To-Day's Blunder Corrected

Writers of letters need no longer fight shy of the personal pronoun "I." The best modern form is to write letters just as people talk. There is no more reason for using "the writer" in talking business through the mails than for using "the speaker" in talking business face to face. Say "I."

Samoa, visited American Samoa from July 8 to 11 as the guest of Governor Edwin T. Pollock. He then returned to his own islands on the U. S. S. Ontario.
