"Want any flour?" asked the grocer. Farmer—No, flour's too high. I can get along without it. Grocer—Sold your wheat, Bill? Farmer—Nope; I'm going to hang onto mine; they ain't payin' nothin' for it yet.

A Grateful 'Earl. A London coffee-stall scene; midnight. Belated Theater-goer (to street corner lounge)—Like a cup of coffee? Lounger—Thanks, guvnor. I 'ope I never pinch your watch, swelp me.

The Vanishing Point. Ethel—Is she economical? Gladys—I should say she was. You ought to see the evening dress she made out of her last Sunday's bathing suit.

Perish the Thought! Employer (rebuking employe for slackness)—Have you any idea of the meaning of "esprit de corps"? Employe—No, I haven't and it's anything vulgar I don't want to.

A Good Baby. One hot afternoon a young man in shirt sleeves was wheeling a baby carriage back and forth before a small house near the National Park, in Washington. He looked hot, but contented. "My dear!" came a voice from an upper window of the house. "Now let me alone!" he called back. "We're all right." An hour later the same voice, again in earnest, pleading tones: "Arthur dear!" "Well, what do you want?" he responded. "Anything wrong in the house?" "No, Arthur dear, but you have been wheeling Clara's doll all the afternoon. Isn't it time for the baby to have a turn?" "Now let me alone!" he called back. "We're all right." Efficiency. "Children," said the efficiency expert. "Ah, yes; a beautiful idea, but expensive. I figured out that a growing child costs its parents exactly 27 cents for each tooth of an inch."

A Disadvantage. "Mamma," said five-year-old Archie, "come out on the lawn and play football with me." "I can't play football, dear." "Huh!" exclaimed the little fellow. "That's what comes of having a woman for a mother."

DRAWING LESSONS FOR OUR KIDDIES

RED RIDING HOOD IS EASY FOR YOU TO DRAW

537

Of course every child knows the story of Red Riding Hood almost by heart, but who can draw and color up a picture of her? It is very easy to do, just divide her up in four equal parts. By this little system you can make a dandy pattern for a rag doll, first make it on paper, and trace it off on to muslin.

LOVE. IT'S A TERRIBLE THING. MOVIE OF MADNESS

AM, LULU, DEAR, BE MINE? NOTHIN' DOIN'. THOU MUST BE MINE. OH, I MUST, MUST I? I SWEAR IT. CUT OUT THAT SWEARING IN A LADY. I WILL MARRY NONE BUT THEE. YOU'LL DIE SINGLE. SAY YES, OR I'LL DRAG YOU TO THE ALTAR. YOU WILL NOT. FATHER, PUT ON YOUR BOOTS AND COME DOWN. AND FATHER DID.
