GOLFERS WILL HAVE THRILLS IN HAWAII

HILO, Island of Hawaii, T. H., June 2.—One more modern innovation—golf—has invaded the sacred regions on this island which compose the kingdom of "Madame Pele," Hawaiian goddess whose fabled residence is in the crater of Kilauea volcano, for a nine-hole course near the crater has been opened.

Considerable difficulty was encountered in laying out the links, as hundreds of pukus or lava holes had to be covered with a thick wire netting to prevent balls from falling into the crevices. Now and then golfers may be startled to see a cloud of steam arising from these holes or vents but the danger is negligible, unless Madam Pele becomes enraged at the latest molestation of her domains and causes the lava of Halemauau (The House of Everlasting Fire) to overflow, volcanologists said.

It will have a capitalization of $200,000 and a surplus of $100,000.

In addition to handling the funds of more than 300 locals in Chicago, the bank will be the chief depository for the national organization funds. The national body has a membership of 150,000. Sidney Hillman, president of the National Union Bank here; W. O. Thompson, of New York, and Peter Sissman, of Chicago, will be among the bank's directors.

'DREAM RAILROAD' TO OPEN WINTER SPORTS

YOSEMITE LODGE, Cal., June 2.—(U. P.)—A plan for popularizing winter sports is being formulated by Yosemite National Park company. Officials are looking far ahead and see in the future a railroad up from the valley floor to Glacier Point. This will necessitate extensive tunnels to avoid the snow slides of winter. Those who have visited many renowned winter resorts say there are finer and longer national toboggan slides back in Sentinel Rock than anywhere else in the world. Building of the "dream" railroad will make these toboggan slides and also plenty of other snow accessible from the valley floor. The trails and roads to Glacier Point are closed by snow during the winter months.

Albert Fuhrer, an inmate of the state training school for boys, escaped from the institution Wednesday. He is 15 years old and was committed to the school from Portland.

Asks Liberal Care for Ex-Soldiers

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 2.—(U. P.)—The worst casualties suffered by the American soldiers during the world war are just beginning to show themselves, according to C. J. Harris, an official of the American Legion's national headquarters here.

There is an average of two ex-soldier suicides a day, Harris declared. These men, almost without exception were in the battle-lines in France and returned to the United States with their nerves ragged from their experience.

These combat soldiers, the Legion officials contend, showed no sign of "shell-shock" and were discharged by army doctors as normal, with apparently no ill results from military service. The strain of fighting for existence is responsible for the increasing number of suicides among ex-soldiers, Harris declared.

There are two ways in which the Legion hopes to minister to these mental cases and to prevent their increase, Harris said. The Langley bill, now law, provides $17,000,000 for the construction of new hospitals. The larger portion of this money is to be spent in creating facilities for treating the neuro-psychiatric, mental patients.

The Legion also is preparing to petition congress to liberalize the present Sweet bill. This bill now makes it impossible for an ex-soldier to obtain government treatment for war injuries which show up more than two years after his discharge from military service. The Legion contends that it might easily be five years after an ex-soldier's discharge before the serious physical and mental effects of his service would appear and will demand a liberalization of the bill's provision.

3 TREASURE-HUNTING EXPEDITIONS STARTED

SAN FRANCISCO, June 2.—(U. P.)—Shipping men here are interested in three separate treasure-hunting expeditions now going forward in various parts of the world, and there is much speculation when old waterfront men get together as to whether any treasure will ever be found.

The expeditions have set out from London to attempt to recover "King John's treasure," lost long ago in the tidelands of "The Wash," on the coast of the North Sea.

Another is attempting to locate treasures reported to have been buried a few centuries ago in the hands of the Irish coast, marked on a torn map which the treasure-hunters possess, by the crew of one of the Spanish galleons of the great Armada. The ship in question, carrying the treasure, had been wrecked on the coast.

The third expedition, setting out from New York, is more recent in history. It is the attempt to recover the treasure carried on the ill-fated Lusitania, torpedoed off the English coast in 1916. Over $1,000,000 in gold and gems was reported to have been on the Lusitania. The treasure will be sought with divers and grapplers.

$125 TON FOR GRAPES
SANTA ROSA, Cal., June 2.—(U. P.)—Several vineyard owners near here recently refused $125 a ton for their dark wine grapes. The offers were made by Boston firms. The owners offered to sell at this price if the Boston firms would take the complete crop, black and white grapes, at that price, and it is expected the deals will be put through on this basis before long.

LATIN PEOPLE HAVE DIFFERENT VIEWPOINT

SAN FRANCISCO, May 25.—(A. P.)—Differences in American and Spanish-American viewpoints were explained recently by Herbert Stein, University of California alumnus, now business man of Mexico, at a Chamber of Commerce dinner here. He quoted the following proverbs:

"Where Americans say: 'Make hay

while the sun shines,' the Spanish-American says: 'Enjoy life while the sun shines.'

The Americanism: 'Early to bed, early to rise, makes a man healthy, wealthy and wise,' is offset by his southern brother's axiom: 'Not by rising early will the sun rise earlier.'

"He is as good as dead," says the president of the United States, whereas the metaphor of southern climes is: 'He is as good as bread.'

People of the United States are characterized by the value they place on time and money, said Mr. Stein, but Latin-Americans are swayed by their poets, and often choose poets to be their presidents.

Which is Larger the Sun or a Cent

"Why—the sun of course" you will say. But remember—you can hold the cent so close to your eye that you lose sight of the sun. Some baking powders can be bought for a few pennies less than Calumet—but don't hold these cents too close to your eyes—you will not be able to see the quality—the purity—the dependability of CALUMET BAKING POWDER. In other words, don't be deceived by a few pennies—the cheapest baking powder in price is often the most expensive. When you buy Calumet you know that it will produce pure, sweet, and wholesome bakings. You know that you use less because it contains more than the ordinary leavening strength. Buy it—try it—be convinced. A pound can of Calumet contains full 16 ounces. Some baking powders come in 12 ounce instead of 16 ounce cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.
