AVERTED SC / DIER BONUS STAND PATISM OF PRESIDENT IS QUESTIONED

WASHINGTON, March 8.—(U. P.)—Just what President Harding meant when he said that he "stands pat" on the sales tax as a means of financing the bonus is sought by house repub-licans before further action is accorded the bill introduced yesterday. Nicholas Longworth attempted to allay the fears by declaring that as the bill calls for no immediate financing, owing to its certificate features, the sales tax may yet form its method of raising money. Longworth is considered as confidential with the president as any member of either house. He believes the president's championing of the sales tax does not imply opposition to the present bill.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—(A. P.)—Republican leader are planning to put the bonus bill through the house under suspension of rules which would shut out amendments and limit debate to forty minutes. Under this rule a two-thirds vote is necessary, but leaders believed this majority is possible. Mos day, March 20, is the next rules suppression day.
