ns Have Breakfast

ie Hauser is a regular fellow, sort who never backs down in hing. His ventures in Portland proved him of this type and a t adventure serves to accentuate Chauncey Bishop of Pendleton half a dozen of the biggest chiefs e inland empire down to visit the ch warrior Joffre. Poker Jim, of the Cayuse tribe, led the tation, while Roy Bishop acted role of chaperone while the red- were in the big city. They were ts of the Multnomah hotel and Hauser, being their friend of al Round-Ups back, had the six chiefs as his guests at breakfast one morning. Now if there is any one thing at which an Indian excels it is at table sports. Hauser turned the chiefs loose on the menu and they did it justice, paid the hotel and the chef and the entire management a sincere compliment, somewhat like the one the locusts paid the Mormons' crops. The check for the six Indians' breakfast totaled $42.—Oregonian.

Residences Sold

Real estate dealers report that the warm days are proving an impetus to business. Two deals were made in the past two days by P. W. Dayton. The residence of Miss Grace Frost, on South Main street, was sold to Beryl Sherwood and the Frank Krickett residence on Jefferson street to W. C. Loyd.

Will Sue State

That he intends to bring suit against the state of Oregon because he had to bring his tractor up a rocky road from Barnhart instead of on the highway is the statement of Herman Rosenberg, prominent farmer, against who a charge of driving his tractor over the highway is now pending. Mr. Rosenberg claims that the tractor was damaged by reason of the detour over the rocky dirt road which he says he was ordered to take by the state traffic officer.

Is in Weston.

Fred Bennion, county agent, is in Weston today on business.

Is In Hospital.

A. E. Owen is a patient in St. Anthony's hospital where he was operated upon yesterday for gastric ulcer.

Sunday School to Meet.

The Walnut Sunday school will begin next Sunday, the first session being scheduled for 3 p. m. The school was cised during January because of illness among the members.

Weather Very Warm.

The thermometer jumped to 81 today, the warmest day of the season. The minimum was 39. The barometer registers 29.90. Major Lee Moorhouse, weather observer, predicts rain.

Testing Work Continues.

All injections were finished yesterday in the tubercular tests being made here by Dr. J. P. Madden, of the Bureau of Animal Industry. The readings will be made later to determine what cows have tuberculosis.

Meeting Is Tonight.

The Farm Bureau at Columbia will hold a social and business meeting tonight, at which Rev. John H. Secor, pastor of the Methodist church, will be the chief speaker. Fred Bennion, county agent, will speak on Farm Bureau work.

Sue On Note

R. C. Rasmussen is defendant in a suit which has been brought in circuit court by the Charles K. Spaulding Logging Co. in which judgment for $244.55 is asked on a note which is claimed to be past due and unpaid. Peterson, Bishop and Clarke represent the plaintiff.

Boy Very Ill.

Georg Male, the 14 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Male of Birch Creek, is seriously ill at St. Anthony's hospital. The boy, in a fall, pushed his elbow into his body, causing a ruptured spleen. He was operated upon and doctors state there is a chance for his recovery.

To Talk Tourist Matters

A meeting of the Pacific Northwest Tourist association has been called to meet in Tacoma April 29 and a request has been made that Pendleton have a representative at the meeting, according to a notice that has been received at the office of the Pendleton Commercial Association.

Are Building Sidewalk

Fred Walters and F. H. Mytinger are two property owners along Riverside Drive who are constructing sidewalks. A resolution authorizing the construction of sidewalk on Riverside Drive and Mark street was before the city council a fortnight ago. The Walters and Mytinger jobs are being done under private contract.

Ayrshires Are Bought.

F. H. Mytinger has purchased a number of thoroughbred Ayrshire cattle. Mr. Mytinger, who is one of the leading Pendleton dairymen, has bought a yearling bull from E. W. VanPasel of Wenatchee, and six cows and heifers from J. U. Smith of Newberg, Oregon. The cattle, which are a Scotch breed, are a very hardy type and are famous as dairy animals.

Kitchen Tends Fences

Rodney J. Kitchen of La Grande, candidate for joint senator from Union, Umatilla and Morrow counties, was a visitor in Pendleton today. He is running in opposition to Senator Eberhardt, also of La Grande. Mr. Kitchen expects to return to Pendleton and Umatilla county about May 1 when he plans to spend about a fortnight here in the interests of his candidacy.

Call Another Venire

A venire of 30 additional talesmen for jury service was drawn yesterday afternoon by the county clerk and the sheriff for service during the April term of court which will be resumed Monday when the Vonderahe murder trial will start. A total of 123 talesmen has been called. The excessive number of prospective jurors that have been called has been made necessary by reason of the refusal of women to serve.

Mrs. Campbell Very Ill.

Mrs. W. R. Campbell who lives near Holdman is in a very critical condition and her death is expected as a result of the infirmaties of old age. Her daughter, Mrs. J. F. Macy of Pendleton is at her bedside, and another daughter, Mrs. Charles Hill of Walla Walla was called to the bedside this morning. Mrs. Campbell and her husband, Dr. Campbell, resided in Pendleton for many years where she has many friends.

Moxley Is Sentenced

Fred Moxley who has been held by the sheriff's office for several months on a charge of issuing bad checks was sentenced to 18 months in the state penitentiary yesterday afternoon in circuit court. The specific charge against him was obtaining money under false pretenses. When taken in custody here he was in the company of a woman and three children. Local authorities declare that Moxley's wife and five children have been living at Roseburg.

Tire Firm Sells

Gertson and Marty's tire and vulcanizing shop on Cottonwood street has changed hands, the purchaser being W. D. Miller. The former owners will remain with the business until they close out the Ajax tires. Miller will retain the Sound tires and will move his present stock of used tires from his location in the building adjoining the Gertson and Marty room. He will handle both new and used tires and will conduct a vulcanizing business as well. The former proprietors have made no announcement as to what they will do after they dispose of their interests in the shop.
