ITALIAN VILLAGE PUTS BAN ON BAD LANGUAGE

ROME, Aug. 28.—The little province of Verona is becoming purist. An organization for the suppression of profanity has succeeded in reducing bad language 75 per cent within three months. Placards warning against profanity are all over the city, and there is now a movement on foot to have the police take the names of those who give vent to strong language.

Magic of Trimming

Just one solitary bit of trimming is all that's needed to change a dress into a creation and here are some of the ornaments that turn the trick.

To-Day's Blunder
Corrected

When mail is allowed to accumulate in offices until closing time, it not only places an additional burden on the postal service, but is apt to miss important early afternoon train dispatches. This often causes a whole day's delay in delivery. Mail should be posted as soon as it is ready, and at frequently periods of the day.

FRENCH HOTELS RESIST
PROFITEERING CHARGES

PARIS, Aug. 29.—A book written especially for American tourists in "The Prices of Hotels in France—1922," which has just appeared. It is an attempt by the French hotels to counteract the propaganda accusing them of exorbitant charges. Five thousand hotels are listed. The greatest drawback to the book is that minimum prices are quoted, and to repeat La Liberte, "How often will the reader of this book be met with the reply, 'We have rooms at that price but regret that none are available now.'"

The Wheeler county fair will be held at Fossil, September 14-15. On the second day of the fair the Wheeler County Purchased Livestock Breeders' association will hold its second annual sale.
