Insurance Company Sucs
The claim that William Ross Alexander secured a policy for $5,000 on his life by making fraudulent statements concerning his health is made by the Atlantic Life Insurance Co. in ourt by the insurance company court by the insurance com against Alexander and his wife, Alexander, the beneficiary of the insurance. The statement is made by the plaintiff corporation in the complaint that Alexander was afflicted with epliepsy at the time of taking the policy when he resided in an Eastern state. The family has since moved to Milton, Oregon, it is stated, and recently the defensant made application for the benefits of his insurance on the grounds that he was totally disabled. The company offers to settle by paying the premiums with interest and asks that the court annul the policy and restrain either of the defendants from making any claim for benefits. Peterson, Bishop and Clark represent the plaintiff corporation.

HAIG ELECTED DIRECTOR

LONDON, Sept. 5 .- (A. P.) -Field-Marshal Earl Halg has been elected a director of the Distillers Company at the annual meeting held in Edinburg. The chief product of the company is whiskey. There are some people who thing it rather detracts from the Field Marshal's dignity and reputation to be interested in a business of that sort but their disapproval is hardly as vocal as it would be in America Haigs have long been financially in-terested in whiskey.
