News Notes of Pendleton

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

June 15, 16 and 17—Annual state convention of Spanish American War Veterans, Women's Auxiliary and Military Order of Serpents.

September 21, 22, 23, Round-Up.

Sheep Are Drowned.

Between 400 and 500 of the Thomas Boylen sheep were lost recently in the irrigation canal in the west end of the county just below the dam. The sheep had been moved close to the water and a sheep dog deserted. The herder was left alone and when the sheep headed for the canal for water he was unable to save them from drowning.

Charles Seeley Dies

Charles H. Seeley, who died in Pomeroy Sunday morning, was for nearly 40 years a prominent citizen of Pomeroy and for 10 years prior to his arrival there a resident of Pendleton. He built some of Pomeroy's best business houses which he owned at the time of his death. He was born at Rushville, Ills. He lived to be 81 years old. On September 10, 1867, he married Miss Sarah A. White, who, with two daughters, Mrs. M. F. Gose and Mrs. Kate Allen, survive him. Pomeroy business houses closed during the funeral, which was largely attended.

Photographer Is Here.

C. F. Sodaberg arrived yesterday from Spokane to take a position with F. E. Ward, photographer. Mr. Sodaberg is an experienced man.

Alfred Koeppen Returns

Alfred Koeppen returned yesterday from Corvallis, where he is a student at Oregon Agricultural College. He is a member of Delta Kappa and will next year be editor of the "Orange Owl," the college's humorous publication. This year he was art editor for the Owl. During the summer he will be employed at Koeppen's Drug Store.

Mrs. Ireland Dies

Mrs. Laura Ireland, wife of Rev. John E. Ireland, dropped dead yesterday afternoon at the West End grocery where she resided. Death was caused by heart failure. The funeral will be held at 1 p. m. tomorrow at the Brown & Brady chapel. Mrs. Ireland, was born near Fontana, Kansas, March 8, 1860. She was the daughter of James and Sara Williams. Her parents died when she was eight years of age and she made her home with her sister, Mrs. Jonas King, with whom she came to Walla Walla in 1883. In 1904 she was married to Edwin Inman, who died in 1915. In February, 1919, she was married to Rev. Ireland, and has since made her home in Pendleton. Besides her husband she leaves the following nephews and nieces: William Rookstool of Salem, Mrs. Ben Haggey of La Grande, S. E. King, A. A. King, Effie A. King, J. D. Qing, Mrs. Stella Stafford, all of Walla Walla, and Mrs. Floyd King of Dayton.

Leave on Fishing Trip.

Fred Young, Eugene Lyman and Earl Sawyer left yesterday for a few days' fishing trip at Meadow Creek.

Randall Returns.

Charles Z. Randall, deputy district attorney, has returned after a visit with relatives at Salem. He was gone two weeks.

Rotarians to Meet.

The Rotarians' picnic for Pendleton boys Thursday will not interfere with the regular weekly luncheon which will be held as usual tomorrow, according to a statement by officers of the club today.

Dedication Date Not Set.

The date for the dedication of the new wing of St. Anthony's hospital has not yet been set. The building is nearing completion and the final construction work is now under way. When the building is finally completed the date for its dedication will be announced.

Boy Is Hurt

Joe McConnell, Pendleton youngster who attended the Episcopal Sunday school picnic at Misston yesterday, sustained burns on his hands as a result of climbing on the bridge. The heat of iron knobs on the rails burned the flesh and the boy fainted from pain. His injuries were not serious, however.

Rain Helped Range.

The higher range and the government reserve range received much benefit from the recent rain, according to Henry Lazinka, Ukiah cattle man, who was a visitor in Pendleton today. The high range was beginning to suffer some before the rainfall. Good feed will be a certainty for some time now, Mr. Lazinka thinks.

Distributes Tax Money.

Tax money due cities in the county from the turnover recently made by the sheriff's office has been sent to the various municipalities by C. K. Cranston, county treasurer. The money sent out amounted to $45,286.38. Preparations are now being made to distribute money to the clerks of the various school districts to the amount of $141,634.55.

Medical Men Coming.

A request that Dr. Platt W. Covington of the Rockefeller Foundation be given an opportunity to speak before a Pendleton audience on important health matters has been received by the Pendleton Commercial Association from Dr. Frederick D. Stricker, state health officer. The two physicians expect to be held June 15. Action on the request will be taken later.

Pilferers Are Active.

Councilman Richard Lawrence, who is chairman of the committee in charge of the city natatorium is having plenty of troubles all his own with pilferers since the opening of the swimming place last week. He is working on a plan to provide an improved locker service. One gold watch has been reported stolen to him, and some clothing has disappeared.

Mrs. Pratt In Charge

Mrs. Clara Pratt, one of the teachers at Field School during the past year, will be in charge of the first, second and third grade work in the practice school which will be held this year in connection with the Summer Normal. The school will open Monday and will continue until July 28. The three grades will be taught at Field School, while the fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth will be taught at the high school. Many Pendleton children will enroll in the various grades.

Enter The Raging Snarling Lynx

SARANAC LAKE, N. Y., June 13.—(U. P.)—Chateaugay Lake an added attraction for its summer colony this season in the somewhat unpleasant but very thrilling form of a record size Canadian lynx, which is expected to put a lot of zip into forest picnics in that section of the Adirondacks.

The lynx got away to a good start recently when it horned into a girl's party and scattered the maidens fair to the four winds. Miss Almira Blow, Miss June Knight, Miss Marjorie Blow, Miss Gertrude Jenaway and Miss Mildred Blow were returning to their homes along a woods road, after spending the evening at the home of a friend. The girls were walking arm in arm and singing.

Came a crash in the brush and into the moonlit road stalked a huge lynx, which advanced toward the group in the most threatening manner, screeching as only members of its tribe can. The terrified girls fled for the nearest house three quarters of a mile away, with the lynx raging at their heels, but apparently lacking the nerve to leap upon them.

TO FURNISH CHILDREN

BERLIN, June 13.—(U. P.)—"The people who want to have children this year should apply for them at the mayor, he will provide them," the village hellman of Waldhausen called out the other day.

He forgot to add that the children in question were grown-ups of the city schools who are sent during the school vacation to the country for recreation.

THE DRUG OF COURAGE

NEW YORK, June 13.—(U. P.)—Dr. Rusby of Columbia University has retturned from Brazil with the drug of courage. Rusby says scientists have been looking for this drug for 70 years. The South American Indians take it on the eve of battle and know no fear.

Hooch hounds on Broadway bewail the late discovery. In the pre-Volstead days, they say, the drug would have been invaluable to husbands desiring to remain out until 1 p. m., but fearing friend wife. Now it can only be fed.
