

People Here and There

J. R. Flynn, of Walla Walla, is here today. Mr. Flynn represents the Blake-McFall Co.

John S. Hodgen, prosecuting attorney, of Union county, is here.

Kim and Jim Morton left for Edwall, Wash., this morning where they were called to the bedside of their sister Mrs. Robert Nahn who is critically ill.

H. C. Seymore, state club leader, is here for institute. The work of boys' and girls' clubs in this state is closely identified with school work and he will address the teachers.

Harry Meyer, formerly with Studebaker Brothers, is now in the brokerage business. He is a visitor here today. Friends of Mr. Meyer will be glad to know that he has recovered after a recent operation.

Sid Williams, former twirler for the Pendletonian Buckaroos, now with the Union Oil Co. at Portland, is here for a vacation of two weeks. He is a guest of relatives and friends.

Among visitors at the Teachers' Institute is Frank Shepherd, director of vocational rehabilitation, of the State Industrial Advisory commission. He is here to give talks at the institute. His work concerns ex-service men who were injured during the war.

Among women who have obtained honors in the teaching of science, once considered a field for which only men were eligible, is Dr. Ada Hall, professor of science at Whitman college. She will give an address on Friday.

Miss Evelyn Seaton, who sang in concert in Pendleton last night, is an enthusiastic sportswoman. "I love tennis, swimming and calling and like the game of baseball," she said. "There is in me little of what one expects of the temperament of the average operatic artist. I like to mix with the people of the world in general, and not merely with fellow artists." Miss Seaton's visit here is a part of her Western concert tour.

William Clarence Weir, president of Pacific University, is in his first year in that capacity at the college. He was formerly a member of the faculty of Washington State Normal. Mr. Weir addressed the teachers at institute this morning and this afternoon.

The University of Oregon has great hopes for its million dollar gift campaign, according to F. L. Stetson, professor of education at University of Oregon. Mr. Stetson, who is here for the teachers' institute, finds among the members of the high school faculty some of his former students at the University. Among them are Miss Laura Jerard and Miss Eva Hansen.

C. W. Paulus was here today from his home at Pilot Rock.

Roy V. White and P. F. Gorman, Heppner residents, are here today.

Russell Wilber is a live stock man near Dunsmuir. He visited Pendleton today on business.

G. M. Rice, president of the First National Bank, returned this morning after a few days, business visit in Portland.

E. E. Leslie, athletic coach of Milton high school, who is here for teachers' institute, was during college days at the University of Oregon, a star member of the football team. He was known to the fans as "Spike" Leslie.

One of Heppner's most prominent lawyers is Sam Van Vactor, who has been here for supreme court. In years gone by Mr. Van Vactor was district attorney of Umatilla and Morrow counties. He returned to Morrow county this morning.

Mrs. Edith G. Van Deusen, home demonstration agent, left today for Palo Alto, California, where she will visit her son, Ted Van Deusen. She will go from there to Columbia, Missouri, to become a member of the extension department of the University of Missouri.

R. R. Butler, lawyer of The Dalles, returned here today after arguing the case of the Okanogan State Bank of Riverside, Wash., before the supreme court. The bank is appellant in the case and M. Belle Thompson, et al are respondents. Mr. Butler was formerly circuit judge of Gilliam and Wheeler counties and at that time was the youngest circuit judge in the United States.

Last night was Halloween, and as a result of some pranks that were played, Dale Mercer is without two good suits of clothes and a new overcoat. He suspects a pair that go by the name of "Dutch" and "Pete," he states. "Pete" is a baseball player of some note in this district. The case has been turned over to the authorities, or at least, if it hasn't, it is likely to be, according to Dale.

A. I. Swaggart, Athena farmer who is spending the winter in Portland, was a Pendleton visitor today. His son, Wayne Swaggart, last year was winner of the boys' pig feeding contest with some pure bred Poland Chinas. He is entered again this year and will show at the Pacific Livestock Exposition. His pigs are in better condition this year than they were last year this time, according to Mr. Swaggart.

Twenty years of education work in Oregon is the record of J. S. Landers, president of the Oregon State Normal, who is here for teachers' institute. He was for nine years city school superintendent in Pendleton and has many friends here. He spent 11 years in the same capacity in The Dalles, and later was at the University of Colorado and University of Mexico. He returned from there to Oregon to take his present position. Mr. Landers states that the Normal school has doubled its attendance in the past two years. This year's enrollment is 536, or 50 per cent more than last year, while the 1921 enrollment was 50 per cent more than that of 1920.

SCOTNEY RECITAL PLEASED AUDIENCE

A voice of rare beauty, coupled with a lovely personal appearance and great charm of manner, marked the recital by Evelyn Scotney, famous Australian soprano, last evening at the Methodist church.

Miss Scotney proved herself a skilled vocalist. Her voice possesses a flute-like quality comparable to Galli-Curiel, and her notes show a great fidelity to tone. Her diction is excellent and she sings with expression.

Her first number, "O Mio Bambino Caro," she sang with tenderness and understanding. "Tarantella Napoletana" and "Polonaise" each were vivid with Miss Scotney's charming interpretation.

Six English numbers on the program proved Miss Scotney's versatility. She sang easily the dramatic "Trovatore," a musical version of Joyce Kilmer's popular poem, "I Passed by Your Window" was a most pleasing number with its soft melody, and "Fairy Tales" was given with whimsical sweetness. The fullness of her tones was apparent in "The Wind in the South Today," while "Scotch Pastorale" afforded her an opportunity for interpretation of moods. "The Night Wind," as sung by Miss Scotney, possessed an eerie and compelling quality. She responded most graciously with encores.

Maximilian Ross, violinist, is a master of technique and played with skill and perfection. His numbers were "Concerto in D Minor," "Le Concerto," "Ave Maria," "Introduction and Tarantelle," "The Lark," and "Hungarian Air."

Elvin Schmitt, youthful pianist, was a most able accompanist. A solo, "Hungarian Rhapsody No. 14," he played with wonderful touch and marked facility.

INDIAN FEUD RENEWED
BELLINGHAM, Wash., Nov. 1.—(U. P.)—Suffering from shotgun wounds, John Brown, Indian wife and fifteen year old daughter are in a local hospital, and Andrew Hallow, eighteen, Indian youth, is being held on a charge of attempted murder by the result of a renewal of the Indian feud on the reservation. The shots were fired through a window at the brown family.

Some Come-Down! Thin? Run-down? Sure Way to Get Right Weight

This man once was the most imposing dining-room car of all Germany, dressed in tappings more ornate than that of the famous Landsturm Guards. He has sunk to this—the new funeral make-up of the head waiter in Berlin's most fashionable dining room.

Increase Your Red-Blood-Cells. That's the Sure Way! S. S. S. Builds Blood-Cells; This Means Strength!
Do you know why insurance companies refuse to insure a great many lives because they are under weight? Simply because to be under weight often proves low fighting-power in the body. It often means you are minus nerve-power, minus red-cells in your blood, minus health, minus energy, minus vitality. It is serious to be minus, but the moment you increase the number of your red-blood-cells, you begin to become plus. That's why S. S. S., since 1875, has meant to thousands of underweight men and women, 2 plus in their strength. Hollow cheeks fill out. You stop being a clammy looker. You inspire confidence. Your body fills to the point of power, your flesh becomes firmer, the age lines that come from thinness disappear. You look younger, firmer, happier, and you feel it, too, all over your body. More red-blood-cells! S. S. S. will build them. Ladies and gentlemen, a peppy, bony face doesn't make you look very important or pretty, does it? Take S. S. S. It contains only pure vegetable medicinal ingredients. S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores in two sizes. The larger size bottle is the more economical.

APPLES FOR WINTER

Put away several boxes of delicious apples now for the winter months. We have many different kinds for you to choose from—all good keepers and the prices are very low.

Potatoes are cheap, fill your cellar.

Free from destructive Sulpho Compound

Cycol heads off trouble

Cycol Motor Oil withstands the terrific heat generated by your engine. It does not break down nor thin out rapidly. It maintains an unbroken lubricating film between moving parts. Thus it heads off many lubricating troubles.

That's because Cyclo is free from destructive "sulpho" compounds. They are removed by the new Hexeon process developed and used solely by us.

Flush your crankcase and refill with the correct grade of Cyclo.
