Budget Comes Up Soon
No work on the county budget will e done this week from present indicalions, according to County Judge I. M. Schannep. It is thought that the decks can be cleared for action by the middle of next week, and then the members of the county court and the appointed members of the committee will sit as a budget committee and go over the recommendations of the various departments of the county govern-ment. These various departments are busy now in arranging estimated needs for the coming year. The three appointive members of the committee are the same men who served last year, Carl McNaught of Hermiston, A C. McIntyre of Helix and James H. Sturgis of Pendleton.
