Including Pendleton Prices and Associated Press Reports

Foreign Exchange

Steady Position.
NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—(A. P.)—Operations in the financial markets yesterday were overshadowed by the strength of international currencies. Practically all important European exchange rates to highest prices in one to two and a half years, again under lead of British remittances.

Minor or speculative rails and a few standard transportation furnished much of the activity and strength shown by the stock market. The general list was inclined to ease from the outset and closed with a heavy tone, coincident with call money's rise from 5 to 5 1/2 per cent.

Low-grade motors, cheaper oils, food specialties and the chain store group were the special targets of the shorts, whose concerted attacks upon those shares met with little opposition.

Buying of rails was credited to a group of local traders, their bullish attitude apparently being based on the better showing recently made by many issues. Total sales, par value, aggregated $14,250,000.

Chicago Live Stock Market.
CHICAGO, Feb. 9.—(United States Bureau of Markets)—Cattle—Receipts, 7900 head; slow; beef steers and she stock steady to strong; early top yearling, $8.75; good mature calves, $8.65; bulk, $6.75@7.65; veal calves, bulls, stockers and feeders, steady; bulk vealers, $10@10.50; bulk hogs, $4@4.25.

Hogs—Receipts, 18,000 head; slow; steady to 10 cents higher than yesterday's average, big packers holding back, top, $10.05 on 165 to 170-pound hogs; bulk lights, $9.85@10; bulk others, $9.20@9.75; pigs mostly 10c to 25c lower; bulk desirable, $9.50@9.75; few quotable up to $10.

Foreign bonds continued to advance with the higher range of leading exchanges. United Kingdoms of 1922 and 1929 made appreciable gains and most French issues were within easy range of last year's best prices.

The domestic bond market was irregular, convertible rails strengthening with mixed gains and losses in liberty

OUTBURSTS OF EVERETT TRUE

MODERN 'ANTIQUES' ARE SOLD TO FOREIGNERS

BERLIN, Feb. 9.—(A. P.)—Modern "antiques" are being purchased wholesale in Germany for sale to unwary foreigners and newly rich Teutons who have been prompted to seek objects of real art by the news that a number of princely families have been compelled to market family heirlooms and rare treasures, according to investigation of some clever buyers.

The business of dealing in imitations has been so profitable that hundreds of new "antique" stores have been opened, and representatives with choice lists of things "old families" have to part with are encountered at every turn.

One way of attracting the interest of a prospective buyer has become so common it has almost lost its value. The "antique" artist maneuvers for an introduction and in the course of conversation mentions an old friend who once stood high in the favor of the former Emperor, who must now sell his priceless heirlooms for a mere song to buy his breakfast rolls and sausage.

The man's name, of course, cannot be divulged, he is so proud, and it would be such humiliation. Arrangements may be made, however, to view the antiques in the dwelling of an acquaintance, or they can be transported to the shop of some antique dealer.

This method is more successful with the newly rich Germans, who appreciate the part pride may play in the situation, than with foreigners, especially Americans, who have learned that pride does not often prevent a prince or even a former king from talking business when a few hundred thousand marks are in sight.

Prices for genuine antiques, owing to the keen competition among purchasers, have reached staggering proportions and possessors of these treasures are marketing now, either under the press of necessity or for business reasons. Some pieces belonging to a former King of Saxony, whose heir is said to have disposed of his entire house furnishings, brought as much as 1,000,000 marks each.

A SAVINGS ACCOUNT AND THE MAN

Times and conditions change and so will opinions and popular belief. It is not so many years ago that to spend and to waste was considered manly; today, however, it is held rather unAmerican to be wasteful, shiftless and extravagant. A man with a Savings Account in a strong bank does make a better neighbor and citizen in any community; watch the man who has one.

CROSSES CONTINENT FOR JOB BUT FINDS IT GONE

SEATTLE, Feb. 9.—(I. N. S.)—It took George Vlietin, seventeen-year-old musician, seven weeks to walk and grab auto rides from New York to Seattle. Upon arrival here he learned that the job which had been offered him was filled. He wore out three pairs of shoes, he said, and two pairs of pants riding with tourists. George, who plays the piccolo, says he expects, eventually to land the job.
