

People Here and There

A. L. Schaefer was in Walla Walla yesterday.

Oliver Dolan of Athena was here today.

W. E. Campbell of Helix came into town today.

William McKinney was here yesterday from Milton.

G. F. Fotherington of Spokane came to Pendleton yesterday.

Manuel Friedly will go to Portland tomorrow on a business mission.

O. T. Carnes of Pilot Rock was here yesterday on a business mission.

Bernard Mainwaring is editor of the Hermiston Herald. He was here today on business.

James Kyle and Frank Sloan of Hinesfield were visitors in Pendleton today. One of the sad things of Representative Sloan's life right now is whether to run for the senate or to switch around to his previous position and run as a representative. This game of politics is one which keeps a fellow guessing, Mr. Sloan believes.

Archie and Dan McIntyre, Helix district farmers, were visitors here today.

Dan Dowman will return tomorrow from Portland where he has been for one week.

Farming is the occupation of H. Rooper. He operates near Weston and was in Pendleton today.

A. C. McIntyre, farmer of the Helix country and president of the commercial organization at Helix is a visitor in town today.

Frederic Hesser is a senior in the Hermiston high school. He was recently appointed as the appointee from the Eastern Oregon congressional district to Annapolis. He was a visitor in Pendleton today.

Stanley G. Jewett, predatory animal inspector for the district of Oregon was here today. He has been in the west end of the county with Harold Dohy for a couple of days. Robyns, government hunter, has killed 14 coyotes during the past week, his chief reports. Elmer Williams, assistant inspector, who has been with Albert Peterson in the Ukiah district, will join Jewett here.

HINDU WRESTLER WILL MEET GUSTAVO AGAIN

Basanta Singh, middleweight wrestler who has appeared several times in Pendleton, has signed a contract to wrestle Ad Gustavo a return match some time within the next 30 days. Both wrestlers agree to be below 155 pounds at 2 p. m. the afternoon of the match. Gustavo won from the Hindu in two straight falls recently.

Singh has much praise for the La Grande man, whom he says is fast and aggressive. Gustavo outweighed the Hindu from ten to fifteen pounds at the last match. Since the time of break of training rules, which weakened him for the contest.

The Hindu will wrestle in Portland April 5 against Joe Kennedy for the Community Chest. Thye, Butler and Singh will meet outside men on this card. They are considered the best three Portland mat men available.

This morning Singh stated that he would be willing to come to Pendleton at any time in the future and wrestle for charity. He is planning to return to India as soon as the political trouble there subsides and bring some Indian talent to this country. He states that wrestling is to India what baseball is to the United States.

He will probably meet Carl Nelson of Walla Walla in a match in the near future.

Hero Worship

"Remember the time Harry Willis shook hands with us? That will be the question when these kids meet years from now, for they are getting the thrill of their lives in grasping the hand that knocked out the bear's jaws!"

PROMINENT CLUBWOMAN EJECTED FROM COURT

SAN FRANCISCO, March 18.—(U. P.)—Mrs. D. S. Gray, prominent club woman, a member of the woman's vigilante committee appointed by the club women's organization to attend the Arbutu trial "in the interest of justice" was ejected from the court room this afternoon when she attempted a whispered conversation with Assistant Prosecutor M. T. Green. The court room was in an uproar for a few minutes when the defense attorneys made a remark about the "stool pigeons" from the district attorney's office.

Trial is Monday.
SAN FRANCISCO, March 18.—(U. P.)—Selection of two alternate jurors to serve should the regular jurors be incapacitated was the Arbutu case court task today. Following the selection, the court adjourned until Monday when it will start to take evidence.

VISCOUNT PEEL GIVEN HIGH INDIAN POSITION

LONDON, March 18.—(U. P.)—Viscount Peel was today appointed secretary of state for India, succeeding Edwin Montagu who resigned. Peel is a liberal, and recently succeeded Sir Eric Geddes in the coalition government as minister of transportation.

REAL EARL STAR IN CHARITY SHOW

LONDON, March 18.—(U. P.)—A regular earl is the hit of the theatrical season in the "stables" this year. With his company of Pierrots and Pierettes, the eighth Earl of Essex is touring Herefordshire, his native country and knocking them dead.

The Earl himself is the star of the company, billed as the "Earl of Essex and his troupe." His company is recruited entirely from the village of Bodenham, where the earl has his country seat.

Two farmers' daughters, the local seamstress, the daughter of the cillage gardener, two farmers, the truant officer and a farm laborer with an excellent tenor voice make up the company. They have drawn large audiences.

The company performs entirely for charity. Musical comedy it is forte, and the earl is low comedian. He sings "I'm Selling Shelled Shrimps in a shelled Shrimps shop" and other songs, both alone and with the co-star, the Gardener's daughter.

But the earl's star turn is when, as a "flapper," with golden hair, a long plait, a jazz frock, short-skirted, silk stockings and tennis shoes, he sings, "When She Lett the Villare She Was Shy." Even his wife, the Countess of Essex, laughs.

INDIAN LEADER SENTENCED.
AHMEDABAD, British India, March 18.—(A. P.)—Mohandak K. Gandhi, Indian non-cooperationist leader, arrested recently on charges of sedition, was sentenced today to six years' imprisonment without hard labor.

SCHOOLS

LINCORIA SCHOOL.
First Grade.
Visitors this week were Mrs. Moran, Mrs. Sealey, Mrs. Lyby, Mrs. Stronger, Mrs. Ganger and Miss Patton.

The pupils are all back in school except one.

The continued language lesson about Holland and Dutch customs was interrupted by—
"A tiny bit of shamrock."
That traveled all the way from Ireland to tell us "About St. Patrick's Day."

In connection with the story of St. Patrick the children were interested in learning why we call the potato "Irish potato." Eric Spranger told how potatoes are prepared for planting in warm moist soil. All but two children out of three-three like potatoes.

For the next lesson clover leaves were drawn on the black board and set from green wall paper.

Second Grade.
Wheeler's Second Reader is being read by the Second A class in connection with the other work assigned in reading this month. The second B class is using Wheeler's First Reader for rapid sight reading.

The second B class has proven to be good listeners. The table of 2's were recently developed in the second A class and by close listening the second B class acquired the knowledge of simple multiplication with the result that they are now working some problems along that line.

Bird study has occupied the minds of the second grade pupils during the art period.

Second Grade.
This week flying birds were cut for room decorations and bird houses were patterned.

Little Peggy Hester was a welcome visitor in the second grade room two afternoons this week. Although Peggy is not yet of school age, she firmly believes in doing all she can for the public school. Whenever she visits she assists the teacher and pupils in every way possible.

The baseball bug has hit the second grade. Kendall Hunter, the captain, announces the following line-up:
Frederick Lienallen, pitcher; Kendall Hunter, catcher; William Babhorf, first baseman; Freddie Witherell, second baseman; Bobby Snow, third baseman; Martin Winn, shortstop; Maurice Bell, right fielder; Robert Roehlic, left fielder; Darwin Benson, center fielder.

Third Grade.
In the 3A class this week Edith Somppi won in spelling; Genevieve Young in good language; Jack Stanger in arithmetic.

In the 3B class Emil Geist won in spelling; Eva Kidder in good language; Fae Kilgore in arithmetic.

Alice Inlow still has the most number of good health stars in the 3A class and Wilma Peterson in the 3B.

Herman Behrens has been ill all this week. Everyone else is back in school and hard at work making up for lost time.

Each one is surprising himself by being able to claim so well in preparation for our demedulatory contest.

Fourth Grade.
The fourth grade made an average of 98 per cent in spelling in the monthly test.

Nadine Griswold has completed the lesson in the Courtis Practice Work.

Those who made one hundred in c. o. monthly tests are as follows:
Spelling, Amy Aldrich, Betty Bond, Edwin Cruikshank, Nadine Griswold, Grace Hale, Bernice Planting, Frank Schaefer.
Geography, Bernice Planting.

Seventh Grade.
There were only seven people in the seventh grade that were not absent during the past month.

"Our Wind Pictures" were quite a success. They certainly depict a blustering March day. The clothes on the clothes line, the kite in the sky, and the ship at sea are being whipped and tossed in every direction.

Africa, long known as the "dark continent" is no longer dark to us as we have received much light on the subject during the last two weeks.

We are off to Australia on a journey we have looked forward to for a long time.

In our history we are re-living the exciting times of the Boston Tea Party, Paul Revere's Ride and other exciting events which caused the revolutionary war.

Eighth Grade.
The eighth grade is reviewing in a hurried manner the work in arithmetic which they had in the seventh. They find that many of the problems

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Reports cards were given out last night at four o'clock.

The girls gymnasium classes will soon begin playing indoor baseball, outside. A schedule for games between the different classes is to be planned and later on the girls will have the different fundamentals of track.

Miss Eva Hanson, physical training instructor, is planning to start a spring dancing class in which dancing will be taught. This work will probably be used in some spring fete.

A number of girls who took gymnasium work in the corrective class at the first of the year are now able to take regular gymnasium work.

A dual track meet has been arranged with La Grande at La Grande April 29th, and negotiations are now in progress to secure a dual meet with Walla Walla, in Pendleton some time in May.

The date for the Eastern Oregon track meet will be determined April 1st, at the meeting of superintendents and principals of Eastern Oregon, which is to be held in La Grande. According to the program it is scheduled to deliver an address on "The School Delinquents."

Each evening finds 30 or 40 boys out for track. A great deal of interest is being shown in this work and good material is plentiful. During the absence of Coach Dick Halsey, Bart Graves is directing the work.

La Grande and Pendleton will hold a dual debate, March 31, the affirmative teams traveling. The junior class has consented to take over this work as the material which will probably make up next year's debate team is in this class. The question to be debated is, Resolved: That United States should immediately grant the Philippine Islands their independence. Those debating are Donald Heath, Mark Evans, George Rigby and James Clark. Fred Schmidt will coach the teams from Pendleton.

The regular debate team, which represents Umatilla district, attended the Cox payers conference Tuesday.

S. S. PEDRO CLUB AT UMAPINE HOLDS MEETING

(East Oregonian Special).

UMAPINE, March 18.—The S. S. Pedro Club met this last Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Phillips and as usual Mrs. Lane Hoon won the first prize with J. E. Jones, while Mrs. M. E. Bean and J. A. Baxter despite good playing won consolation prizes. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McElrath of Pendleton were honor guests of the evening besides the regular members present. This coming Saturday night the club will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Bean of Freewater.

The young people of the Presbyterian church were entertained by Rev. and Mrs. Hays on Friday evening at the manse. The evening was spent playing games and at its close, refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris Hamper have moved to Eureka, Fla., where they expect to remain all summer working on the Hoon and Johnston wheat ranch.

Mrs. T. O. Goodman is ill with a relapse from the flu.

Seven members of the family of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Carpenter were ill this week.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Price who are visiting the Parkers was the worst case as he has had several hemorrhages.

William Records of Lowden has given up his lease of the Grant Lowe ranch west of Umatilla and is looking for a new location.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McElrath of Pendleton were guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. Dan J. Kieck.

Mrs. J. W. Stoletson of the second grade was home this week ill with flu.

W. S. Edwards and W. O. Wisner (this week purchased from the Valley Fruit Co. at Walla Walla a new Bear maver for their orchard tracts near Umatilla.
