Fanning With Farrell

BY HENRY L. FARRELL,
(United Press Sports Editor)
NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—(U. P.)—Two of the greatest football events of the season come as rival attractions on tomorrow's schedule.
Yale and Harvard engage in their annual classic in the New Haven bowl and the championship of the United States service will be decided in the new Pennsylvania stadium between the Army and the Navy.
Competition between the two will be negligible from a business standpoint, as they each have enough of a personal following to twice fill any stadium in the country.
Yale and Harvard have had a long time claim on the last Saturday of November while the service academies usually battle a week later. The terrible weather that the Cadets and the Midshipmen drew in the past three years, however, caused the athletic officers of West Point and Annapolis to decide on an earlier date.

From a general standpoint, the Army-Navy conflict will be the game of the day and it should be a whale of a game.
The Cadets are represented by the best team of the last four years and the Midshipmen have come into the habit of developing great elevens since Bob Folwell took charge.
Both have wonderful playing lines and both have fine running and overhead attacks. In Smythe, the Army has found a long needed field general and in Shacyr Cullen, the Navy has developed a great kicker, something that the midshipmen have lacked for three years.
The two elevens look to be evenly matched and many of the critics are picking the Army to win. The cadets, however, to beat the Navy will have to show smarter football than they have displayed in several of the earlier games.
If it comes down to a case of brain-work, the Navy ought to win.
Harvard booted all chances for the "Big Three" title and exploded a lot of fine hopes when the Crimson was beaten and made to look very bad by Princeton. Up to that game, Harvard was generally considered by the critics as the most powerful team in the east. The defeat of the Crimson was not as much a surprise, as the manner in which it was brought about. Harvard made errors of fundamental football and mistakes in judgment that have never occurred since the Haughton system was installed.
Yale was slow in developing this year and was following obsolete football tactics until the Army held the Ella to a tie. Since then Yale has sprung up wonderfully and as a result, the New Haven eleven will be the favorite tomorrow.
It must be remembered, however, that Yale was a big favorite last year and yet lost the game because they played much like Harvard did against Princeton. It must be remembered also that Harvard will not make the mistake that caused the downfall in the Princeton game.
Regardless of all that has happened, it is our opinion that Harvard should win.
Cornell, Pennsylvania, Pittsburg, Penn State, Centre and Georgia Tech have Thanksgiving games and being into tomorrow, the schedule is rather light.
Lafayette and Lehigh will have their annual battle at Easton. Dartmouth and Brown meet at Providence and the Washington and Jefferson eleven goes west for a game with the University of Detroit.
The Western Conference will have a busy day with games between Illinois and Ohio State, Iowa and Northwestern, Chicago and Wisconsin and Michigan and Minnesota.

WESTERN GIRL TELLS OF SMYRNA TRAGEDY

BY WILLIAM G. CAYCE
(International News Service Staff Correspondent)
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 24.—Thrilling stories of experiences during a year's stay in famine-ridden Smyrna that read like pages from the history of the darkest ages were told by Miss Helen Craig, pretty Whittier girl and relief worker, following her return here recently.
Month after month, while terror played in the homes, a hurried rescue on a United States destroyer, while death-dealing attacks and massacres raged in Smyrna, a trip across Europe, the sight of the Statue of Liberty in New York Harbor, and home to sunny California—such is her story, stripped of its interesting sidelights.
Miss Craig said she had been in Smyrna but a short time when the recent outbreak came—the Turks' objected to the teaching of Christian and the seemingly never-ending siege that followed.
Just when hope of rescue for several hundred Americans seemed farthest away there came the rescue ship, according to Miss Craig. The refugees were taken to Athens and later wended their way across Europe to France and then to America.

FRENCH WOMAN, 35, MOTHER OF FIFTEEN

MOULINS, France, Nov. 24.—(U. N. S.)—(Come, it's time to get up, Pierre, Louis, Cecile, Georges, Lucie, Marcel, Gabriel, Jean, Henriette, Alice, Marie, Gustave, Georgette and Suzanne!) This is the first of the many morning duties of Mme. Celine Cheminot, who, at the age of 35 is the mother of fifteen kiddies.
Of these fifteen children, Mme. Cheminot has lost but one. Four of the boys work on neighboring farms. The father and two other sons till the soil of their own seventeen acre plot. The house itself has only two rooms and yet to quote Mme. Cheminot, "We are as snug as a bug—or either bugs—in a rug!"

LIGHTHOUSES TO HAVE GAS BURNING LAMPS

TAMPA, Fla., Nov. 24.—All lighthouses from Key West to Tampa on the Gulf of Mexico are to be equipped with gas-burning beacons, according to announcement of officials of the United States Lighthouse service who recently completed a survey of this territory. The Pintsch system, in use on many railways, is to be installed.
The change will affect several hundred lighthouses and channel beacons. It is made because it has been found gas burns with a more brilliant and penetrating light than kerosene and requires much less attention.

TUBERCULOSIS KILLS 5 IN MANILLA STREETS

MANILA, Nov. 24.—Five persons died on the streets of Manila recently of tuberculosis. They were all Filipinos. Although the Anti-Tuberculosis Society estimates that 50 percent of the native population is affected by tuberculosis in the provinces and not less than 10,000 have the disease in Manila, the Government cares for but 85 patients, half of whom bear their own expenses at the tuberculosis hospital on the outskirts of the city. Five dying on the streets has aroused a temporary interest in the situation.

FARMER SHOTS SELF

MONTESCOURT, France, Nov. 24.—M. Georges Quentin, a farmer, was accidentally killed by his own hand. M. Quentin was knocking walnuts from a tree. He held his shot gun, holding it with the muzzle pointing toward him. Striking the tree with the butt, the gun discharged, killing him instantly.

TAKES A DRINK TO WASH DOWN COAL DUST

AKRON, O., Nov. 24.—(U. N. S.)—A new use for whiskey was disclosed in Judge H. C. Spicer's juvenile court here. Walter Bekersalya, whose daughter was under inquiry, was asked if he ever drank anything. He is a coal-truck driver.
"Just a little now and then to wash the coal-dust out of my throat, Your Honor," he said. "Two little drinks all do it. I don't care for it any other time."
He added that he liked to clean up, or down, after every load and that he hauled a good many loads of coal in a day.

N. Y. MARKS TRAFFIC LINES

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—This city has declared war on "jaywalkers." The Bureau of Public Safety, a new branch of the Police Department, is now considering a proposal to chart the city streets into prescribed lanes, by means of painted lines, through which motorists and pedestrians will

WOMAN HELD MAN'S JOB BEFORE SUFFRAGE DAWN

AKRON, O., Nov. 24.—Mrs. M. C. Sperry of Akron was enjoying woman's rights long before the average woman awakened to her possibilities. For thirty-six years she has been employed by the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company, twenty years of which she spent as agent at Shawnee, Ohio. Six months ago she was transferred to Botzum, where she now presides as passenger, freight and ticket agent, telegraph operator and baggage smasher.
