ATHENA CELEBRATION
WAS BIG SUCCESS

(East Oregonian Special.)
ATHENA, July 7.—Every thing seemed to work for the success of the 4th of July celebration in Athena. While the day was warm it was not uncomfortable. Most Athena people attended the picnic in the city park this year instead of going elsewhere to celebrate. Many people from other towns were also here making it one of the largest celebrations held here for some time. The Boy Scout, American Legion and other stands were well patronized. Fire crackers and other fire works furnished plenty of noise and amusement for the children.

The program of the morning was very good. Its most interesting feature being the talk made by Rev. Clark of Pendleton the main speaker of the day. The musical numbers were enjoyed by every one. At noon the people spread their picnic dinner in the park. After dinner their were sports of all kinds.
The band gave a short concert and then led the crowd to the base ball grounds where an interesting game between Milton and Walla Walla was played. Milton being the winner.
In the evening the band gave a street concert. At eight o'clock the Doble patrol gave a parade and drill. After which a dance was given at the Legion Hall with the Dokies in charge. A good picture was shown at the Standard Theatre during the afternoon and evening.
Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hester of San Francisco have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Thompson. Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Hester are sisters.
Mrs. Jesse Myrick was a Pendleton shopper Monday.
Miss Velva Mansfield of Walla Walla has been a guest of her sister Mrs. Bert Logsdon this week.
Sam Booher who came up from Condon to spend the Fourth with his family has returned.
Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Jones have returned to their home in Athena after spending a two weeks vacation in the mountains. Mr. Jones is the mail carrier on the route out of Athena. Olin McFerrin carried the mail during the time Mr. Jones was away.
Mrs. Danner has returned to Athena after visiting at the home of her brother near Enterprise.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles May and children Harry and Erma of Weston mountain spent the Fourth in Athena.
Mr. and Mrs. Rex Poline of Portland have been visiting relatives here. They expect to stay until after harvest.
Mrs. Glen Sheely is visiting at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McIntyre.
Mrs. Shick and daughter Helen of Walla Walla visited relatives in Athena Tuesday.
Miss Lida McDonald of Pendleton were in Athena Tuesday afternoon.
