EASTER SEASON APPROACHES
Yesterday marked the opening of Holy Week, with Easter Sunday just a week away. The week, as the last one in Lent, is usually a quiet one in Pendleton society.

A number of affairs have been planned for the season after Easter. The members of the Parish House Guild, Church of the Redeemer, will entertain with an informal benefit dance at the State Hospital, at some date soon after Easter. The Guild is making plans also for a kermis, to be held after Easter.

Invitations have been issued for a series of parties at which Mrs. J. C. Snow, Mrs. E. H. Forshaw and Mrs. J. H. McCook will entertain March 18 and 19 at the home of Mrs. Snow. The various clubs of the city are making plans for club annuals, which will be held this spring. A prominent place in the calendar of Oregon clubs is given to the dates for the annual convention of Federated Women's Clubs, to be held in Tillamook, Oregon, May 21, 22 and 23 inclusive. Besides delegates, it is probable that a number of members of local clubs will attend the convention.

MRS. LETSON HONORED

At Mrs. Letson's table, twenty-one past matrons and patrons were seated. The past matrons are Mrs. Mary John-

RIVOLI TODAY WORTH WHILE PRESS REVIEWS OF "DON'T TELL EVERYTHING"
The spirit of the outdoors is evident in "Don't Tell Everything," which was the attraction last night at the Rivoli Theatre. It is a Paramount Picture and produced with the usual excellence that characterizes these offerings. The notable thing, of course, is the combination of Wallace Reid, Gloria Swanson and Elliott Dexter in the picture which in itself is a superior attraction. But when there is a breezy story, a tangle of fabrications and a lot of good situations enlivened by real acting—it becomes of added interest. Sam Wood directed. Lorna Moon wrote and A. S. LeVino adapted the story. It has to do with two women who love the same man, a self-sacrificing friend who loves one of the women and who helps his friend to win her even against his own chances of happiness. There is a spirited polo game and a realistic accident during its progress. It is a real picture with real people in it, and it is handsomely staged.

If your sweetheart is timid about cutting her locks, and you think it would improve her, take her to see the picture, and let her observe how fetching are all the acolytes—bobbed as to both hair and skirts—of the artist colony.
