

People Here and There

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Spencer of Nolla were visitors in Pendleton yesterday.

There is some wheat land near Genesee, Idaho, a short distance from Lewiston, which is a mighty fine producing area, according to J. De Wilde who recently returned from there where he appraised some land. That section had a good rain last Friday night, and the wheat crop looks very promising, Mr. De Wilde says.

Home demonstration work in the state of Oregon is under the direction of Mrs. Jessie D. McComb, who has under her direction all the county agents in the state. She is here today on a business visit.

"The Oregon team showed a marked improvement in the Oregon-Idaho game," says J. A. Murray, who returned today from Portland. "Their playing on Saturday was vastly better than that in the Oregon-Whitman game. There is evidence that Oregon's team is gaining in strength."

After an absence of six and a half years, Ernest Knight has returned to Pendleton from Alberta, Canada. Mr. Knight has disposed of his interests in Canada and expects to be here for some time. Mr. Knight says that Canadian crop conditions are fair. He is a brother of Al Knight and a son of G. W. Knight.

Fred L. Gifford of Portland is a Pendleton visitor.

John Johnson of Thornhill was a visitor here today.

Guy French was here today from his home near Pilot Rock.

J. B. McCook went to Portland yesterday on a business mission.

Dan Boyd, Enterprise lawyer who is in the city today, was a presidential elector in the last election. Mr. Boyd is here on business.

Ducks are being hunted today near Hermiston by Brook Dickson, Sol Baum and Harry Kneec. The trio left early this morning.

John McCourt, Justice of the supreme court, once claimed Pendleton as his home. He was at one time Judge G. W. Phelps law partner. Later he practiced in Portland. Judge McCourt is here for the supreme court sessions.

James Mossie, president of the Junction Miller Trail association, returned to his home at Ukiah today after spending several days here in conference with local road boosters to get action started to realize the building of the road south through Grant and Harney counties.

Lawyers who are here for the supreme court sessions include William E. Lees, Flegel & Smith, J. W. Reynolds, W. W. Wood, Davis & Keeler, W. H. Brooke, P. J. Gallagher, Sam Van Vactor, R. R. Butler, Woodson & Sweek, Cochran & Eberhard, J. D. Slater, McCulloch & McCulloch, J. B. Messick, W. H. Packwood, Crawford & Eakin, R. J. Green, Ed Wright, E. R. Bingo, John S. Hodgin, Errett Hicks, A. M. Crawford, J. P. Winter, C. S. Patterson, Nichols & Hallock, Gus Moser, Dan Boyd, A. S. onley, J. A. Burleigh, T. A. Winkie, Homer Angell, D. N. MacKay, George R. Reid, C. H. Winders, L. B. DuPonte, C. A. Murray, Griffith, Leiter & Allen, C. H. Finn, F. A. McMonamin, and I. N. Van Winkle, attorney general.

COMMITTEE MAKES PLANS FOR ARMISTICE DAY HERE

Preliminary plans for the celebration of Armistice Day in Pendleton were drawn yesterday afternoon by the committee for the Pendleton Commercial association in a meeting held at the offices of the organization.

An effort to secure Bishop Remington, newly appointed bishop of this diocese, to make the chief address of the day will be made by the committee. Other plans call for a football game in the afternoon at Round-Up park with a community dance at Happy Canyon in the evening.

A conference with the members of the executive committee of the local legion post will be held before any further action in regard to other features of the program are definitely arranged.

WHEAT PRICES ARE LOWER AT CHICAGO

Wheat prices are lower today. December grain closing at $1.14, May at $1.12 1-8 and July at $1.01. Yesterday's closings were $1.15, $1.13 1-8 and $1.05 3-8.

Following are the quotations received by Overbeck & Cooke, local brokers:

	Open	High	Low	Close
Dec.	$1.14	$1.14	$1.13 3/4	$1.14
May	1.12	1.12	1.12 1/2	1.12 1/2
July	1.04 1/4	1.04 1/4	1.04	1.04

UMATILLA RED CROSS

In 113 cases cooperation with relatives kept them from becoming charity charges; hospital, medical, and dental care was arranged for in 101 cases; clothing was provided for 33; milk given to 15 children; and valuable information looked up for 65 people.

During 1922, 808 cases dealing with soldier needs were handled. The disabled soldier found the Red Cross one agency which was always interested in him. Adjustments of various kinds were made for 266 of these men; $27,000 in back compensation was secured for them; a monthly compensation of $2870 is being received by these ex-soldiers through the efforts of the Umatilla County ex-service men receiving Federal Board training in the state technical and trade schools and getting a total of $1750 monthly.

Able bodied ex-service men have been served also. The Umatilla County Chapter was instrumental in reinstating $48,000 of war risk insurance for these men. In back pay, travel pay, and the like $2260 was secured for them; employment found for 53; 59 victory medals or buttons applied for; transportation given to 15; and institutional care to 15. Besides the Umatilla County Red Cross has helped 317 ex-soldiers secure the state bonus or loan, and in 49 of these cases has been able to get certificates in lieu, replacing lost army discharges, without which these men could not have received any money.

Thus, not counting all the benefits from employment secured, medical care given, food and clothing provided, and the many other items, the Umatilla County Chapter of the American Red Cross was instrumental in securing over $80,000 in actual cash for county ex-service men, which otherwise would have been lost to them. Also, nearly a half of a million dollars, will come into the county through the aid that the Red Cross has given in helping with the bonus and loan papers.

YOUNG MOTHER NOW STRONG

Her Mother's Faith in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Led Her To Try It

Kenosha, Wisconsin.—"I cannot say enough in praise of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. My mother had great faith in it as she had taken so much of it and when I had trouble after my baby was born she gave it to me. It helped me so much more than anything else had done that I advise all women with female trouble to give it a fair trial and I am sure they will feel as I do about it.—Mrs. FRED, P. HANSEN, 562 Symmonds St., Kenosha, Wisconsin.

A medicine that has been in use nearly fifty years and that receives the praise and commendation of mothers and grandmothers is worth your consideration.

If you are suffering from troubles that sometimes follow child-birth bear in mind that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a woman's medicine. It is especially adapted to correct such troubles.

The letters we publish ought to convince you; ask some of your women friends or neighbors—they know its worth. You will, too, if you give it a fair trial.

has a pleasing baritone voice and the female is a clever mimic and pantomimist which makes a strong and entertaining opener for this varied bill.

RIVOLI TODAY

Empires may come and empires may go, but the flapper flaps on forever.

That may be an inexcusable adaptation of some wise and honored brocade, but it serves the purpose. It explains the growing popularity of Gladys Walton as the flapper impersonator of the screen.

The world loves the flapper and couldn't get along without the dear creature. She may be a post but she is a welcome one. And to the star who successfully portrays her on the screen is bound to come rich reward in the love and admiration of playgoers.

Gladys Walton's latest "flapperization" comes to the Rivoli theatre today. It is called "The Wise Kid." Needless to say, "The Wise Kid" was not wise as the start. But she was clever enough to pretend it. And it is said the story offers some situations that scintillate with wit and humor, depicting mer mental growth from flapper to full grown woman.
