HOUSE OFFERS AMENDMENT TO SHIP SUBSIDY

Illinois Representative Demands That All Vessels be Sold in Competitive Bidding

WOULD LIMIT NUMBER FIRMS CAN PURCHASE

Geddes Denies That Britain is Seeking to Influence Action of Congress on Measure.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—(U. P.)—Administration forces were weakened today in the first test of strength on the subsidy bill. The house adopted an amendment offered by Representative Graham, Illinois republican, requiring that the shipping board offer for competitive bidding any vessel sold under the subsidy bill. Graham wanted republican leaders they must accept this and other compromises if they want the measure "defensible" to middle west republicans.

Many Changes Suggested.

Indications were that the bitterest fight will come over the following amendments to be proposed: Elimination from the subsidy of benefits to the Standard Oil company, the United Fruit company, the Gulf refueling Standard Oil company and other big corporations, which carry their products in their own vessels; to greatly increase the interest rate which the shipping line would pay on the money loaned them, Harding's figure being two per cent; establishment of more fixed terms under which the 1400 ships owned by the government are to be offered for sale; to specify that government vessels cannot be gobbled up by one or two powerful financial combinations; to make the shipping board give congress an annual accounting with the request for the appropriation to continue the subsidy, since the bill now authorizes a ten year appropriation; to give farmers and producers generally throughout the country a freight rebate of 25 per cent on goods shipped from interior points for vessels receiving subsidy aid, the latter amendment already receiving approval from the western farm bloc.

A final vote on the subsidy will probably come Wednesday night. Ambassador or Geddes today denied to Secretary Hughes that the British government is making any attempt to influence congressional decision on the subsidy measure.

BUCKAROOS TAKE GAME FROM COLUMBIA BY 27 TO 0 SCORE SATURDAY

Locals Have Breaks of Contest and Score Two Touchdowns in Few Minutes; Stony Hurt

A game of football between Columbia college and Pendleton high school, characterized chiefly by a lack of consistent playing on the part of either team, was won easily by Coach Taylor's grid warriors Saturday afternoon by the one-sided score of 27 to 0.

Notwithstanding the lack of balance in the two columns where the scores are written, the game proved fairly interesting to the spectators. Pendleton had all the luck during the first few minutes of play, a blocked kick and a poor pass for another attempted kick gave the alert Pendleton players the ball. They promptly romped over for a touchdown in each case, Gillette, setting the example for the game was two minutes old when Columbia started to punt, and the punt was blocked.

But the easy winning of two touchdowns, though as it was on the moral of the visitors, caused just as much damage to the fighting spirit of the Buckaroos, because they could not keep up their old dash after they had rolled up 13 points by a figurative wave of the hand. Columbia braced some of course, but it is just as true that Pendleton slumped. The quarter ended with the score 13 to 0 and during the second quarter, there was no change. The Buckaroos pushed the piskin to the visitors' one-yard line during the first quarter after they had their little old 13, but Columbia stiffened and held twice, and the Bucks simply couldn't ride the Mustang through for another score.

During the second quarter the ball saw-sawed back and forth, but it was in Columbia's territory most of the time when neither aggression was able to put much steam into offensive charges.

The second half was not very old when Pendleton had put over its third marker of the game. Columbia kicked to the east goal, and the ball was in play on Pendleton's 27-yard line. Pendleton elected to punt and they got another break when Earnheart went down and recovered the punt after the ball had been dropped. This was on Columbia's 29-yard line. Earnheart added another bit to his claim for distinction a second later when he got under a forward pass for a gain of 15 yards.

A little later Raymond poked his nose over the line for the touchdowns. Then, Temple, just to show that he could keep up the kick, executed a drop kick and added another point. The drop kick in itself was not so extraordinary, but the manner under which it was put over was Stone-braker was in position for a play which Temple was to lose. The pass from center followed a rule that has been very prevalent this season on the Buck team, that is, it was a rather patric pass. The ball struck Stony's fingers, the fans groaned and Temple thought quickly. The piskin tipped into his hands, and he drop-kicked with about one second to spare. Score, 26 to 0.

The remainder of the third quarter was given over to a sport on the part of the visitors. For a time it looked as if they would score, and if the little god of luck had smiled so sweetly on them as he did on the Buckaroos, they probably would have crossed the goal line. But they were

SHE HOPES TO BE SENATOR

Lucille Caldwell, Long Beach, Cal., hopes some day to fill a seat in the United States Senate. She's only 22 now but already she's a full-fledged lawyer, is president of the Women's Legal Association of the University of California, and is looking longingly toward a seat in the legislature.

TIERNAN LEAVES SECOND WIFE TO AVOID BIGAMY CHARGE; 1ST WIFE MAY TAKE HUSBAND BACK

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Nov. 27.—(U. P.)—"Too many husbands" Professor John Tiernan explained today as his reason for leaving his small order bride, Mrs. Blanche Brimmer of Arcadia, Iowa. Tiernan married Mrs. Brimmer two days after divorcing his wife whom he had accused of bearing an illegitimate child. He said Mrs. Brimmer insisted that her previous husband was dead. Tiernan said he discovered her as figuring in several matrimonial tangles and divorces and that the last husband is living. A temporary reconciliation was effected with Mrs. Tiernan.

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Nov. 27.—(U. P.)—Reconciliation of Professor John Tiernan and his wife blew up when Mrs. Augusta Tiernan suspected that the professor returned from his affairs and where he married another woman, only to avoid pressure of the bigamy charge. Mrs. Tiernan telegraphed her attorney to drop proceedings and to have the professor's cross fall against her divorce suit dropped. Whether John and his "Gussie" will be reconciled depends on Mrs. Tiernan's mind, whether John's latest marriage to Mrs. Blanche Brimmer of Iowa, was consummated.

Tiernan says, "My marriage with Mrs. Brimmer was never consummated. We had the most public honey-moon ever." There will be another trial to settle that point. No one knows the whereabouts of Mrs. Brimmer Tiernan.

TIGER REFUSES TO TONE DOWN HIS SPEECHES

Declares He is Too Old to Change His Tactics; Aim is Truth, Not to Please.

MINE OFFICERS ASK VISIT TO ARIZONA

Expresses Regret if Talks Give Offense, But He Must Speak Piece in Own Way.

EN ROUTE WITH CLEMENCEAU, Nov. 27.—"I'll never pull my punches," the French Tiger growled today when informed of the storm his speeches had evoked here and in England. His French friends are advising him to tone down.

"I won't do it. I'm an old man, with one foot in the grave. It's no time for a compromise. I'm sorry I'm giving offense, but I'm too old now to change my tactics. I came here to tell the truth and I'll tell it ever if it is unpleasant."

Colonel House and other friends of the Tiger visited him in New York yesterday, explaining how his mission of winning sympathy for France would be accomplished with less antagonism. Clemenceau patting them on the back and said: "That's a very fine mission for you. Mine I must carry out in my own way. I have my own been expedient and can not be so now. There's nobody in this but myself."

Offer Money for Charity.

The war premier has been invited to visit the town of Clemenceau, Arizona. The mining company offered to donate to any charity the Frenchman may name a dog's nine pin, amounting to $25,000, if he will come.

ABOARD CLEMENCEAU'S PRIVATE CAR ENROUTE TO CHICAGO, Nov. 27.—(A. P.)—Despite attacks in the senate and from the British government, Clemenceau, today declared he would speak out his piece in his own way, no matter whom he might offend.

He has received many telegrams urging him to tone down his remarks so as not to offend that portion of the nation he had to come to win for France.

One telegram urged him to "say things America wants to hear and be expedient." "I didn't come here to be expedient," he declared. "I came to tell the truth, I did not come to say pleasing things, but the things that would help to preserve the peace of the world."

FORMER WARDEN IS GIVEN CLEAR SLATE

HELENA, Mont., Nov. 27.—(A. P.)—A complete victory for Frank Gentry, former warden of the Montana penitentiary, who was sued by the state for an accounting and judgment of $125,000 after he had been replaced by Governor Dixon in April, 1922, was contained in a ruling today by Judge Horsky of the district court here.

The charge against Campbell is said to grow out of alleged actions two or three years ago, when according to a statement of the visiting deputy sheriff, Campbell is charged with having left his minor children and got out of the state. In California, failure to provide for minor children is a felony.

An application for extradition papers was made in California and is said to have been granted. Then the case was taken up with the Oregon authorities. On the date set for the hearing, Campbell did not appear, and his attorney sent a telegram. The extradition papers were then granted, and Smith is said to have been named as a special officer to represent the state of California to get Campbell and bring him back.

No decision on the case had been made at press time this afternoon. As soon as the return to the writ can be made by the district attorney, the case will be up before the court for a decision.

The attorneys for Campbell declare that the defendant was arrested in Wallawa county and was released from custody on a writ of habeas corpus. That Deputy Sheriff Smith kidnapped Campbell and has no right to hold him is the contention of Campbell's attorneys.

UNIVERSITY ALUMNI MEET IN PENDLETON

University of Oregon alumni from all over Umatilla county will meet in Pendleton December 26 for a reunion and for the purpose of perfecting a county organization of alumni.

The meeting will be addressed by President P. L. Campbell, of the U. of O. and while the matter of the million dollar gift campaign will be discussed, it is emphatically stated that the alumni will not be solicited for gifts at the meeting.

As yet it is undecided whether or not the meeting will be preceded by a banquet. The committee in charge consists of Miss Klida Fitzmaurice, chairman; Bert Gerard, James Johns, Jr., Harry L. Kuck, Glen Storie and John Murray. This committee is to be extended to 20 members and various sub-committees will be appointed.

Besides President Campbell, the visiting part will include W. K. Newell, director of the campaign, and Lamar Tones, field director.

DO EAGLES SEEK PENS, OR DOES JOHN WIN THE ROYAL RED RASPBERRY?

If the symbol of American freedom—namely that noble bird, the eagle—was found in all his feathered majesty in your turkey pen, wouldn't you call in the neighbors to view the phenomenon?

That's just what Col. John Bentley did yesterday when he discovered the bird in company with the solitary turkey in the Bentley backyard. The eagle evidently met up with a hunter and has a broken wing in consequence. So, Mr. Bentley believes, the eagle chose his premises as a refuge.

This is the apparent solution. However, it seemed to some of the bystanders that one of Mr. Bentley's neighbors took an undue interest in the bird and that the eagle looked at him with a knowing eye. And others who are members of an order recently established in Pendleton, claim that the turkey who is east into the backyard by the aerial visitor, uttered a stifled cry which being interpreted sounded distinctly like "R. R."

CUSTODY OF MAN IS ISSUE WHICH CAUSES BATTLE HERE TODAY

California Officer Stopped on Train and He and Prisoner Halted on Order From Court

The old fashioned game of "button, button, who has the button" is being played in Pendleton today with the custody of Hugh L. Campbell of Enterprise as the particular "button" for which players strive.

The rights of two states, California and Oregon, and the rights of a private citizen, are represented in a tangle which was begun Saturday night, as far as this county is concerned, when P. S. Smith, Jr., deputy sheriff of Sacramento, was served with a writ of habeas corpus when the train on which he and his prisoner were riding stopped at the Pendleton station.

The writ was an order from the circuit court to Smith to appear in court this morning at 9 o'clock to show cause why he should have the prisoner, H. L. Campbell, in custody. Campbell was recently arrested at Enterprise on a charge of failing to support minor children in the state of California. When he and the officer who had him in charge arrived in Pendleton the writ was served by members of the sheriff's force, and the prisoner was taken to the county jail.

ICE ON HIGHWAY SPELLS TROUBLE TO CAR DRIVERS

Cuts and Bruises Chief Sum of Injuries Sustained; Aged Man Suffers Broken Leg.

ACCIDENT ON OREGON, WASHINGTON HIGHWAY

Earl Coutts and Hunting Party 1st to go Over; Others Follow Closely; Cars Damaged.

Ice on the Oregon-Washington highway near Weston, brought disaster to four automobiles within a very short space of time last night. All four cars went into the ditch and were wrecked but fortunately no one was seriously injured.

Earl Coutts and party returning from a hunting trip to Canada, struck the ice about half a mile north of Weston. When the machine stopped spinning it was resting on its rear end with the front wheels pointing skyward. Johnny DeWar, Wm. Gordon and J. A. Hennessy of Grand Forks, B. C., were out with flying flasks, bruised and badly shaken up, but latest reports today indicate that all three will recover. Aside from being badly shaken, Coutts escaped uninjured. Two wheels of the car were torn completely off and the car looks to be badly wrecked.

A Dodge sedan, belonging to a Mr. Hader of Walla Walla, a Big-six Studebaker owned by W. E. Farnell of Milton, a Ford coupe owned by Billy Wright, the boxer, who participated in the bout at Walla Walla Saturday night, all went into the ditch in close proximity to the Coutts car. None of the occupants were seriously injured.

With Mr. Farnell was an aged man, whom he had picked up on the road for a "lift," whose leg was broken in the crash. He was badly shaken up, also. He merely gave his name as "Old Granddad." He is being cared for at the Weston mayor's home.

As a result of the fog, wires are encumbered with frost and some wire trouble is expected.

WHEAT GROWERS ASK FOR NEW MARKET ROAD

A request that the county court include a part of the Athena-Helix road on its market road program for 1923 was made this morning by a delegation of prominent farmers of the Athena-Helix district who visited the court.

The delegation would like for the road construction work to start at Athena and extend as far as possible back toward Helix. Some of the men told the court this morning. An argument for their road being built, the delegation called attention to the fact that approximately 100,000 bushels of wheat are hauled out over the present road now.

Members of the delegation who were here this morning to press the request were George Gerking, D. H. Sanders, Dean Dudley, Clay Jackson, Louis Keen, Sheldon Taylor, D. B. "Mike" Hunt, Joe Cannon and Ed Potts.

LEAGUE OFFICER CALLS MEETING FOR SATURDAY

A meeting of the Taxpayers' League of Umatilla county has been called for Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock in the circuit court room, according to a statement made by Norborne Berkeley, vice-president and acting secretary of the organization.

Judge Fen left the city this morning, and he asked me to make a statement that the meeting will be held," Mr. Berkeley said. "The legislature is to convene within a short time, and the meeting will touch on possible legislative matters. Then budgets may come in for some discussion."
