

Double "S. N." Green Stamps this Evening After Six O'clock

A double cash discount that makes it possible for you to save about 3 per cent on your necessary expenditures. It will pay you to trade at Pendleton's Greatest Department Store.

The Woman Who Has Hosiery Needs to supply cannot do better than to come to this store. The record low prices that we are offering on many special lines of ladies' and children's hose will make it most profitable for her.

"Bear Brand" Hose for Children in a fine more cotton, extra good quality, in black, white and cordovan, all sizes up to 10. Priced from . . . 35c to 40c

"Bear Brand" Hose for Children in a fine ribbed fibre silk. They come in black, white and cordovan in all sizes, reasonably priced from . . . 80c to $1.25 Ladies' "Sultana" Pure Silk, Full Fashioned Hose. Extra good quality in colors of black, white and cordovan. Prices range from . . . $1.25 to $3.75 Ladies' "Phoenix" Pure Thread Silk Hose. Extra fine quality, the wearing quality cannot be equaled. Black, white and cordovan. Priced . . . $1.25 to $3.00

Don't wait until you have foot troubles-

ARCH PRESERVER SHOE

IF YOU value foot comfort—and foot health—right now is the time to start wearing correct shoes, correctly fitted. Your feet may give way at any time.

Arch Preserver Shoes give your foot arches the protection they require—absolutely assuring you perfect foot health so long as you wear them.

However, if your feet now are troubling you, you can relieve them by wearing Arch Preserver Shoes.

And you'll be pleased with their style and general appearance, too.

Romper Cloth 34c

32 inch "Lad and Lassie" romper cloth, big assortment of patterns and checks and stripes. Just the fabric for rompers, play suits and ladies' house aprons; light and dark patterns; reasonably priced today at, yard 34c

Cretannes 30c

36 inch "Bungalow" Cretannes in wonderful assortment of colors and patterns, for drapes, house aprons and many other uses; it is very good; the price is only, per yard 30c

SPECIAL SALE OF MEN'S SHIRTS ONE-HALF PRICE

We are closing out one special lot of shirts in sizes 14, 14 1/2, 15, 15 1/2, 16 and 17 1/2. Wonderful values at the regular prices, but we are now offering them at ONE-HALF PRICE.

SPECIAL TONIGHT AFTER 6 O'CLOCK. 6 PAIRS MEN'S SOX $1.00

Come in black, grey and brown. A fine weave, good wearing, nice looking sock. After Six O'clock, 6 pairs for $1.00

PENDLETON'S GREATEST DEPARTMENT STORE

We Will Give You Quality Merchandise at Moderate Prices. The People's Warehouse Make This Store Your Store. It Will Pay You.

PURE FOOD GROCERY WHERE IT PAYS TO TRADE BARGAIN BASEMENT

PILOT ROCK ASKED TO GIVE TO RED CROSS

(East Oregonian Special.) PILOT ROCK, July 1.—Dr. Oscar De Vaul and Dr. H. A. Schneider returned home Friday from an auto trip to Portland where they attended the Rose Festival.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Best and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Albrecht spent the week end at Lehman Springs.

The three small daughters of Mrs. Jessie Humphrey, Norma, Erna and Virginia, were operated on at St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton Friday morning. They are full recovered at this time.

E. B. Cassel returned home Sunday from Portland where he attended a meeting of the republican state central committee of which he is a member.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Tobin left Monday by auto for their home in Portland. Mr. Tobin is contractor for the new bridge being erected in Pilot Rock.

Dr. H. A. Schneider, Miss Verona Fullenweider and Mrs. Ida Russell spent Sunday at Lehman Springs. Mrs. Russell will not return home until sometime later.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Westgate spent

Saturday evening at the county seat. Mrs. P. V. Chapman, Mrs. John Lightfoot, Mrs. James Stanton and Miss Ella Stanton were Pilot Rock visitors Wednesday.

Rev. Curry Love, local pastor and C. J. Miller and family spent Sunday at Gurdane where a Sunday school picnic was held. Following church services in the morning, conducted by Mr. Love, a bounteous basket dinner was enjoyed and ice cream in abundance was served to all. There was a good attendance, one hundred or more being present.

Mrs. Bert Westgate has returned to her home south of Pilot Rock after an extended visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Otis Hampton, north of Pendleton.

Rev. B. F. Harper of Milton, county Sunday school missionary, conducted services at the community church Sunday in the absence of Mr. Love.

Alvin Benson of Portland, is a guest at the home of his aunt, M. J. Gilliam. Mrs. Levi Elridge is recovering from a recent illness.

Mrs. Carl Jensen is enjoying a visit from her mother, Mrs. Love, of Pendleton.

Tom Gibson was transacting business here Monday.

Pat Doherty, was in town Monday from Butter Creek.

Miss Geraldine Hayes of Nye is a guest for the week at the home of Mrs. Bessie Humphrey.

Mr. and Mrs. James Truman and children spent Sunday at Lehman Springs.

Mr. Grubb and family, who have been making their home at the Knotts apartment house, moved Monday into the Ward Stanley residence for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ely were in Pilot Rock Saturday en route from Pendleton to their home at Gurdane.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Frick spent Sunday at Lehman Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Ellenberger are the parents of a little daughter, born Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Hilbert were visitors here Tuesday. They were en route to their home at Ukiah after a visit to Pendleton and were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Alex McKenale of Pendleton.

Mrs. Ben Gill was shopping in Pilot Rock Wednesday.

A call for $100 from this district has been received from the Pendleton Red Cross chapter. Plans are under way to give an ice cream social in the park some time soon to raise the money.

Mrs. Louis Douglas was shopping here Thursday.

George Carnes and Newt Royer left Wednesday by auto for Portland. They will be accompanied home by Dr. A. H. Carnes of Albuquerque, N. M., a brother of G. E. and Owen Carnes of this city.

J. G. Beckley and family have moved into the Al Acton property. Mr. Beckley is the new warehouse man here.

Charles Spere left last week for Eugene to spend the summer.

Mrs. S. J. Orange of Des Moines, Iowa, accompanied by her two granddaughters, arrived here Tuesday to visit her son, M. D. Orange.

Mrs. Julia Schock and daughter Gretchen visited relatives in Wells, Walla last week. Mrs. Schock is quite ill again this week with acute rheumatism.

Thelma Wilson is spending the summer here with her mother. Miss Wilson attended school in Redmond last year.

Marion Smith was confined to his home for a day or more this week as the result of bruises about his shoulders and a general shaking up received when he fell down the cellar steps in the Carnes store.

M. D. Orange was a business visitor to Pendleton Thursday.

Grandpa Price is reported quite ill at her home near Pilot Rock.

Wayne Russell is here from California visiting his father, Pearl Russell.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Garrett of Pendleton are preparing to move into Harley Hinderman's property on Willow street. Mr. Garrett will have charge of the Standard Oil station here.

George Jordan left a few days ago for Wyoming with a load of sheep.

Mrs. O. T. Carnes and children are spending the summer in the mountains.

Mrs. Sydney McReynolds and Mrs. Lowell Sturtevant went to Lehman Springs Friday to remain indefinitely.

Victor Bracher is home from the University of Oregon where he was a student during the past school year.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Hampton and children visited over Sunday at the Westgate ranch.

Mrs. Harry Connor and small son of Mrs. Chezek of Herndon, were weekend guests here at the home of Mrs. Connor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Boylen.

Mr. and Mrs. Derwood Harrison were visitors here Thursday.

Rev. Curry Love has taken up his residence at the Alfred Knotts home.

The Woman's Community Club met Wednesday evening in the church basement. No meetings will be held during July and August. The library committee will be in charge of the next meeting, September 8, which will be a social. In the absence of the president and vice president, Mrs. Len Knotts presided. After a short business session the home economics committee served ice cream and cake. About twenty-five were present.

Mrs. Percy Hascall returned home Thursday from St. Anthony's hospital with her infant daughter.

Miss Gladys Fletcher was a Pendleton visitor Thursday.

Miss Alta Smith arrived home from Ellensburg Sunday where she visited her sister, Mrs. Orville Rogers. Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Wilson of Fresno, Calif., visited here last week with Mr. Wilson's brother and sister, John Wilson and Mrs. Joe Royer.

L. C. Scharpf of Pendleton was in Pilot Rock Thursday.

Thomas Jaques left this week to spend the summer at the mines.

Audrey Pearl Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Williams, died at the home of her parents west of Freewater, Wednesday. The funeral was held from the Christian church of Milton, Friday morning at 10:00 o'clock. Rev. O. D. Harris officiating. Herment in the Oddfellow's cemetery, Milton. The deceased was fourteen years old lacking one day.

The tomato growers of this community are to have a meeting in the Methodist church of Sunnyside, Monday evening at 8:00 o'clock, at which meeting the question of the best way of disposing of the coming tomato crop will be discussed.

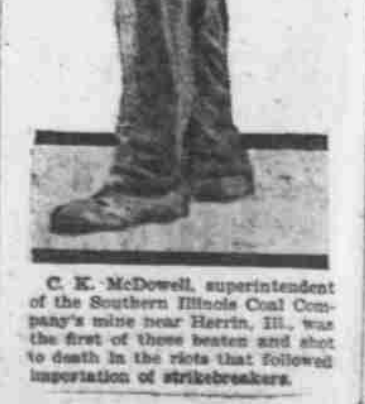

The acquaintances and friends of the Kibler family of Walla Walla county, who live in this community will be interested to know that Mrs. Louise Kibler died in the St. Mary's afternoon. She had been in the hospital, Walla, Walla, Wednesday past five weeks, suffering from a paralytic stroke, but the immediate cause of her death was pneumonia. She was born in Iowa in 1856, and moved with her parents to the Walla Walla valley in 1884, marrying Jacob Kibler in 1872, settling on the farm she lived on at the time of her death. She leaves four sons, and one daughter, Crales, David, William, Frank and Mrs. Anna White. The funeral services were held from the Pioneer Methodist Church Friday afternoon, Rev. A. R. Liverett, officiating. Interment in the Mountain View cemetery.

The People's Mercantile Company of Freewater have bought the fixtures of the Weston Mercantile Company, owned by Matt Mosgrove of Milton, and installed them in their Freewater store, which gave it an improved appearance.

The Twin Cities Laundry Company have commenced on their new building on Ward Street in North Milton, where they expect to do their work, and still keep the office with the cleaning and pressing office next door to the Milton Post Office.

Tuesday, N. K. Nordhoff took four delegates to Pendleton in his auto to attend a missionary meeting of the Presbyterian church. The delegates were Mrs. N. K. Nordhoff, Mrs. Mary Stinson, Miss Daisy Plant and Mrs. John McEwen.

Work on the new high school building is progressing steadily, the brick work being done, and the grounds are being leveled.

C. K. McDowell, superintendent of the Southern Illinois Coal Company's mine near Herrin, Ill., was the first of those beaten and shot to death in the riots that followed inspiration of strikebreakers.

SIX DAY CHAUTAUQU ASSURED FOR NEXT YEAR AT TWIN CITIES

W. H. Birdsell, phone 1473, has charge of the Milton-Freewater news and circulation bureau of the East Oregonian.

MILTON-FREEWATER, July 1.—The six day chautauqua in Milton-Freewater next year is an assured thing, for enough guarantors have signed up to make it practically certain, and as the five day program of this year is giving such satisfaction and is being so well patronized as to enable these financing the enterprises to report most gratifying results, all anxiety for next year has vanished. The guarantors are composed of the business men of both Freewater and Milton.

The Synod of the Presbyterian church will meet at Corvallis from July tenth to sixteenth, and Mr. J. H. Coffman who has been elected as a lay delegate will attend, making the trip by auto, accompanied by his wife.

Rev. G. H. Wilbur, pastor of the Grace Presbyterian church of Milton, has been granted a month's vacation in July, and he and family will leave next week for points in the Willamette valley, expecting to attend the Synod which meets at Corvallis.

W. K. Reath, station agent for the Walla Walla Valley Traction Company in Milton, started for the scenes of his boyhood in Northern Michigan, Friday. W. D. Easterwood will attend to the duties at the station, during his absence. He will be gone a month.

A party composed of Mr. and Mrs. Kenoshan, Mrs. Kenoshan's mother and aunt, were entertained for a short time Tuesday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Gillis. The party were on their way to Seaside and other beach points and are from Nampa, Ida.

Earl Grey who has been in the Walla Walla hospital for some time was able to be taken to his sister's home in Walla Walla, where he will stay a while.

Mrs. H. S. Shangle, got home Tuesday from Stevensville, Mont, where she has been in attendance at the annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the North West Conference of the M. E. Church South. Mrs. Shangle presided at the meeting, being president of the society.

Miss Lucile Texador, who has been in the Walla Walla hospital, where she underwent an operation some time past, returned home Tuesday.

Mrs. W. P. Hopson, who has been in the Colfax Place sanitarium for the past few weeks was able to come home Monday.

Thursday evening at 8:00 o'clock there was a very pretty and quiet wedding solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Kicker, when their daughter, Miss Cora, became the bride of Mr. Eugene Collins of Seattle. The ring ceremony was used, the Rev. G. H. Wilbur pronouncing them husband and wife. The bride wore a gown of beautiful white satin crepe and a bouquet of pink roses and sweet peas. The house was decorated with ferns, Shasta daisies and sweet peas. Only the immediate relatives were present. At the close of the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Collins started for their home in Seattle, where Mr. Collins is head manager of the Accessories Department of the Eldridge-Duick Sales Company. The bride and groom are estimable young people well known in the community, he having been a resident of Freewater recently, while she is a high school graduate of this district. They have the best wishes of a host of friends and acquaintances here.

J. A. Numbers whose home is on the North Fork of the Walla Walla river died at the home of his sister in Weston, Tuesday, and was buried in Pendleton Thursday, the funeral being held from the Christian church of that place at 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon. Rev. O. D. Harris of Milton officiating.

Audrey Pearl Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Williams, died at the home of her parents west of Freewater, Wednesday. The funeral was held from the Christian church of Milton, Friday morning at 10:00 o'clock. Rev. O. D. Harris officiating. Herment in the Oddfellow's cemetery, Milton. The deceased was fourteen years old lacking one day.

The tomato growers of this community are to have a meeting in the Methodist church of Sunnyside, Monday evening at 8:00 o'clock, at which meeting the question of the best way of disposing of the coming tomato crop will be discussed.

The acquaintances and friends of the Kibler family of Walla Walla county, who live in this community will be interested to know that Mrs. Louise Kibler died in the St. Mary's afternoon. She had been in the hospital, Walla, Walla, Wednesday past five weeks, suffering from a paralytic stroke, but the immediate cause of her death was pneumonia. She was born in Iowa in 1856, and moved with her parents to the Walla Walla valley in 1884, marrying Jacob Kibler in 1872, settling on the farm she lived on at the time of her death. She leaves four sons, and one daughter, Crales, David, William, Frank and Mrs. Anna White. The funeral services were held from the Pioneer Methodist Church Friday afternoon, Rev. A. R. Liverett, officiating. Interment in the Mountain View cemetery.

The People's Mercantile Company of Freewater have bought the fixtures of the Weston Mercantile Company, owned by Matt Mosgrove of Milton, and installed them in their Freewater store, which gave it an improved appearance.

The Twin Cities Laundry Company have commenced on their new building on Ward Street in North Milton, where they expect to do their work, and still keep the office with the cleaning and pressing office next door to the Milton Post Office.

Tuesday, N. K. Nordhoff took four delegates to Pendleton in his auto to attend a missionary meeting of the Presbyterian church. The delegates were Mrs. N. K. Nordhoff, Mrs. Mary Stinson, Miss Daisy Plant and Mrs. John McEwen.

Work on the new high school building is progressing steadily, the brick work being done, and the grounds are being leveled.

IT ALWAYS SEEMS TO BE MORE FUN WHEN THERE'S COMPANY.

A PLEASANT ECONOMY

"Cleanliness is next to godliness." Let us keep your suits or frocks in immaculate condition and it will intensify your charm.

Besides, it's true economy to have your clothes Dry Cleaned as it adds months of enjoyment and service to their life.

Model Cleaners and Dyers

508 Main