PREPARING FOR GRAIN HARVEST ON MOUNTAIN

(East Oregonian Special)

WESTON MT., July 21.—E. E. Faust, Terence Terhune and Mr. Baker went to Pendleton on business Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley May and family returned from their Bend and Deschutes pleasure and fishing trip Saturday. They had a very pleasant trip camping and fishing.

Rev. Cohan of the M. E. Church of Weston preached at the Weston Mountain church Sunday to a good attendance at 2 o'clock. Services have been arranged for the first and third Sundays of each month. Sunday August the 6th a basket dinner is planned.

Mark Henderson is getting his threshing machine ready for harvest and will run the cook house in connection with the machine. Some grain will be ready to harvest in two weeks.

Mrs. L. C. Brown left for her home near Dayton Wednesday to see to the harvesting of their grain. Mr. Brown who is slowly recovering from a stroke of paralysis following a severe attack of influenza in the spring is still at his sisters, Mrs. Mark Henderson's with his daughter Cora Frances.

The mountain air is doing him more good than medical treatment. A complete recovery is expected.

Miss Dorothy Bowers resigned her position in Pendleton to assist at home while her mother is recovering in Pendleton from a recent operation for appendicitis. Mrs. Bowers was brought home Sunday by her cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gilliland.

Among the Weston people attending Sunday services were Mr. and Mrs. Herman Goodwin, Mrs. McKeen, George Winn and Mr. and Mrs. Faust.

Mr. and Mrs. Baker visited John Wroe and family last week on Reid and Hawley mountain, formerly of Weston Mountain.

Prof. Hyslop of O. A. C. is expected in about ten days to make an examination of the potatoes that are to be certified on the mountain. On account of the extreme dry weather potatoes are not coming up as well as formerly. Grain will also suffer considerably from lack of rain.

Mrs. W. L. Rayborn entertained at a seven o'clock dinner in honor of Pauline Rayborn's eighteenth birthday Friday. Besides the family were Miss Cora Frances Brown, recently of Washington State College and Cousin Dorothy Tuesday.

E. Tucker and brothers have purchased a threshing machine, 21 inch in size to be run with a Fordson and will soon commence threshing.

While moving into their farm home last week the Elmer Tucker house caught fire from the flue and burned a part of the household goods that had been moved into the house.

Walter Rayborn has been employed by Jim Cutley to run his caterpillar through harvest and fall work.

Henry Booher bought Willard Forth's interest in the threshing machine and will commence the last of
