

People Here and There

J. C. Kahns, accompanied by F. H. Brandage is making a tour of the Wallowa National Forest to check up on trail and bridge construction made during the past season.

R. A. Bettecher of the forest service, has gone to Ukiah where he will be for several weeks checking up on work done in that section of the Umatilla National Forest.

Tom Ordeman was popular with Happy Canyon crowds this year as one of the soloists for the show. He arrived in Pendleton Sunday evening to adjust some losses on automobiles. He is an adjuster.

Pete Sheridan, prominent farmer and stockman of Buttercreek, was here yesterday on a business visit.

A Umatilla county farmer who resides in Walla Walla is John Casper, who was a Pendleton visitor yesterday. Mr. Casper owns extensive farming interests.

One of the most active of the Umatilla county men who work to make the Round-Up a success is Will Switzer. He was here yesterday from his home at Umatilla.

Among Filipinos who served in the United States army during the war is Mark Flores, who was overseas with the American forces. He returned yesterday from Chicago where he has been in the employ of Mr. and Mrs. Dan P. Smythe.

Ten years ago E. E. Per Lee lived in Pendleton. He still knows a lot of people here and he was here today to renew old acquaintance. He is now with the R. M. Hollingshead Co. in Portland.

Carl Peringer, who has been in Portland for a short stay, is expected to return here tonight. He was in Portland for the annual club championship tournament of the Portland Golf Club.

James Maloney, in the banking business at Pendleton, is here to attend the Knights of Pythias gathering. He is a grandmaster of the exchequer, a position he has held down for about 15 years.—Morning Oregonian.

Delegates from the Presbytery of Pendleton, who left last night to attend the meeting of that body at Pendleton today and tomorrow included the Rev. G. L. Clark, the Rev. E. F. Harper of Albion and August Alexander, an elder of the Tutuilla church.

Albert Peterson and James T. Huston of Ukiah, arrived in Pendleton Monday evening. They transacted business here this morning and went to Pilot Rock for the big road meeting that is being held there this afternoon.

Jim Kyle, prominent west end resident, is a visitor here today from Starfield. Mr. Kyle has for many years been prominent in irrigation work and was recently elected president of the Oregon Irrigation Congress, at its meeting in Bend.

Pendleton has one of the oldest Knights of Pythias lodges in Oregon. James Gwinn, who is a supreme representative to the grand lodge, is here for the gathering. Mr. Gwinn was a candidate in the republican primaries for the nomination of representative of the second congressional district against N. J. Sennott, incumbent.—Morning Oregonian.

J. W. Maloney, president of the Inland Empire bank of Pendleton, could not lay aside financial cares even when he came to Portland as a delegate to the state convention of the Knights of Pythias, which convenes today. Judge Maloney, one of the most prominent and popular of eastern Oregon financiers, is also grand treasurer of the Pythians for Oregon.—Oregonian.

Fresh laurels for the brow of pretty Mabel DeLong Strickland were won at the recent Wild West show at Rivoli. The clever rider who won the Hotel McAlpin trophy for the best all round cowgirl of 1922, won honors in the calf roping at the Washington show. Incidentally her husband, Hugo, one of the winners of the Police Gazette Belt here this year, won in the steer roping and the bucking. Mr. and Mrs. Strickland are en route to Idaho to visit relatives before going to New York for the show there. Mabel will be extensively entertained as a guest of the hotel.

"Do we want a north and south highway from Pendleton connecting Umatilla county and Grant county? I'll say we do." That is the chorus in which residents of Grant county unite in singing. A number of prominent people from that section of the county were here today. Later they went to Pilot Rock to participate in the meeting there this afternoon for the purpose of organizing a road association. Among those who were here were J. T. Johnson, Range; Theodor Miller, Ritter; Mrs. Mary M. Davis, Ritter, and Paul Groupp, mill owner of Ritter.

C. E. Jefferson, golf professional, recently in a game with two Portland players on the local links, finished with a score of 23, just one stroke over his best score for the nine holes of the Pendleton course. He made the first, second, fourth and fifth holes in three, the third, seventh, eighth and ninth in four and the sixth in five.

Pendleton News Notes

May Buy One Box Seat.
It will be possible for anyone who wishes to buy one box seat for the Oregon-Whitman game to do so. Many people are under the impression that it is necessary to buy all the seats in a box. This is erroneous as single seats will be sold as well as a larger number of box seats. Boxes contain from six to eight seats.

Dies at Portland.
News has been received in Pendleton of the death of Mary Bridget Ryan at her home in Portland yesterday. She was a sister of Miss Margaret Ryan of Pendleton, and Mike Ryan, a resident of Umatilla. Mrs. Joseph P. Murphy of Pendleton is an aunt of the deceased. Her funeral services will be held in Walla Walla tomorrow and interment will be made in the family lot there.

Cranston Files Petitions.
The petitions and acceptance of C. K. Cranston for the nomination of county treasurer of Umatilla county as an independent, were filed with County Clerk R. T. Brown yesterday afternoon. The filing of Mr. Cranston insures a contest for this office. He was appointed by the county court to succeed Grace A. Gilliam when she resigned to go to California and has served since that time. He was Miss Gilliam's deputy. H. H. De Hart won the republican nomination for the office in the primary last May, and he was also nominated by the democrats.

Would Play Golf Here.
C. E. Jefferson, professional in charge of the Pendleton golf club, has received from H. B. Martin, golf editor of the New York Globe, an offer for the appearance of Walter Hagen, the only American born golfer who ever won the British championship, and Joe Kirkwood, star Australian golfer on the local links, who would play two local players. The cost of their appearance would be $500 and the matter is now before the local club. The visit here would be a part of the western golf tour of the two. In other cities the money has been raised by popular subscription or by charging an admission fee.

They'll Have Pheasants
Tidings were spread abroad today by A. C. McIntyre of Helix that the Helix Commercial club will entertain the Umatilla County Sunday School convention at a pheasant feed Friday night, October 20. If the supply of pheasants holds out it is the intention of the club to put on a banquet a little later for the club members and friends. This announcement was made in the office of the county court this morning and Commissioner G. L. Dinning immediately began putting out feelers to see if he would be included in the list of those invited. He was closely followed by County Judge T. M. Schanep, and Commissioner R. E. Bean also indicated that he would try to have the night of the banquet free so that he might be among those present.

Shortly after leaving Newport a few days ago Joseph Patterson was treed by a huge bear with two small cubs. He killed the mother with a well directed shot, making the eighteenth bear killed within seven miles of Newport within the last two weeks.

rudity. Their appearance is ludicrous and their antics cause hilarious laughter, which is the predominating feature of the act. They are also masters of acrobatic stunts which are done in a manner that shows their ability as gymnasts supreme and their droll comic situations make a decided hit. Brown & Wheeler come in for their share of the comedy in "Fresh Paint," a vehicle which has for its foundation nothing but fun in inter-posed with song hits and several good dancing numbers where their terpsichorean efforts are shown to good advantage. Benton & Clarke, known as the "Fashion Plate Pair" are a duo of musical comedy artists who have succeeded beyond a doubt in convincing patrons of vaudeville that they are entertainers of ability and class. Babe Earle, nicknamed Billy which she likes to be called on account of her rollicking disposition and mannerisms in the girl with quick feet, showing many styles of classical and eccentric dancing with a song and two making her act a lively and attractive one.

A TERRIBLE TIME

YOU KNOW YOU NEED ICE IN JULY AND AUGUST —BUT

During Fall days you feel less need if ice; the food keeps better. To be sure, the weather is cool; but there are many warm days in October and even November, warm enough to spoil your food. Food suffers in variable temperatures. It does not spoil so rapidly in October as it does in July, but it deteriorates, loses its freshness and flavor. The experienced housewife takes ice now to preserve the appetizing quality of her food. She knows how little it costs—a mere fraction of her summer ice bill.

YOUR KIDNEYS
Your Good Health and Long Life Depend on Your Kidneys. That's Why Insurance Companies Always Insist on Urinalysis.

Beaverton, Oregon—"I take great pleasure in stating that Dr. Pierce's Anuric Tablets have done for me in a very severe case of bladder and kidney trouble. For ten years I was distressed about every thirty minutes. I doctored and doctored but no relief. My last doctor bill was $175.00, and I was no better. I went back to my old home and my folks wanted me to give Dr. Pierce's Anuric Tablets a trial so I did and I also took the Golden Medical Discovery" with them to work on my liver. Now I can walk, ride, go to town and go for five or six hours without being distressed. I can not praise the Anuric Tablets too much for they are wonderful for the kidneys." Mrs. Caroline Boles, Box 363, Write Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y., for free advice. Send 10c for trial pkg. Anuric.
