Cornelisons Enjoy Trip
That he and his son, Purdy Cornelison, are enjoying every minute of their visit in the Middle West is the declaration made by J. M. Cornelisou in a letter to his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. George D. Peebler. The letter was written May 38 at Chicago, and the two were preparing to go to Indianapolis where they expected to see the auto races on Decoration Day. Their plans then called for an extend-ed visit in Kentucky with relatives and friends. The time of their return is a matter of some uncertainty, ac-cording to the letter, but they expect o be back in Pendleton not later than Bond House Sued The City of Athena has brought sult in circuit court against Keeler Bros, bond house in which the muni-cipality asks that the bond house recipality asks that the bond house re-turn to the plaintiff corporation bonds to the amount of $7.888.76 which are now claimed to be held by the de-fendant. In the complaint R is set forth that the bond firm contracted to take bonds of the municipality of between $30,000 and $40,000 in De-cember, 1920. Bonds to the amount of $27.500 were then issued and taken of $37,500 were then issued and taken by the bond house but some of them were later returned, it is charged, and the firm is said to have refused to de-liver the plaintiff cash claimed as due. The municipality also asks that the contract between the two parties be declared void. Watts and Prestby represent the plaintiff corporation.

Despite his professed lack of clair-voyant power, Heaton succeeded in locating the lot.

SLAPPING OF STUDENT IS OKEYED BY JUDGE !

Ill., June 2,-School teachers are sometimes justi-fied in siapping their pupils and may even go to the extent of pulling their hair. Brought into court on a charge of assault and with pulling a handful of hair from a pupil's head, Miss Ma-bel Speer, a local teacher, was discharged by the judge.

One witness swore that he believed complaining pupil had not taken bath for two years.

SOME STROKE!

DENVER, June 2.-A golf record or women in the Rocky Mountain reion was established here when Mrs. awrence D. Bromfield, of Depver, egotiated the fourteenth hole at the Denver Country Club in one stroke. The hole is 114 yards, and local golf fans declare it is the first time they have ever heard of a woman holing
