GUARD'S SEARCH FOR BODIES IS FRUITLESS

MARROUGE, La., Dec. 21.—(A. P.)—The detachment of the national guard that late yesterday dragged part of Lake La Fourche in an effort to locate the bodies of two men reported murdered by a hooded band last August after kidnapping five prominent Merrouge citizens, were unsuccessful and a second detachment was despatched to the lake.

The soldiers were ordered to prevent any attempts of outsiders to interfere with the diving operations. Reports were circulated that the enemies of the movement would interfere. A chart prepared by special investigators shows where the bodies, probably weighted down with wagon wheels, were thrown.

POLICE GET LAYOUT OF OPIUM IN RAIDS

NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—(I. N. S.)—Drug raiders, following the "poppy path" invaded the heart of Greenwich village, arresting five men after a desperate battle in a dark room. Alleged opium den was within the shadow of the Judson Memorial church. The smashing of glass windows drew hundreds to the scene from neary-by tea rooms and dancing places frequently in Greenwich village. Two complete layouts of opium and two kits of burglar tools were seized. Many actresses are said to have visited the establishment.

UKIAH THERMOMETERS REGISTER 27 BELOW

(East Oregonian Special.)

UKIAH, Dec. 21.—A cold spell visited Ukiah causing many people to get in extra wood of nights and keep up close to their fires. The thermometer registered 26 and 27 degrees below on the nights of December 12, 13 and 14.

Agnes Rickert visited with friends and relatives in Ukiah Tuesday.
