One Man's Idea of a Prince

This fellow thought a prince should have a pet monkey and blooded dogs. He called himself Prince Louis Henri de Chateron du Bussigny de Bourbon, but New York police say he's Harold Schwann, a factory hand and bean brummet of New Britain, Conn. They'd like to find him to ask him about four or five girls who say he is their husband.

To-Day's Blunder Corrected

The man should assist the lady on the street car ahead of him and pay the fare after she had reached the treasury to operate the department and its activities. The surplus was turned over to the treasury.

In the fiscal year 1920-1921, the department collected over $10,000,000 largely from $10 visa fees paid by immigrants. This sum exceeded by $1,170,198.74 the amount paid out by the treasury to operate the department and its activities. The surplus was turned over to the treasury.
