CLEMENCEAU COMES TO UNITED STATES TO FOSTER FRIENDSHIP

RAPIDS PROJECT GIVEN BIG AID BY CONVENTION

Outside Men Vie With Local Folk in Urging Project as First for Development. J. N. TEAL IS VALUABLE GENERAL FOR FUTURE Local Men Made no Effort to Capture Meeting and Expressed Broad Position.

As a result of the open river association meeting here yesterday the advocates of the Umatilla rapids project are highly enthused and they have reason to be. They did not try to capture the convention or any thing of the sort. In fact they endeavored to keep hands off the machinery. Pendleton people felt that being hosts they should not press the Umatilla rapids project unduly and speakers like Judge Phelps, Fred Stelzer and Judge Lowell, made it clear that local sentiment is broad and will be back of any other project should a more favorable one be found.

But the whole tenor of the convention, from J. N. Teal's address to the final adjournment, was highly favorable to the rapids project as the thing requiring immediate attention. The resolutions committee, headed by Marshall Dana of Portland, incorporated this idea in the resolutions adopted. Therefore the open river association is officially committed to the project and that action means much. It means that a very powerful interstate association, with money in the treasury, and with one of the big figures of the northwest, J. N. Teal, as leader is on the job. Mr. Teal is regarded as perhaps the most valuable ally the project has. He is a "stayer" in such work and he has a habit of putting things over.

Along with the Portland brigade at the meeting yesterday was Elton Watkins, congressman elect from Portland. Mr. Watkins heard all the talks and he declared himself emphatically as being the service of the association and ready to help wherever he can. Mr. Watkins is a live wire and it may be in the cards for him to play a considerable part towards Columbia river improvement in the future.

During the afternoon session yesterday most of the time was devoted to short talks by representatives from different towns of the inland empire. Among those who spoke were Bert Savage, representing the Lewiston Commercial club, Ben Hill, mayor of Walla Walla, who hit the bullhead in behalf of the Umatilla rapids project; W. A. Goodwin of Boardman who did likewise; Walter Meacham of Baker; A. R. Gardner, Kennebec; V. R. Cox, Pasco; William Warner, Alderdale, Wash.; Whitney L. Dole, Portland; Roger Pinner, traffic manager of the port of Astoria; Phillip H. Dater of the forestry service and D. C. Brownell of Umatilla. Mr. Brownell read a paper dealing in detail with the Umatilla rapids project. Mr. Dater who is an engineer, gave considerable information relating to the Snoo canal on which he had done engineering work in New York.

ONLY $808 SECURED BY PENDLETON IN RED CROSS ROLL CALL FIRST WEEK
That Pendleton will have to respond more rapidly in the days of the Red Cross roll call than remain between now and Thanksgiving than they have during the first week of the campaign if Pendleton is to raise its allotment, is the statement of L. C. Scharp, chairman of the city drive. A check on returns from six of the district captains which was made Friday at noon shows that subscriptions of a total of $808 have been made since the roll call started on Armistice Day. The goal for the whole county has been set at $600, one-half of which is expected to be raised in Pendleton, and the remaining $300 from the rest of the county. Following is the report made by six of the district captains: Clarence Penland, $65; Mrs. W. R. Wyrick, $40; Tom Murphy, $156; Lester Hamley, $100; T. H. Hampton, $137; Mrs. C. Cole, $24.

FEW CHANGES MADE IN BUDGET FOR 1923 TO RUN UMATILLA COUNTY

Expenses Estimated by Body May Run About $5,000 Less Than for '22, Report Shows
Approximately $5000 has been set from the expenses of running Umatilla county in the estimated budget which was recently passed by the budget committee under the figures of the budget for 1922, according to official figures quoted at the court house today. The total of the whole budget has not been tabulated, but there is comparatively little change from the budget adopted last year.

The request of the sheriff's office was cut $2000 by the committee. Many of the items are exactly the same as they were last year, others show slight increases, and some are lower. Following are the amounts asked for by the more important departments and what these departments received last year: County court, 1923 budget, $1,475, same as last year; circuit court, $1,000, no change; district attorney's office, $1,578, no change; justice of the peace court, $1,000, no change; juvenile court, $500, no change; sheriff's office, asked for $15,550, granted $12,250 for 1923, budget last year $12,250; county auditor, $1,000 for new budget, $8,342 last year; court house expenses, new budget, $2,827, last year $4,491; care of poor, new budget, $12,000, last year $12,012; watermaster's office, new budget $4625, last year $4950; county library, new budget $5,842, last year $5,254; county agent $4,000, no change; home demonstration agent, new budget $2,000, last year $2000; emergency fund, new budget $10,000, last year $5,000; county roads and bridges, new budget $20,183, last year $19,887; county clerk's office, $5,000, no change; recorder's office, new budget $1,993, last year $2,892; treasurer's office, new budget $2,200, last year $3,000; assessor's office, new budget, $8,778, last year $8,502; county superintendent of schools, $4,200, no change; market roads, new budget, $40,074, last year $39,925; to retire bonds $105,000, no change; interest on bonds $40,425, no change; interest on warrants, $4,900, no change; high school tuition fund, new budget $18,424, last year $17,486; county school fund, new budget $74,000 last year $75,000.

COMMISSION TO ASK FOR WORLD ECONOMIC MEET

Chairman Owens of International Trade Commission Promises to Ask for World Similar Conference Suggested by Wirth Inter-Allied Debts, German Reparations, International Tariff Some of Problems.

CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—(U. P.)—Charles Owens, chairman of the international trade commission, says his organization will present congress with a proposal and plan for calling a world economic conference. The proposal that such a conference be called by the United States recently was made in a United Press interview by Dr. Joseph Wirth, former German chancellor. The Owens' statement said the commission's recommendations are as follows: An international conference of bankers and governmental representatives to devise a scheme for a moratorium in payment of inter-allied debts and German reparations, plus a plan for amortization for payments of these obligations; an international tariff conference for a non-partisan revision of the tariff schedules to remove barriers to foreign commerce; amendment of United States laws to coordinate American government agencies at home and abroad as they relate to the foreign service of the country to avoid the duplication and economic loss of the present system of diplomatic, consular and other foreign United States representatives of foreign countries to be held periodically to adopt plans of action regarding the inter-European policy; change the administration program including the ship subsidy bill, railroad legislation and national forest control by the department of the interior.

FARM BLOC IS ORGANIZING FOR SUBSIDY SCRAP

Kansas Senator Announces Program of Constructive Legislation; Fight Subsidy. ASK COMPLETE RURAL CREDIT SYSTEM SOON La Follette Assumes Control of Senate Progressives; Aim to Foil Administration Plan.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—(A. P.)—A program of "constructive legislation" against the administration subsidy bill was announced today by Senator Charles McNary, Republican, from Kansas, chairman of the senate farm bloc. He declared that if the republican party is to continue in power it must furnish a constructive program including a complete rural credit system to provide farmers and stockmen with an adequate financial system, must reduce freight rates, must repeal the law giving the interstate commerce commission control over state rates, must carry out a policy for a better marketing system, must put the Muscle Shoals development in Henry Ford's hands, must make undistributed surpluses and stock dividends pay their share toward the maintenance of the government, and must pass a constitutional amendment prohibiting tax exempt securities.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—(U. P.)—Senator La Follette today assumed the senate progressive leadership. He called for a definite organization of the progressive group and announced that the group aimed to defeat the administration program including the ship subsidy bill, railroad legislation and national forest control by the department of the interior.

BENEFIT PERFORMANCE PROVES ENTERTAINING

The second annual Kermis given in Pendleton under the auspices of the Parish Home Guild was much enjoyed last night by the audience which saw the presentation at the Alta theatre. A very charming children's ballet opened the program. Lucille Beck representing the child who finds the rose in the wood. A graceful ballet of dancers in fairy costume was made up of Pauline Scott, Molly Laing, Betty Bond, Marjorie Moore, Florence Fletcher, Inez McClure, Elta Dale and Evelyn Dawson.

A Japanese romance was presented by Miss Jeanne Clark, Archibald Blakeley and Ralph McCullies. The cast presented the play most entertainingly, a feature being the effective stage setting. A chorus of attractive maids supported Miss Barbara Edmonds in the singing of "Alice Blue Gown" and Mrs. Roy Alexander in her solo "Southern Girls." All wore dainty gowns and danced clever steps.

MACSWINEY'S WIDOW STARTS ON HUNGER STRIKE FOR SISTER

Dublin, Nov. 18.—(U. P.)—Anne MacSwiney with her child fast her side, standing by Mount Joy prison, being a hunger strike which will continue until she sees her sister, Mary MacSwiney, who is held in jail and is on her fourteenth day of her hunger strike. The woman says they are under orders to allow no one to see Mary MacSwiney. The late Terence MacSwiney died himself by death two years ago in Dublin jail, London.

INSANE JEALOUSY IS HELD CAUSE DOUBLE MURDER AND SUICIDE

ABERDEEN, Nov. 18.—(U. P.)—Officials believed that insane jealousy caused the double murder of Miss Tansy Bolton, 25, and Mrs. G. T. O'Brien, 28, and their committal suicide in the cabin at Copalis beach, Ocean Point, 25 miles from here. Miss Bolton fought valiantly, escaping for a time her body being found, mutilated, on the beach. Mrs. O'Brien was found near her bed in the cabin, shot through the breast and with her body slashed. Anderson's body was found back of the cabin with his revolver in one hand, a knife in the other. The woman stayed in the cabin with John Oberer, 65, who was also cut in the neck. The coroner's jury today rendered a verdict that Helmar Anderson caused the deaths of Mrs. J. T. O'Brien and Miss Tansy Bolton by knife and gunshot wounds. The verdict was suicide in the case of Anderson's death. The verdict was rendered Friday night.

IDEALS OF PEACE MUST SUPPLANT WAR IS PLEA OF ORATOR

Canadian War Hero Tells Local People That Establishing of Peace is Vital Need. To supplant the present war-like spirit that exists in all countries in the world with a desire for peace that shall be exalted in the consciousness of people through as many mediums as possible, even as war has hitherto been exalted, is one of the chief problems of this present generation, according to the ideas expressed by the Rev. George Falls in a speech at the Methodist church last night on the subject, "International Good Will." The address was given under the auspices of the Pendleton Rotary club.

The experience of war gained by personal contact during the four years he served with the Canadians in France and Belgium, knowledge gained by world wide travel and a finished education contributed to the conclusions drawn by the speaker in his address. Now is the psychological time for the idea of peace to be put forward as a substitute for war, the speaker declared, because the hearts of all peoples have felt the cruelties of war and are responsive to efforts to get away from the sufferings entailed by it as the next generation can not be responsive.

Some of the problems that must be solved to realize this idea are to learn to submit to law in international affairs as we do in national affairs, to get away from the belief that a war-like spirit is commendable in a people, to learn how to oppose those interests that have billions of dollars of capital invested in armament manufacture, and to do away with the European theory that might is right.

The speaker advocated laws in every country that will make it impossible for private capital to be invested in armament manufacturing concerns. The lobby for these interests is conducted in every country in the world, he said, and is one of the most insidious forces against peace. The declaration that is often made by those who say that peace is an impossible thing because "human nature will be human nature" was scored by the Rev. Mr. Falls. "The sincere desire for world peace is 100 years old," he said. "Science tells us that 19,000,000 years were required for the making of sticks and clubs and pebbles. Peace will come through working on the consciousness of human souls, and human nature is more subject to improvement and change than any other force in the world. Universal peace is highly desirable by reason of the heavy losses entailed by war, the speaker said. These losses include economic waste, the death of the strong and the survival of the weak, and the destruction of works of priceless treasures of art and genius. War scarcely ever settles a quarrel, he said. The shifting of Alsace-Lorraine from Germany to France, from France to Germany and then again from Germany back to France is an example of the truth of this contention. When the United States started to build the Panama canal at a cost of $40,000,000 other nations said this feat could not be accomplished because of the expense, the speaker declared. Yet in one year, 1912, this

FRENCH 'TIGER' MET IN HARBOR BY DELEGATION

Former Minister and Poincare Bury Hatchet in Crisis and Decide to Stand Together. MISSION KEPT SECRET TILL FIRST TALK HERE Frenchman Tells Legion Welcome Committee Legion Members Ones That Count.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—(U. P.)—Georges Clemenceau, France's "Tiger," landed here today. National state and city officials, together with American Legion dignitaries boarded the liner down the bay and rode up with Clemenceau on Mayor Hylan's yacht "Macom." The Frenchman was glad to see America again. He thanked his welcome for invitations to visit the president and expressed a pleasurable anticipation for the white house visit. He told the American Legion members that the Legion members are the ones that count. His health is splendid. He parried the interviewer's questions but intimated that a special purpose brought him to America. He refused to reveal it, until he had made his first speech, next Tuesday night at the New York opera house.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—(U. P.)—Georges Clemenceau, France's famous "war premier," who arrived today, came to America as a result of a secret understanding with Premier Poincare to foster Franco-American relations for the ultimate salvation of France, is the information obtained by the International News Service from a high source. Clemenceau and Poincare have been bitter political enemies for years, but under the stress of an international crisis which threatens Europe they decided to get together and bury the hatchet for the good of their native country. Clemenceau naturally comes here as a private citizen. Ambassador Jaserand was the first to greet Clemenceau. Assistant Secretary of State Bliss represents America on the reception committee. The "Tiger" looks forward to meeting Woodrow Wilson. The Legion greets you as a person who exemplifies the spirit which inspired us to carry on the war.

FEDERAL GOVERNMENT IS ASKED TO PAY FOR ROAD

A request to the federal government that Umatilla county be reimbursed to the amount of approximately $112,000, which it is set forth has been paid out of county funds for the construction of the Old Oregon Trail through the Umatilla Indian reservation, has been forwarded to Congressman N. N. Sinnott by County Judge H. M. Schannepp.

MANY NEEDY CARED FOR BY THE RED X POST IN PENDLETON

From my experience with county affairs I find a varied class of unfortunate transient poor and afflicted persons, not entitled to county charity, whose wants are cared for by the Red Cross, therefore I endorse the work of the Red Cross and recommend that it be supported and continued. I. M. SCHANNAPP, County Judge.
