BUILDING FUNDS ARE STARTED BY STUDENTS

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Feb. 28.—An organized effort of fraternities, sororities, and clubs on the campus to solve the housing problem at Corvallis, under the leadership of the housing committee, was shown today in a survey of all the houses of residence on the campus made by the committee.

"This report really indicates that the students are saving the state money," says Professor H. T. Vance, head of the housing committee. "They are taking over the work which the college because of shortage of funds, is unable to handle. The money spent for housing, and with the increased number of students the situation would be indeed serious if the students themselves had not taken the problem into their own hands."

FROM GIRLHOOD TO WOMANHOOD

Woman Relied Upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Emporia, Kansas.—"I began using Lydia E. Pinkham's medicines years ago when I was a girl. For several years I had severe pains at menstrual periods, making me very weak and interfering with my regular duties. I tried several remedies without obtaining relief. I was induced to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound by friends and it restored me to normal health. I often have occasion and do recommend your Vegetable Compound to my friends who have troubles similar to my own. You may use these facts as a testimonial."—EVA ALDRICH, 218 Union St., Emporia, Kansas.

There are many women who first used our Vegetable Compound during their girlhood days. They found it a valuable help during trying periods. In later years they use it whenever they feel those annoying symptoms which women often have.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a woman's medicine. It is prepared carefully from the best quality of medicinal plants, whose properties are especially adapted to correct the troubles women have.

state and municipal officials, selected delegations of various important bodies, the tenants of the royal estates at Sandringham and Balmoral and the Lascelles family domains, etc. In front of the Sanctuary handsome girchairs brought specially from Buckingham Palace provided seating accommodation for the royal family and distinguished guests, those occupied by the King and Queen being slightly raised on a sort of dais.

The Archbishop of Canterbury officiated, assisted by the Archbishop of York, the Bishop of London and the Dean of Westminster (the last named having previously lodged the customary time-honored protest against his spiritual superiors usurping his rights in his own abbey.) The magnificent abbey choir, under the direction of St. Frederick Bridge, was reinforced by the band of Grenadier Guards.

The route from Buckingham Palace was lined by regiments of Foot Guards, resplendent in scarlet and gold, with hussar black bearskin headdresses, and vast crowds packed the sidewalks while in the spacious mall the crush was beyond anything seen in a half-day's history. The populace were in a half-day humor and heartily cheered the various royalties and high officials; but the appearance of Princess Mary was the signal for an extraordinary outburst of whole-hearted enthusiasm and loyalty.

The royal bride, looking charming in her bridal gown of white silver and silver brocade, drove in an open carriage with her father and mother, escorted by a glittering squadron of cuirassiers Life Guards and followed by a half a dozen carriages conveying the bridesmaids, members of the family and high officials. The King wore the uniform of Colonel-in-Chief of the Guards, out of compliment to the bridegroom. Through a forest of waving flags and handkerchiefs and a hurraing of cheers, the entourage proceeded to the great west door of the abbey, where the royal party were received by the archbishops and high ecclesiastical and state dignitaries. The band of the Guards played the national anthem, while in Hyde Park a battery of artillery commenced firing a royal salute.

All the door guards of honor of the bridegroom's regiment, the Grenadier Guards, and the Royal Scots—of which Princess Mary is Honorary Colonel—were drawn up, and the bride was lined by Guards official comrades.

LONDON, Feb. 28.—(U. P.)—Viscount and Viscountess Lonsdale left tonight for Weston Hall, Shropshire, where they will spend their honeymoon. A hundred and fifty guests attended the wedding breakfast.

25 STORY GARAGE SOLVES CHICAGO PARKING PROBLEM

CHICAGO, Feb. 28.—A twenty-five story garage in the heart of the loop will assist in solving Chicago's parking problems, according to plans completed by architects, on which it is announced, work will start within sixty days. Similar motor hotels are planned for New York and Cleveland.

The building, with a 72 foot frontage on Lake street and a depth of 143 feet, will house 1,100 automobiles on its 25 floors, the architects say. It will be 200 feet high, the limit allowed by city ordinance. The cost is estimated at $1,200,000.

The feature of the motor hotel will be the automatic handling of the cars. From the time the owner delivers his machine at the door in the morning until it is returned to him at night no hand will touch it, unless it needs repairs or supplies.

Seven automatic elevators, each with a capacity of six automobiles, and all operated by one girl sitting at a desk in the lobby, will distribute the cars to the proper floors. Tilting floors, operated by compressed air, will automatically unload the elevators and shunt the machines into the allotted booths, which will be mounted on wheels, to slide out of the way. In the evening the process will be reversed.

With automatic handling none of the owner's gasoline will be consumed and there will be no gasoline fumes in the building, and no danger of fire, the designers of the structure say.

Special rates are planned for the elite goers and shoppers.

CHARMING STAR GETS GRACE FROM MUCH EXERCISE

Everyone has wondered if there is some secret about the grace and health that is characteristic of Gladys Walton's bearing. The "flapper" star of "The Guttersnipe," the Universal special attraction at the Rivoli today is claimed by many critics to have the most athletic figure in the feminine ranks of the screen.

Miss Walton's grace fits her perfectly for the roles she portrays in stories taken from real life and screened in a natural, yet whimsical form by literary and directorial experts. In manner and personality she is the girl of short skirt age, without a single feature that detracts from this effect. It is a delight to her to visualize these fairly characters of the type that everyone knows, to bring to the screen the very spirit of "girlhood's eclipse."

What brought her this quaint grace

Catarhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. Complete Deafness requires constitutional treatment. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a constitutional remedy. It is a powerful antiseptic and it cleanses the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running or sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is closed, deafness is the result. Under the inflammation can be reduced, your hearing may be destroyed forever. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE act through the blood on the mucous membrane of the system, thus relieving the inflammation and restoring normal conditions.
