

News Notes of Pendleton

CALENDAR OF EVENTS
 August 23 to 29—Northwest conference of the Methodist Church at Milton.
 September 15 to 21—Second Annual Northwest Grain and Hay Show.
 September 21, 22, 23, Round-Up.

Injured in Accident
 Jimmy Osborne is getting around on crutches and has his head in bandages as a result of an auto accident that occurred the first part of the week. His companions who were with him when a car which they were driving was smashed fared better than he did. His injuries are not serious.

Scheer Back on Job
 William Scheer, day patrolman on the Pendleton police force, is back on the job this morning after having been off for the past fortnight on his annual vacation. He never left Pendleton, he says, but just stayed home and rested. During his vacation Charles Myers, night policeman, took Scheer's place.

Discriminate Against Pendleton.
 Taat Dayton and Walsburg, Washington, are discriminating against Pendleton in the advice they give to tourists about travel routes in a charge made by Charles Beltz, local service station proprietor. Beltz declares that he has been told several times by tourists that they were advised in the Washington towns to go to the coast by way of Pasco, Prosser, thence across the Horse Heaven country to the ferry when they can come across to the Oregon side. The reason given is that the highway between Arlington and Umatilla is torn up and is practically impassable, the tourists' advisors declare. The road is not in any such condition, according to local people who have traveled over it within the past few days. Later there will be some repair work being made on a part of the stretch.

To Build Shed
 A building permit has been taken out by Mrs. Agnes Stillman for the construction of a shed on her property on Post street. The cost of the improvement is $150.

Condition Is Serious
 The condition of Mrs. George Clore, who was operated on yesterday morning at St. Anthony's hospital is still serious, according to reports, but she is resting as easily as could be expected. She is a sister of Mrs. W. H. Taylor. Mrs. E. Smith, another sister, of Corvallis is here at the bedside. The Clores live at 715 West Court street.

Bishop Offers Aid
 Bishop Walter Taylor Summer, of the Episcopal diocese of Eastern Oregon, in a letter to the Round-Up association today, gives his hearty support to the coming show and offers to aid in any way possible. Bishop Summer has four times been a visitor at the Round-Up. He asks that literature be sent him, which will be used at the coming convention of the Episcopal church in Portland. The convention opens in September and it is probable that many visitors will attend the show.

Police Find Moonshine
 A raid made on the quarters of tenants in the East Oregonian building in the upstairs apartments last night resulted in the finding of three gallons of moonshine, according to the police. Jim Dodson was fined $50 on a charge of illegal possession. All told, eight one-gallon glass jars were found by the police. Other small bottles and a funnel were located in a locker and some containers that apparently had been used for beer were also secured in the haul. Chief of Police W. H. Taylor expressed the opinion that the store in the big containers was being kept for distribution in the smaller bottles, a drink at a time. Charles Bennett was fined $15 and Alonso Staler, $10, on drunk charges. Richard Roe forfeited five dollars on a charge of wrong parking.

W. W. Harrah Appointed
 W. W. Harrah has been appointed a member of the managing committee of the proposed 1925 Exposition, in Portland.

Has Tonsils Removed.
 Little Betty Jane Barr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Barr, underwent an operation this morning for the removal of her tonsils.

Tonsils Removed.
 Little John Chloupek, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Chloupek, is a patient in St. Anthony's hospital. His tonsils and adenoids were removed this morning.

Wheat is Sold.
 Since the close of harvest in Umatilla county, some wheat has been sold during the past few days. Henry W. Collins, bought 40,000 bushels yesterday.

More Taxes Received.
 A turnover of tax money was made today by the sheriff's office to County Treasurer C. K. Cranston. Of the sum turned over, $1,769 was delinquent tax money, and $19,128.56 was current tax funds.

Will Leave for Hood River
 E. L. Shunterman, who has been employed for the past three years as an accountant at the Eastern Oregon State Hospital, will leave tomorrow for Hood River where he has purchased a gasoline filling station. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Shunterman, L. Wilson is Mr. Shunterman's successor at the hospital.

Fined for Swearing.
 E. H. Sommerville was fined $25 this morning in police court by Judge Thomas Fitz Gerald on a charge of using obscene, profane and indecent language. The expression of the questionable language is said to have been made in the presence of Sommerville's wife, and the police were called to settle the difficulty.

With Rescue Crew.
 Herbert Hiestand, son of Mrs. Jessie Hiestand, is a member of the rescue crews at work at the Arzonaut mine in California, where the miners were entombed. Mr. Hiestand, after leaving the army service in which he served as a lieutenant, has been employed as an engineer at the Carson Hill gold mine.

Window is Attractive.
 A Round-Up window at Alexander's is attracting favorable comment. Against a background of bright shirts and neckties appear some fine Round-Up pictures. In the center of the window is a portrait of the late Til Taylor, sheriff of Umatilla county and former Round-Up president, who was killed by jailbreakers.

Cultivate Fallow Ground.
 Cultivating fallow ground to get the weed crop in preparation for the seeding of wheat this fall is the program being followed widely now by farmers in Umatilla county. The cultivating work is about as far along now as it was this time last year, according to W. H. Morrison. He expects to finish his campaign against weeds by Saturday if no rains cause delays.

Cloudburst Causes Washout.
 A cloudburst yesterday afternoon on the Blue Mountains near Perry caused a washout on the lines of the O. W. R. & N. Co. which held up traffic until late last night. Passenger train No. 17 was delayed more than eight hours and No. 18 was held here for some time before it could proceed. Traffic has been resumed to normal today, according to F. D. Hall, local agent.

EPISCOPAL PRAYER BOOK TO BE REVISED

PORTLAND, Aug. 30.—(A. P.)—Revision of the book of common prayer, including the proposal to drop the bride's promise to obey from the marriage ceremony and elimination of the bridegroom's endowment of his bride with his worldly goods, divorce, women's status in church and industrial situation, church unity and other problems were considered by an informal conference of members of the house of bishops starting here today preliminary to the forty-seventh triennial convention of the episcopal church next week.

Use the Phones
 Grocery, 2 Phones 526
 Other Depts.
 78-79

Alexanders
 QUALITY SERVICE
 PENDLETON'S LEADING STORE

Use the Phones
 Grocery, 2 Phones 526
 Other Depts.
 78-79

Friday Night Will Be "Coming Out Night" in "Round-Up" and "Cowboy Regalia"

Be sure to go in FULL (Round-Up) DRESS. Buy your needs at ALEXANDERS where you always get something that's different.

Round-Up Shirts
 $3.00

A big showing of the wild-est colors and combinations you ever saw. We have the color you want and we have your size. We have other qualities at $7.00 and $8.50.

Hat Bands
 50c to $2.00

Wide range of styles of leather and hair.

Round-Up Hats

We offer Hats in the real Round-Up shapes, colors and finish. $6.00 to $18.50

Round-Up Handkerchiefs

Large size, of best quality silk and in most any shade. Each $1.50

Round-Up Vests

THE NEW FEATURE this year in Round-Up dress. You will like the styles and colors of our Vests. THEY SHOW REAL CLASS. Be sure to see our VESTS before you buy. We have your size and color. Price $5.00

SEE OUR WINDOW DISPLAY

FASHION NOTES

By HEDDA HOYT
 (Written for the United Press)

Dining on the roof of one of New York's smart hotels the other night was a distinguished looking girl whose clothes had that "Freaky" appearance which immediately attracts attention. Her gown was made of some dark blue material simply cut and with no decoration save a wide gathered panel embroidered in Persian pattern which hung in the rear from the waist line, in narrow effect. As she prepared to leave she slipped the panel about her shoulders, snapped it together on either side under the arms and strolled out in a smart embroidered wrap. The effect was one of a three-piece suit.

Velvet is the most distinguished item of the Fall fabrics being used for hats, costume suits, gowns and wraps in a great variety of colors.

The Bertha collars and guimpes have come back with a bang completely outfeaturing the Bramley collars. They are featured in net that is laced and with insets of lace and in silver laced effects. The latter are used on the dark afternoon frocks. Most of these new berthas extend midway between shoulders and elbows. They may be gathered or cut to fit the neck. Dyed laces are also utilized for the berthas as a brown net trimmed in brown. Princess lace on a frock of brown crepe.

Entire gowns metallic cloth in both brocade changeable colored effect and plain tinsel are dressing the windows of Fifth Avenue's finest shops. They are designed primarily for evening usage although some of the darker weaves have long sleeves that permit their appearance at afternoon functions. Most of them are far trimmed in long shaggy fur. A familiar instance is shown in a sleeveless evening gown with it's metallic cloth combining the shades of tomato red, black and gold with a wide border of black monkey fur about the bottom of the long skirt.

For the semi-dress occasion the black charmeuse gown (trimmed in velvet or brocade ribbon) is usurping the place of the beaded gown. A long-lined black charmeuse has wide bands of electric blue velvet ribbon extending from the dropped shoulder to below the elbow where the charmeuse begins again. White beads in tiny design almost entirely cover the velvet. No other trimming is used.

Many of the velvet hats have reversible crowns with velvet on one side and embroidered effects or metallic cloth on the other. This treatment provided a hat for dressy wear as well as for street wear.

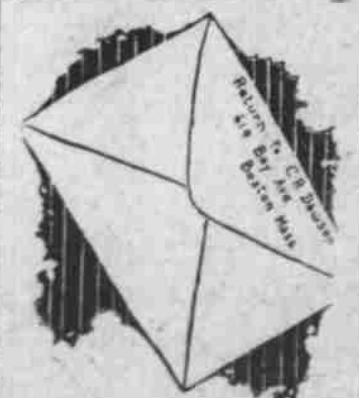

Crepe weaves continue to reign for afternoon wear in preference to the shiny surfaced fabrics.

The little draped turbans of silver or gold cloth which are so popular in Paris at present are being pressed into prominence by many of the Fifth Avenue shops. They are designed for evening wear and are suitable for any color combination with which they are worn.

Handbags and envelopes grow smaller each season. They must carry out the color note of the costume without being too evident an accessory.

Colored handkerchiefs continue in popularity the latest of which are showing tiny designs worked in cross-stitch in Persian colors and motifs.

:: BLUNDERS ::

Why Is This Wrong?
 The answer will be found on the classified page.
 (This is the third of a series of six "Blunders" conspicuously made in mailing letters, suggested by Mr. Arthur C. Lander, Postmaster of Chicago. Avoid these "Blunders" and help speed up the mails.)
 (Copyright, 1922, Associated Editors)

Lloyd George Bursts Forth as Poet; Writes of "Shadows Athwart Dale"

LONDON, Aug. 30.—Premier Lloyd George has blossomed out as a bard. "Cymru'n Ll" is the title of the prime minister's first poetic effort.

Lloyd George has written the words for a Welsh song, full of euphonic phrases such as "Glewlion a feigr yn eu col."

Translated into English, the premier's poetic effort is as follows:
 While hills their shadows fling athwart the dale
 Stalwarts will ever rise within their pale,
 While they, as watchers, guard the placid land
 No aeth shall be of patriots to command.

Cambria's children dare deceit and spite,
 Rocks of our nation constitute our might.

And as the hills from cloudy fethers rise,
 When jocund Phoebus wakes the morning skies,

So flees the bondage holding Wales in thrall,
 Dawn of the morning—listen to the call!
 Children of Cambria, light is near at hand,
 Morn breaks at last, and dawn is o'er the land.

Elks' Dining Room Re-Opens THURSDAY, Aug. 31

for the fall and winter season. Lunch will be served as formerly from 11 a. m. until 2 p. m. and special arrangements may be made with the secretary for luncheon parties.

B. P. O. E. NO. 288,
 F. J. McMONIES, Sec.

LUCKY STRIKE
 "IT'S TOASTED"

Cigarette

It's toasted. This one extra process gives a rare and delightful quality—impossible to duplicate.

Guaranteed by The American Tobacco Co.

You don't need a thirst to enjoy

Budweiser
 Everywhere

ANHEUSER-BUSCH, INC., ST. LOUIS

Gillanders & Burroughs, Inc.
 Local Distributors
 Pendleton, Oregon