

THE "BETTER HOMES" WEEK

Announcing the inauguration of a nation-wide campaign conducted in co-operation with national and state officials.

October Ninth to Fourteenth will be Better Home Week for all America.

We spend too much time in longing for the things that are far off and too little in the enjoyment of the things that are near at hand. We live too much in dreams and too little in realities. We cherish too many impossible projects of setting worlds in order which are bound to fail. We consider too little plans of putting our own households in order which might easily be made to succeed. A large part of our seeming ills would be dispelled if we could but turn from the visionary to the practical. We need the influence of vision, we need the inspiring power of ideals, but all these are worthless unless they can be translated into positive actions.

The world has been through a great spiritual and moral awakening in these last few years. There are those who fear that this may all be dissipated. It will be unless it can be turned into something real. In our own country conditions have developed which make this more than ever easy of accomplishment. It ought to be extended not merely in official and public deeds, but in personal and private actions. It must come through a realization that the great things of life are not reserved for the enjoyment of a few, but are within the reach of all.

This big store will aid in a material way to the end that the goal of "the better home" may be reached. Offering its fine wear for the better home—offering the longed-for things that are within reach of all.

We Are a Nation of Home Owners
AND WE MUST NOW STRIVE TO BE "BETTER HOME" OWNERS.

Here's Mrs. Babe Ruth and Mr. and Mrs. Luth's babe. The Ruths have been fond parents for 16 months and the secret is just out. The name of the sweet king's youngster is Dorothy.

Says It Made a New Person Of Her

Thousands of people needlessly endure a half-sick, nervous, run-down condition when they might enjoy sturdy, robust health and all its manifold blessings if they only know what to do. People in this condition find Tania soon ends their trouble and builds up abundant strength, energy and vitality. Mrs. Bertha Hayde, 4717 N. Washington St., Spokane, Wash., says:

"My whole system was badly run down. I had no appetite, was very nervous, suffered from severe headaches and had rheumatism all over my body. The results I got from Tania were surprising. Why, I haven't an ache or pain of any kind now, and I'm enjoying the very best of health."

Nervousness and a run-down, tired-out feeling are but symptoms of a hidden cause, which usually lies in the stomach. Tania enables you to digest your food properly, eliminate waste and helps you retain your old-time strength and vigor. Get a bottle today at any good drugist.

WORLD'S LONGEST LOST SHEEP FOUND DEAD

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 9.—The Grandfather sheep of the Rocky Mountains, known for his unusual size and unsuccessfully sought by big game hunters for many years, recently was overhauled by old age and laid down and died near a crevasse of Blackfoot Glacier in Glacier National Park. The carcass was found by an Indian guide and brought into Glacier Park Station, Mont. The head, now mounted, is a rare specimen, having probably the largest horns on record. The widest spread is 22 inches. All measurements exceed those of a head now on exhibition in Carnegie Museum, as shown by the following comparison:

Measurements (by inches) of head recently found:	Measurements of head in Carnegie Museum:
Down from base .....	14½
Total length (outside curve) .....	39½
Widest spread .....	21
Spread at lips .....	21
Measurements of head in Carnegie Museum:
Down from base .....	10½
Total length (outside curve) .....	34½
Widest spread .....	21
Spread at lips .....	17

The National Parks Bureau of the United States Government wants this "Big Horn" specimen placed on exhibition in the Smithsonian Institute.

This monster sheep was last seen alive five years ago on the western slope of the Rockies just outside the boundary of the park. Many big game hunter's tales of this huge ram were often laughed at as fabrication by other hunters who had not enjoyed the good fortune of seeing the animal.

The Blackfoot Indians always had a religious regard for the existence of this mammoth animal, and they never would try to kill it. They attached legends to the giant ram and contended in open mouthed awe that it was the original strayer from the Great Spirit's fold—the world's longest "lost sheep." Its death, from natural causes, is an omen the Indians now are pondering over with a great deal of seriousness. Unfortunately, the carcass was not in a state of preservation, otherwise the specimen would easily have been a hundred thousand-dollar freak for a circus side show.

CHARTER SPECIAL TRAINS FOR BIG PENDLETON GAME

(From Whitman College Pioneer)

Two special trains secured by the Walla Walla Commercial Club and the EIBS Club will carry Whitman supporters to Pendleton for the big Oregon game, Friday October 20, according to Graduate Manager Borleske who is a prominent member of those organizations.

The trains are for everyone but it is expected that the first special which will leave in the early forenoon will be largely composed of Commercial Club members and their friends. The club is planning to make a big day of it in the Round-Up city.

The second special will leave about 12:30 and it is this one that the college students will take and also many of the out of town boosters who can not arrive here sooner. The enthusiasm is very great and the local EIBS have set one thousand as the attendance goal from Walla Walla and the surrounding country. Reduced rates have been obtained and every effort is being put forth to secure a huge crowd. The game is called for two-thirty and the trains will return soon after its close.

This will be the first intercollegiate athletic contest ever held in the Oregon city. The Pendleton Commercial club has stirred up a great deal of interest in both their own community and in the surrounding district, and a large crowd is expected. The game is to be played in the Round-Up enclosure which is particularly adapted for that purpose.

HONOLULU TO GREET COMMERCIAL GROUP

HONOLULU, Oct. 9.—Honolulu is preparing for a big commercial congress to be held here this fall. Representatives from Chambers of Commerce and universities throughout the United States and all countries bordering on the Pacific are expected to attend. The purpose of the congress will be to foster commerce, friendship and better understanding on the Pacific. It is being sponsored by the Pan-Pacific Union, Alexander Hume Ford, secretary of the Pan-Pacific Union, has just returned from a 36,000-mile trip throughout the United States, where he has been promoting the Commercial Congress. He leaves for Japan and China in several days to create interest there. Governor Wallace R. Farrington, of Hawaii, is behind the movement here. Several thousand delegates are expected to meet in Honolulu at the Commercial Congress.

Oil Bonds Show Strength on Market

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—(A. P.)—Conspicuous strength of oil company lines in reflection of higher stock prices was the salient characteristic of yesterday's dealings in bonds on the New York stock exchange. Sinclair Oil 7½s and Invenible Oil 8s each climbed two points on heavy sales and Pierce Oil 8s moved up 14.

Foreign bonds, which have been particularly susceptible to developments in the near east, were irregular. Queensland 6s, Selma 7s and Anton Jorgensen 6s being particularly heavy. Other changes were largely fractional.

Conflicting movements also took place in the rail list. Atchison convertible 4s of 1920 and Denver & Rio Grande refunding showing marked strength on gains of 2½ and 2 points, respectively. Chicago & Alton 5½s and Canadian Pacific is also made good progress, but a reactionary tendency developed in St. Paul general 4 1-8s and convertible 4½s, New Haven convertible 6s, Denver & Rio Grande consolidated 4s and Rio Grande & Western collateral 4s.

In addition to the strength of oil bonds, the features of the domestic list were gains of a point or more in Corrs de Passo 8s and General Electric 6s. Atlantic Fruit 7s sold off 13, and then rallied 2½ from the low. Other changes were unimportant, the market being much better, the gain ranging from 6 to 24 points, the first 4½s registering the largest advance. Victory issues receded slightly.

Total sales, par value, were $11,647,000.

The important offering today was a $12,500,000 bond issue of 6 per cent 40-year refunding and first mortgage gold bonds of the Milwaukee Electric Railway & Light company, which were sold at 92½ and interest to yield 5.5 per cent. The subscription books were closed before noon.

HINTS THAT RUSSIA SUPPLIES TURK AID

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Oct. 9.—"Because Turkey, without previously soiling her hands, started a war against a Greek army numbering over 200,000 many foreign statesmen are convinced she is getting financial support from some source, and Russia falls under suspicion of being the most likely source," declared Colonel James Edm. Rodgers, local business man, who has just returned from Europe, where he spent several months studying conditions there.

Colonel Rodgers, who for many years was attached to the United States Consular Service, asserted that Russia wants chaotic conditions to exist among the Balkan States in order that Bolshevism might spread. He said Bolshevism will be assisted through anything accomplished by Turkey along the line of disturbing the balance of power to the Allies in the Balkan territory.

"Beyond a doubt Russia is bending every effort to establish her policies," continued Colonel Rodgers. "The doctrine is taking root in German circles, as proved by the disclosures of the Rapallo treaty between Russia and Germany which broke up the Genoa conference."

"It has spread, also, to the Far East, with the result that trouble is

We Have Your Copy Of An Interesting Book On Internal Baths. It Is Free

Dr. Chas. A. Tyrrell always claimed his life was saved by Internal Bathing. And that after it made him well, it kept him 100% well and efficient for many years. This is not hard to believe when Physicians agree that most human ills are caused by accumulated waste in the lower intestine and no medicine has ever been found to keep it free from these poisons.

Dr. Tyrrell's book tells why and how this has been the means of freeing over a million of enlightened Americans, many right here in town, from "that tired feeling" as well as the more serious illnesses which follow if the pernicious poisons are not cleansed out.

Pure warm water scientifically administered, will take these poisons out and keep them out.
