DRAWING LESSONS FOR OUR KIDDIES

Way up in the land of ice and snow, lives our little friend the Esquimau. He loves to go fishing just the same as any little boy or girl, but he has to chop a hole in the ice. And here we have the picture of him, which is very easy for you to draw.

PAST AND PRESENT

His Courage.
Pearl had just become engaged, and Phyllis was naturally dying to know all about it.
"Oh, do tell me, Pearl!" she said at last, "how did Mr. Timidman ever pluck up enough courage to propose? He is so dreadfully bashful."
"Oh," exclaimed Pearl, "he seemed to do it easily enough! I merely asked him if he didn't think mother would make an ideal mother-in-law, and he replied at once."
"Oh, what did he say?" asked Phyllis.
"He said he thought she would," replied Pearl.
"What then?"
"Nothing. I just told him the kind of ring I wanted."

JIMMYBOB PENCIL PICTURES

Jimmybob and Bud made a regular fire engine-- they are now going to a 'fire' and try to imitate real Pencil from dot to dot.
A homer for him, arriving late at the game.
"One way she's like an umpire--" "Nothing to nothing."
My wife is," said Bill Prout. She "Oh, goody!" she exclaimed. "We never will believe that I am safe when haven't missed a thing!"
I am out.
The Double O.
"What's the score, Jim?" she asked, dare, then pity, then embrace.
Men soon become accustomed to any kind of feminine style. They first en-
