WHEAT PRICES SLUMP ON CHICAGO MARKET

Wheat prices are lower today than yesterday, September grain closing at $1.91, December at $1.91 3/4 and May at $1.96 3/4. Yesterday's closings were $1.92, $1.92 3/4 and $1.97 5/8.

Following are the quotations received by Overbeck & Cooke, local brokers:

	Open	High	Low	Close
Sept.	$1.91 1/4	$1.91 1/2	$1.90 3/4	$1.91
Dec.	1.92 1/2	1.92 3/4	1.91 3/4	1.91 3/4
May	1.97 1/2	1.97 3/4	1.96 3/4	1.96 3/4

Wheat—Sentiment became very bearish this morning when Liverpool showed a decline of one to one and a half pence and cables reported no evidence of any improvement in the demand. The strength in the local cash market due to a demand for millers and exporters was not accepted by the trade as a permanent factor. There was nothing in the way of news to suggest any change in the railroad situation, and the idea is now prevalent that the difficulties will gradually disappear. With improved facilities there will undoubtedly be an influx of grain from all directions, and as far as the market is concerned it is only a matter of whether or not this situation has been discounted in the recent decline. At any rate any change in the general condition must necessarily be for the better and we do not see where much advantage can accrue to sellers at the present prices, when the known factors are all bearish.

Working in relays, miners had cut their way this morning through four hundred feet of earth to rescue the entombed miners in the Argonaut gold mine. They are working in from the adjacent Kennedy mine. Three hundred feet remain fifty feet of solid granite needs blasting. They will probably reach the entombed miners Thursday morning.

Miners said today the first intimation they had of the fire in the Argonaut mine was when thousands of rats scrambled to the surface from vent holes and other openings Sunday night. A few minutes later the only three men to escape entombment reached the shaft's mouth. Other miners, on the lower levels, were unable to escape as fast as the rats, which ran before the waves of poison gases. Miners are superstitious about working in mines with no rats, maintaining that without rats a mine is unsafe. Many of the Argonaut rats are quite tame.

TICKETS FOR DANCE GO RAPIDLY, COWGIRLS SAY

Between 250 and 300 tickets for the dance and housewarming to be given at Happy Canyon Friday night September 1, when the Round-Up season will be formally launched, were sold up until 2 o'clock this afternoon by the squadron of cowgirls who invaded town this morning. Captain Mildred Rogers was in command of the squadron of pretty girls who were dressed in cowgirl costume. There was only one hitch in the program as outlined yesterday. Instead of coming into town on tough horses, the girls used gasoline steeds, but they worked the town thoroughly.

Those in the party who sold tickets are Mildred Rogers, Marjorie and Alberta McMonies, Marjorie Ireland, Ruth Snow, Rose Mathews, Blanche Isaac, Isabelle and Marian Ross, Marjorie Smith and Freda Green. Miss Mathews held the high credit for sales at 2 o'clock when she had collected $49.

Business firms have purchased tickets liberally, the young women report. The canvass will continue all day.

RATS GAVE FIRST WARNING OF FIRE

HARRY WILLS KNOCKS OUT TUT JACKSON

EBBERT'S FIELD, Brookings, Aug. 30.—Harry Wills, colored challenger of Jack Dempsey, knocked out Tut Jackson of Ohio last night in the third round of a scheduled 15 round bout.

With a hard right to the jaw Wills flattened Jackson for the count after two minutes and 58 seconds of the 15th round.

Jackson, frightened pale when he entered the ring, did nothing but hold, and he failed to land a blow that changed the smile that Wills wore all during the bout.

Signs of what was to come were evidenced just toward the end of the first round. As the song was about to sound Jackson, in the orthodox fashion of diving, grabbed hold of his nose, and went to the floor for the count of six.

Jackson, however, in the second round, took some punishment. Wills landed hard lefts to the body and right to the jaw at will.

Wills entered the ring weighing 214 1/2 pounds, while Jackson weighed 185 1/2 pounds.

Jackson started to fade in the second round when Wills caught him with two terrific rights to the jaw. He crouched in abject terror for the remainder of the round and Wills landed almost at will.

Harder blows at the beginning of the third round so weakened the swarthy challenger that he caved in at the beginning of the round. He tried to hang on, but Wills beat his arms down and dropped him to the floor. Jackson lay quivering while the referee counted him out.

Wills did most of his fighting at "nose range."

WHY ARE SOME WOMEN POPULAR?

happy, beloved and successful, while others drag out a negative existence of no use to themselves or anyone else? Except in a few cases the answer is to be found in a state of freedom from the troubles known as "femine." The well woman radiates cheerfulness and serenity, while the ailing one repels because of her lack of these qualities. It is not necessary, however, to harbor aches and pains and the "blues" that make one a detriment to society. The use of Lytho-K. Pibkham's Vegetable Compound has brought relief to such women, and given them a new lease on life.
