

People Here and There

James King and Frank Greer are farmers near Weston. They were in Pendleton today.

Isaac Christopher, a farmer in the Adams district, was a business visitor in Pendleton.

F. T. George, Echo merchant, and Ralph Stanfield, banker, were in Pendleton today to attend the meeting of members of boards of education. Mr. Stanfield was preceded, as usual, by his corn cob pipe which is a pioneer of Echo.

Roy Ritter is expected back from Portland tomorrow where he was called yesterday on political business.

From his cattle ranch near Gardane to Pendleton takes one from winter to spring. At least the snow is heavy enough at Gardane to make one think it winter. J. D. French says. He was here today.

Charles Seich, roadmaster for the Northern Pacific, is in the city today from Pasco.

Tom Vanzhan has three slightly injured fingers as a result of being bucked from a playful bronk yesterday. Mr. Vanzhan, in the descent, fell on his hand and the injury resulted. He arrived today from Heix and is here on business.

To Quiet Title
A suit to quiet title to real estate has been filed in circuit court by Attorney S. D. Peterson in behalf of C. H. Spencer against Charles S. Foyet and others.

La Grande Couple Arrested.
This thing of love without benefit of clergy may be interesting if one merely reads about it as Rudyard Kipling knows how to write of it, but to put it into practice is likely to lead one into many difficulties. At least that is the belief of a La Grande couple held here in the city jail. Joe Platten, 23, and Ella Brill, 18, were arrested yesterday by the police and are being held. The girl will be sent back home, but the man will have to stand trial here. The young people said they had the permission of the girl's mother to marry, but they neglected to conform to the usual rites before they started to live together. That caused them grief.

LOG OF INLAND EMPIRE ROADS WILL BE MADE

SPOKANE, March 9.—(A. P.)—All Inland Empire roads leading from main highways to various points of interest will be marked this year and road logs prepared by the Inland Automobile association, according to announcement of Frank W. Guilbert, secretary of the association. Card maps for highways between Spokane and Yellowstone National park also will be prepared.

"We are planning to get our highway service maps in order early as possible, because the west is going to see its best year for tourist trade during the coming summer," Mr. Guilbert explained in telling of his plans. "A heavy demand for information regarding the roads to Yellowstone has caused us to prepare cards for that route."

"Since the state highway department and the counties mark the main line highways, we will mark only side roads that lead to points of interest in the Inland Empire. These will be well marked this summer."

MOTHERS! CLEAN CHILD'S BOWELS WITH CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP

Even a sick child loves the "fruity" taste of "California Fig Syrup." If the little tongue is coated or if your child is listless, cross, feverish, full of cold, or has colic, give a teaspoonful to "cleanse" the liver and bowels. In a few hours you can see for yourself how thoroughly it works all the constipation, poison, sour bile and waste out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers keep "California Fig Syrup" handy. They know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother! You must say "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup.

ARCADÉ TODAY
NEW MAYO FILM
HAS MANY THRILLS
A huge liner burning to the water's edge in mid-ocean, and then swallowed by the waves; a tropic hurricane which lashes a schooner and threatens its destruction; a mutiny at sea; a terrific fight between the master of a ship and a score of fear-crazed pirates and Kanakas; a tiny babe tossed on the waves supported by a bit of wreckage; a leap from a high cliff into the shark infested waters of the South Pacific—these are but a few of the outstanding features of "The Shark Master," the romance of the South Seas, in which Frank Mayo is to be seen at the Arcade theatre today.

Frank Mayo has established a reputation for such speedy and vigorous dramas that Universal is compelled to have stories written especially for this star—stories that are worthy of his skill as an actor and yet provided with the thrilling incidents the audience expects of him.

MUSEMENTS

RIVOLI TODAY

Direct from its triumphs at the Manhattan Opera House, New York, and the Metropolitan Opera House, Philadelphia, and immediately endorsed by a finicky and expectant public, announcement is made of the latest sensational triumph, "Bringing Up Father in Wall Street." This unusual play, which is, of course, based on the ever-green cartoons made famous by their creator, George McManus, is in two acts and five scenes and will be the attraction at the Rivoli Theatre tonight. Jiggs Mahoney, whose exploits and adventures are known from one end of the world to the other, this time plunges into Wall Street. There, after various vicissitudes, trials and tribulations, he becomes a millionaire and Maggie, his irrepressible but dotting wife, plans once more to conquer the unbidden field of high society. The comedy, which also boasts of a champion beauty chorus, has been acclaimed a riot of screams, laughter, bills and joy from start to finish. Reserved seats now selling at box office.

ALTA TODAY

THE "CIRCLE OF DEATH"
There are several novel and unusual situations in "White Oak," William S. Hart's new Paramount picture which comes to the Alta theatre today. One of the most thrilling and splendidly portrayed scenes in the reproduction of the famous "Circle of Death." An entire tribe of Indians in full war regalia attack the biggest and richest wagon train out of Independence, Mo., in the year, 1852. The train has been betrayed to the Indians by four white traitors who are with the emigrants. A revengeful old chieftain swoops down in ambush with his entire fighting strength. The battle scenes are charged with danger and thrills, as well as excitement. This is a marvelous reproduction of the historical Circle of Death in all its realism and the
