CLUB HAS MEETING

Three countries of South America, Ecuador, Colombia and Venezuela formed the theme for an interesting meeting of the Thursday Afternoon club yesterday, when Mrs. G. W. Phelps and Mrs. Alzer Fee entertained the members at the library club room.

Mrs. Mary Lane read a paper on Venezuela, Mrs. Minnie Stillman one on Colombia and Mrs. Stephen Lowell one on Ecuador. Each paper was most comprehensive and gave accurate descriptions. For the musical program, the McElroy trio played two lovely numbers, Paderewski's "Minuet" and "Pizzicati," from Sylvia, by Delibes. Mrs. Thomas E. Murphy sang charmingly a French folk song and "Good Morning, Brother Sunshine," with piano accompaniment by Mrs. Fee. Miss Hope Islow closed the program with a pleasing piano solo, "To the Rising Sun," by Torjeson.

Roses and carnations were used in decorating. During the tea hour, Mrs. Lowell and Mrs. A. L. Schaefer presided. The hostesses were assisted in serving by Mrs. Murphy, Miss Elsie Fitzmaurice and Miss Elisabeth Whitehouse.

DANCE IS ENJOYED

The eternal fitness of things was conspicuous by absence last evening when members of the Kill Kare Club were guests at an "Inappropriate Dance" at Eagle Woodman hall.

Garlands of clothedine, dangling "wet-wash," and flags of all nations, were used in decorating. Costume, grotesque, picturesque, beautiful or bizarre, appeared in a maze of kaleidoscopic colors. Western cowboys and cowgirls, Indians, vamps, dudes, rubes, gypsies, pirates, Chinese—these and scores of others danced to the strains of "inappropriate" music, which included a fox trot, "Mendelssohn's Wedding March," and the one-step, Brahms "Hungarian Dance," waltz from "Faust" and waltz from "Tales of Hoffman," played by McElroy's orchestra, as feature dances.

Placards on the walls were evidently culled from books on etiquette and from other sources. They included "Don't thank your partner for a dance, pay her;" "Don't hide out for ladies' choice; get in the front row;" "Ladies—if you have rats in your attic, Fred Benson will pizen them."

Supper was served cafeteria style. Chairmen of the committees in charge of the dance were Fred Benson, J. K. Thompson, John Vaughan, Jim Hill, E. F. Averill and L. L. Rogers.

Several dinners preceded the dance. Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Scharf and Dr. and Mrs. Fred Llewellyn entertained at the Scharf home, the guests including Mr. and Mrs. William Glass and C. W. Paulus, of Pilot Rock. The "inappropriate" motif was carried out with oleich dollies, corsage bouquets of cranberries and parsley, and decorations of vegetables. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Morse were hosts to ten guests for an informal dinner, at their home on Perkins Avenue, preceding the dance.

PARTY GIVEN

Mrs. Kenneth Meltae entertained yesterday afternoon with a "500" party at her home. Mrs. Charles Hamilton won first honors and Mrs. J. F. Robinson second, while the consolation prize was won by Mrs. Earl Gillanders.

Hyacinths and greenery were used in decorating. A Washington birthday motif was used, the favors being toy hatchets.

Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Charles Hamilton, Mrs. J. F. Robinson, Mrs. G. W. Couts, Mrs. Alice Munro, Mrs. E. J. Birchell, Mrs. Charles Brownlow, Mrs. James Dunham, Mrs. C. A. Crabtree, Mrs. C. S. Terpening, Mrs. Claire Edwards, Mrs. Trestrahl, Mrs. Alfred Smith, Mrs. Earl Gillanders, Mrs. J. J. Hamley and Mrs. R. Raymond.

HEALTH THE SECRET OF ATTRACTION

Women of today depend a good deal upon the modern modiste and a knowledge of the cosmetic art to make them attractive. Too often there exists beneath it all a suffering woman whose nervous laugh or forced smile covers a pang of agony caused by some feminine ill. Too such a woman Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will bring health and a happy relief from her suffering, that will make her far more attractive than costly gowns and cosmetics.

For nearly fifty years American women have relied upon this root and herb medicine to relieve their ailments.

LOCAL SPORT FANS ALL SET FOR FAST PROGRAM TONIGHT

Stevens and Crooks Headliners in 10 Rounds of Milling; Other Goods Fights Promise

The appetites of local followers of the boxing sport have been whetted to a keen point in anticipation of seeing a fast bill tonight at the Alta theater when 20 rounds of scrapping will be staged under the promotion of Ray McCarroll.

Buddy Stevens and Battling Crooks will meet in the main event of the evening for a mill of 10 rounds. The scrap promises to be a lively one. Stevens always gives the fans their money's worth whether he wins or loses.

The other events on the card are as follows: Plug Ugly against Fatty Arbuckle in which comedy is foreshadowed. Eddie Williams and another local boy will mix in the second event. Young Brooks and Kid McAllister of Walla Walla are on for six rounds of milling, and their event is expected to provide real fighting. Brooks has been meeting all comers in his class here in preliminaries this winter, and he has always given a good account of himself. The Walla Walla boy is touted as being fast and vicious. Sallor Owens and Samuel Newton will go six rounds.

The third man in the ring will be Dick Hanley. The high school coach served as referee once before this winter, and his presence in the ring is considered a guarantee that there will be no stalling.

McCarroll is taking his first fling in the purely boxing program tonight. The program will move along with speed and precision, McCarroll declares.

MONEY GOES TO BULGARS

DENVER, Colo., Feb. 17.—(U. P.)—Seventy dollars in America in the year 1922 doesn't represent such a lot of money. Not that anyone would turn down such a gift, but the same amount, translated into Bulgarian cash is sufficient to keep a family of three from municipal charity for some time at least. Dimitre Nichoff died here in August, 1917. His estate consisted of $70 cash and $250 in notes. Because his heirs could not be located, the estate was turned over to the state treasury. Recently Nichoff's widow and two children were located in Bulgaria, according to word from the Bulgarian
