GREEKS HIGHLY INDIGNANT OVER LOSS OF THRACE

Signing of Protocol Expected Momentarily at Mudania Near East Conference.

ALLIES WILL CONTROL THRACE DURING CHANGE

Premier Venizelos Received 'Luke Warm' Reception at British Foreign Office.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 5.—(U. P.)—The Mudania peace conference has apparently achieved success in solving the near east problems, and official announcement is expected here momentarily of the protocol signing ending eastern Thrace to the Turks coincidentally with their withdrawal from the straits neutral zone, with the way opened for future conference to effect a permanent peace, and avert a holy war. The allies will control Thrace until the Turkish government has a sound administration. The Greeks appeared opposing the Thrace question.

Crowd Recruiting Offices, ATHENS, Oct. 5.—(U. P.)—The Greeks flourished the war torch today as volunteers of all ages and classes crowded the recruiting offices answering the call to arms to retain Thrace for Greeks. The populace is highly indignant over the Mudania report that Thrace is to be returned to Turkey. Reports here that Turkish cavalry have entered Kadra, near Ismid, threatening Constantinople, served to heighten the fever of excitement.

Received Report, LONDON, Oct. 5.—(U. P.)—The British cabinet met awaiting General Harrington's report on Mudania. They denied the report that the British had agreed to evacuate Chank.

Officials reported an important dispatch from General Harrington received at five o'clock. The cabinet is in session to discuss it. Former Premier Venizelos of Greece called at the foreign office this morning and expressed his opinion that Greece be permitted to retain eastern Thrace. His reception was reported as "lukewarm." He was unable to see Lord Curzon.

Plague Hits Constantinople, CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 5.—(U. P.)—A plague is ravaging Constantinople. Four are already dead.

CURFEW RINGS TONIGHT AND CHILDREN UNDER 16 MUST BE HOME—COUNCIL

Curfew rings tonight at 9 o'clock in Pendleton and will be it to any youngsters under 16 years of age who are caught on the streets unless they are accompanied by their parents or guardian. The police were instructed to see to it that the curfew ordinance is enforced to the letter. Mayor Hartman brought the matter to the council's attention. He declared that he had noticed many children on the streets, and that many of the boys were smoking. Councilman Richard Lawrence also called the attention of the council to alleged disorderly conduct on the part of young men who are said to scuffle on the sidewalks to the inconvenience of women and other pedestrians. That these same young men constantly resort to profanity, notwithstanding their language is an insult to women, was another charge made by Councilman Lawrence. The matter was referred to the police committee with instructions that arrests be made.

'MONKEY GLANDS' GAVE MAN NEW HEAD OF HAIR

PARIS, Oct. 5.—(U. P.)—Dr. Sava Voronoff today presented two aged men before a gathering of scientists to prove the lasting effects of "monkey gland" operations. Dr. Voronoff said he had kept the operations secret because he wanted to ascertain to his own satisfaction if the cure was permanent. After two years study of the cases from the operation and grafting, Dr. Voronoff pronounced himself satisfied and offered his discovery to humanity. In the two years since his operation, Arthur Lardet, seventy six, of London, has grown an entire new head of hair, and has been youthfully active, he told scientists.

FRED BLAKE PREVENTED FROM SAWING WAY TO FREEDOM BY PROEBSTEL

Deputy County Clerk Hears Noise Made by Saw and Prevents Man Getting Away

Another argument for a new county jail for Umatilla county was presented last night. The man making the "argument" was Fred Blake, held by the authorities here on a charge of being one of the four men who held up and robbed men in the Horon road camp last spring. By using an improvised saw, Blake came very nearly winning his freedom from the jail by sawing through the ceiling of the jail and the floor of the court room.

The studious habit of C. C. Proebstel, deputy county clerk, proved a stumbling block to Blake's effort to win his way to freedom, because it was Proebstel who heard Blake sawing and turned in the alarm that finally resulted in discovery being made. Proebstel returned to the clerk's office after working hours last night to study.

He had not gone far in his reading until he was disturbed by an unusual noise. At first he paid little attention to the racket, but after a while, he reached the decision that someone in the jail was using a saw. Suspecting that a jail delivery might be under way, he reported to the sheriff's office, but there was no one present who could go into the jail. Proebstel returned to his studies, but he was not satisfied, and when the noise continued, he persisted in his visits to the sheriff's office until an examination was made.

Blake was coming down the ladder on which he had been standing to see the boards that barred the way to freedom when Deputy Sheriff Dave Layton made an inspection of the jail. He had used an ordinary saw knife which had been notched for his sawing work. The saw had sufficient "set" to enable the operator to make some headway, and if Proebstel had not been irritated by the noise made, Blake might have won his way to freedom. The belief is expressed by members of the sheriff's force that outside aid was rendered Blake and that the knife was already notched and made into a saw before it ever reached the hands of the prisoner. Blake had sawed through three boards in the floor of the court room when he was discovered.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 5.—(U. P.)—Because while gathering evergreens to decorate the house for their wedding, Miss Effie Newworth and H. W. Martin and their guests all took poison oak, and despite the swollen condition of their eyes and hands, were married beneath a great poison green bell. A bottle of lotion was given to the guests as wedding supper favors.

FOUNDER OF PENNEY STORES VISITS PENDLETON

J. C. Penney, founder and chairman of the board of directors of the chain store organization that bears his name and J. M. McDonald, merchandise manager, a former Pendletonian were visitors at the local store yesterday.

This was Mr. Penney's first visit to the Pendleton store since it was remodelled about three years ago. With 271 stores it is now a physical impossibility for him to visit them as frequently as was his custom before the company felt the twinge of growing pains.

Mr. Penney is still a comparatively young man, and to the close observer still retains all the vigor and keenness of vision that must have characterized the man who pioneered the cash store policy 25 years ago, down in the little mining town of Kemmerer, Wyoming.

The improvements in the Pendleton store made an impression on Mr. Penney as well as Mr. McDonald who was at one time a salesman here.

FLYERS ATTEMPTING TO BREAK RECORD

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Oct. 5.—(U. P.)—Prevented by fog from crossing the mountains on their transcontinental flight scheduled today, Lieutenants Kelly and McCready returned here this morning. They dropped a note that they would postpone the flight but would stay aloft in an attempt to break the world's airplane endurance record. After dropping the note the plane disappeared in the northern fog, accompanied by a second plane.

NEW ROAD UP TUSTIN HILL HELD UP AFTER E. L. SMITH OPPOSES

Other Improvements Considered by Council; License Revoking Case Continued.

Consideration was given to various paving problems, complaints were heard, a hearing held on an alleged overcharge case by the St. Elmo rooming house during the Round-Up and other cases were handled in detail by the city council in an extended session of that body last night at city hall.

The proposal to make a hard surfaced road up the Tustin street hill was considered pro and con last night. A delegation of several residents was before the council, L. J. McAtee being in favor of the improvement, and E. L. Smith opposed. Only recently Mr. Smith spent $500 in erecting a street to give him a satisfactory outlet from his property, and he declared that he was opposed to being assessed for Tustin street hill now.

"I have been working for 22 years to get that hill fixed," Mr. Smith declared smilingly. "Now after I have spent money to improve another hill this proposition is bronched whereby I would be assessed about $1,600 for the Tustin street hill. I oppose the move."

The matter was held over. Due to the fact that the approving of the road up the hill is an expensive bit of work the assessments for it were given out equally over the property to the west of the hill which would benefit some by the improvement.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Romeroville appeared before the council to show cause why the license of the St. Elmo rooming house should not be revoked. After being quizzed by the city attorney and members of the council, the fact was established that the rate charged for rooms during the Round-Up was slightly above the Round-Up scale of prices. The quiz lasted for more than half an hour.

The council went into executive session to determine its course of action also in reporting on the case information of the Romerovilles that the council considered that the issue of prices was not fairly met by the St. Elmo during the Round-Up.

"The case will be continued," the manager of the house was informed. "Your license will not be revoked at this time, but you will understand that any breach of the ordinance covering the management of rooming houses made by your house will automatically empower the council to revoke your license without any further notice to you."

Stores have been asked to decorate their windows in such a way as to illustrate various phases of better homes. Ministers will speak on the subject of better homes at their services October 8. High school students are to write themes on the subject and Miss Kathleen Fresse, art instructor, is planning special work on this line for the week. The Home and Exchange clubs will be asked to observe the idea at their meetings.

LONDON, Oct. 5.—"What should they know of London, who only London know?"

"Kipling's famous line needs altering," says the Daily Express. "There is only one person who knows his London. He is the American tourist." The Express sent a reporter, who had lived all his life in London, out with a group of American tourists and the reporter came back full of information about his home town that he had acquired from the tourists.

SECOND GAME OF SERIES CALLED AT END OF 10TH

Giants Scored Three in First on Two Singles and Home Run by E. Meusel.

YANKEES EVENED COUNT IN EIGHTH INNING

Ward Knocked Homer in 4th for Yankees' Second Score of Game; Pitchers Wobbly.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—(U. P.)—The Giants got away to a fast start here today, and on a single by Groh, single by Frisch and a home run by E. Meusel, shaved three runs across the plate in the first inning. Meusel's ball hard hit, went into the middle tier of the left field bleachers. The Yanks got one in the first when Dugan was safe on Groh's wild throw, advanced to third on a bad throw and Ruth's sacrifice, and scoring when Pipp singled to right. The Yanks scored again in the fourth when Ward with none on knocked a homer over the left field fence. Both Barnes and Shawkey were pitching wobbly ball, with Barnes showing the better form because of the comfort derived from a one run margin. Both teams played airtight ball behind the hurlers. The Yanks scored again in the eighth, tying the score, when Ruth doubled off the right field fence on the second ball pitched and took third on Pipp's fly to Cunningham and scored when Meusel doubled to left. It was a great inning and both teams tried valiantly in the ninth and tenth to break the tie, but without success.

Play By Play Report, POLO GROUNDS, New York, Oct. 5.—(A. P.)—The second game of the world series resulted in a tie final score being Yanks 3 runs, eight hits, one error. Giants three runs, eight hits, one error. The game was called at the end of the tenth inning on account of darkness.

Batteries today, J. Barnes and Snyder for Giants. Shawkey and Schang for Yankees.

First Inning, Giants—Sam Jones and Carl Mays went down into the bull pen to get into condition in case they should be called upon. Bancroft up. Ward tossed out Bancroft going far to his left to get a mean bouncer. Groh singled over second. Frisch got a Texas leaguer into left. Scott could not quite reach it. Groh went to second. E. Meusel got a home run scoring Groh and Frisch ahead of him. Young flied out to Witt. Kelly fouled out to Schang. Three runs, 2 hits, no errors.
