. The grateful letters we are continually publishing in this paper from women who have found health by its use prove it.
