HOUSE PLANS TO TAKE VACATION DURING JULY

Series of Three Day Recesses Plan of Members Until Senate Finishes Tariff.

WOULD ALLOW TIME TO MEND FENCES

Harding's Acceptance of Delay on Ship Subsidy Bill Allows for Lay-off.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—(U. P.)—House members plan a series of three day recesses starting by July first and continuing until the senate finally disposes of the tariff bill, following Harding's acceptance of the plan to postpone action on the ship subsidy bill for a month. Recesses are planned so members may be able to get back home to mend their political fences. Those living nearby would return to the capital every three days and vote a new recess, while those living far away could go home and stay there until the tariff bill is ready to go to conference between the house and senate.
