BOBBED HAIR TO CAUSE
ERA OF BALDHEADS, SAY
ADVOCATES OF BEAUTY

WASHINGTON, June 7.—The fearful prospect of a nation of baldheaded women following in the wake of the bobbed hair craze has divided Washington beauty parlors into two bitter camps, while in the distance rumbles the thunder of an impending curling-iron war.

"Absurd, m'sieu," they say at some beauty parlors, shrugging a mean George.

"Quelle awful, ain't it?" say others. "Mais, c'est vrai!" meaning "You bet your permanent wave it is."

When hair is bobbed, it is explained, a tight hat usually is worn through affirmed that the crowning glory, and which retards the growth of the hair. In fact, it has been solemnly affirmed that the crowing glory, starting for ventilation, frequently gives up the battle and falls out.

A canvass of young women here to ascertain their views on bobbed hair showed three out of four unalterably opposed to the fad, characterizing it as "disgusting" and asserting it to be the first step toward baldness. The fourth young lady—sporting abbreviated locks, of course—declared she "couldn't see anything wrong with bobbed hair," adding that if she had long hair she never would get to work on time.
