TEN PAGES

Normal School.

Huy Show

R. Alexander III.

is better today.

101

White Chautauqua.

78-79

"There Is But One

Injared In Fall Word has been received by friends here of an injury to Mrs. James Corn-field of Pendleton. She sustained a fracture of her right shoulder when If acture of her right shoulder when she fell downstairs at the home of her sister in Portland. Mrs. Cornfield makes her home with her daughter, Mrs. Ora Hanavan, 102 Lilleth street. She is in a hospital for treatment but will be taken to the home of her sis-ter within a day or two, according to the letter received by Mrs. Hanavan. Fire is Extinguished. There are times a plenty when it pays to have a trained fire fighter around in case of emergency, and this morning proved to be one of those cases. One of the cars oper-ated by the Weston Stage Co. caught fire but the fire was extinguished before very much damage had been done. The business of extinguishing done. The business of extinguishing the blaze was done by Joe Boyd with a fire extinguisher. The fire occurr-ed near the Allen-Knight store from

Are In Room 7

he association

The headquarters and office of the Oregon Co-operative Grain Growers' association in Pendleton are in room 7 of the Despain bluiding, according to A. W. Davis, who is in charge of the office. The plan of payment for wheat being followed by the association is to pay 75 cents a bushel on the contract, 10 cents the bushel in March another payment in June and the final payment as soon thereafter as pos-sible. The final settlement for the 1921 crop is expected to be made few days, he states, CORVALLIS, July 21.-(A. P.)-Illamook is making a bid for the next onvention of the State Editorial Association, distributed cheese to the delegates today. C. E. Ingalis, of Cor-valls, was made chairman of the res-olutions committee, and Balph Cro-nise of Albany, a member of the nerology committee. The Newberg Graphic was awarded first place in the rural service contest for Weeklys. The Polk County Ob-server and Good River Glacier won and third prizes for best service in the first or gree for all class.

Highest Quality Clothes at an unusual saving. Values up to $52.50.

It's the best Clothes Buying Opportunity of recent years. A radical reduction on superior quality, finely-tailored suits from

FASHION PARK KUPPENHEIMER ANDSTEIN BLOCH

It's truly a wonderful saving chance, and no man who values economy can afford to overlook such values as these. There's a large variety of smart styles, patterns and colors to choose from; sizes 34 to 44.